DEMOCRATIC STOCK FAR ABOVE PAR IN MALHEUR

Bryan-Kern Sentiment Is Strong Throughout County— Outlook Fully as Favorable as When Chamberlain Defeated Cake Last June.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Ontario, Or., Oct. 6.—The outlook for Bryan in Malheur county is every bit as good as it was for Chamberlain last June when the governor carried the county over Cake for senator by a plurality of 181. Bryan sentiment is strong throughout this big county and here, as elsewhere, reports are constantly drifting in of precincts, away out in the country, that are going to cast their votes for the Commoner, although the registration lists show the precincts to be Republican.

Here, too, as elsewhere, general apathy is apparent. The leaders of the Taft party are willing enough to trumpet up a campaign, but the voters take no interest in the program and refuse to get excited over a candidate in whose success they haven't a particle of concern.

Republicans Split by Strife.
Then, too, there is the same old factional strife that has bothered Republican party leaders and disgusted the rank and file for years. Here it is Bourne and Fulton. Both have their cohorts and henchmen in the county and the smoldering embers were fanned into flames early this week when an emissary who was hired by Bourne to organize Taft clubs, that the other faction won't recognize as legitimate, dropped into Vale, the county seat, to earn his salary as an organizer. Naturally he communicated with the Bourne push at Vale, organized a little club—little in point of membership—and offered it with Bourne henchmen. The Fulton following was overlooked in this factional fashion, and so they are sore. It was much the same down in Pendleton, where they couldn't organize because they couldn't agree as to the division of the club officers among the Geer, Lowell and Furnish factions, partisans in each of which wanted to monopolize the honors and the glory.

Organizing Democratic Clubs.
Democratic stock is running high in Malheur. This evening a Bryan and Kern club will be organized at Vale and one is to be launched here right away. The Democrats are enthusiastic throughout the county and there is general conviction that the Commoner will get a majority of the votes this fall.

A meeting of prominent Democrats and members of the county committee, which had been called by Chairman Solida, was held here this afternoon, and it was decided to wage a lively campaign until the polls close in November.

John H. Stevenson, representing the state committee, is here from Portland and declares himself as highly pleased with the local outlook. Stevenson says that as a result of his canvass of the political situation up the east side of the state he is satisfied that the counties east of the Cascades will roll up a good heavy majority for the Nebraska.

As an example of the defection toward Bryan in the Republican ranks Democrats here are citing the case of St. Anthony, a territory Republican precinct over the border, in which the poll records show a total of eight Democrats, but which recently organized a Bryan and Kern club with a membership of 163.

There is a suspicion here that Bryan on November 2 will carry Idaho for the third time.

SECURES DATA ON COUNTRY'S RESOURCES
(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Oct. 6.—The National Conservation commission, through the aid of the National Business League of America, has issued a schedule of inquiries relative to the vast land, water, forest and mineral resources of the country. These inquiries have been forwarded to the different governors of the states and the inquiries are expected to be furnished the national commission.

Governor Chamberlain received a number of copies of the inquiries yesterday. Since he has already appointed a state conservation commission, he will refer the inquiries to that body. When the national commission has received answers to all the questions contained in the schedule from each of the states it will have on hand a vast amount of valuable information, concerning the conservation of resources, that has never before been gathered or concerning which no effort to gather has ever before been put forth.

HALT PENDING POWERS' DICTUM

Sultan Withholds War and Austria Annexation— Serbia for War.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Paris, Oct. 6.—Heading the advice of France and England, the sultan of Turkey today announced his decision to postpone the declaration of war against Bulgaria, pending the conference of the powers.

Vienna, Oct. 6.—Emperor Franz Josef today decided to delay the proclamation announcing the annexation of the provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina by the dual Austria-Hungarian empire. The proclamation will not be issued until the result of the conference of the powers is known. The delay was announced after the emperor had been closeted with his advisers.

Paris, Oct. 6.—The postponement of the declaration of war by the sultan is believed here to mark a great turn for the better in the situation, and there is considerable relief.

All the disinterested powers have agreed to the call for a conference, except Germany. So far the kaiser has not expressed himself and his attitude is the subject of much speculation.

Foreign Ministers Pinchot of France and Iwolsky of Russia, and Stanchoff, the Bulgarian agent in Paris, held a long conference today, after which they visited Premier Clemenceau, with whom British Ambassador Bertie was conferring.

The announcement of the call for the conference and of Turkey's decision to postpone the declaration of war followed immediately after the conference with the premier.

REFORM SCHOOL YOUTH SUCCUMBS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Oct. 6.—James O'Brien, a boy 15 years of age, parentage unknown, died at the reform school yesterday of internal troubles. For 12 years the lad had made his home at St. Mary's home, near Seaverton, and later lived with the Sisters at St. Louis, in Marion county. He had always been a delicate youth. On account of wayward tendencies he was committed to the reform school July 1.

FIRE VICTIM TRIES TO END TROUBLES

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Wash., Oct. 6.—With one end of a piece of hose attached to a gas jet and the other end in his mouth, Rowland Williams, 40 years old, was found on the verge of death this morning in the New England hotel. His life was saved by the prompt action of physicians. Williams is one of the legion of down-and-out victims of the San Francisco disaster of 1906. Letters found on his person show that he owned a butcher shop and meat plant of considerable proportions but lost it.
