

DRY FUND IS GROWING

Citizens of Oregon Who Believe Nebraska's Election Is Best for the Country Are Coming Forward With Assistance.

Friends of the policies and principles of William Jennings Bryan are coming forward with financial assistance to his campaign. Already the committee appointed by the suggestion of State Chairman Swook to assist him and the state central committee in collecting a campaign fund for use in Oregon has been given $430.50, principally by small contributions from new donors.

Table listing names and amounts of contributions to the Bryan fund, including George Sharp, Paul Martindale, and others.

3 FIRES AT BAKER; PENDLETON'S SEVENTH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Baker City, Or., Oct. 6.—Three fires in three hours kept the fire department of this city on the run from 4:30 o'clock this morning. The first alarm was turned in for the W. G. Ayre residence, the second for the H. W. Estes barn and the third for the old creamery building.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., Oct. 6.—This city's seventh fire within a comparatively short time occurred last night, when the barn and barley warehouse belonging to W. S. Byers, the pioneer flour man, were damaged to the extent of $18,000.

The fire originated in the barn and the flames spread almost immediately to the adjoining barley warehouse. For a time the entire mill was threatened. Several head of mules and some machinery, an electric auto, and 5,000 sacks of barley are a total loss. Both buildings were ruined.

Advertisement for 'Our cargo of Fall and Winter Derbies and Soft Hats has arrived.' Includes an image of a hat and promotional text.

DRINKING FOR DEALERS IN CIGARETTES

Charles Gill Captured After Sensational Dash Up City Street.

A man who gives his name as Charles Gill is being held at the police station while the detective department looks up his record and endeavors to discover whether his raw attempt to work off a phony check on Mrs. M. E. Becker, wife of the proprietor of La Palais Royal, 318 Washington street, marks him an amateur at the forgery game, as the unpolished nature of his attempt would seem to indicate, or as a fair offender.

Woman's Piqued Suspicious. His companion, however, was so extensively dressed that Mrs. Baker, to whom the saleswoman had referred the matter, became suspicious at their wanting so cheap a skirt.

Wipes Latex Off's Face. Perry, Iowa, Oct. 6.—Rather than disappoint a crowd at Valley Junction which had assembled to hear him, W. J. Bryan hastily postponed his shaving today and, wiping the latex from his face, addressed several thousand people. His speech was loudly applauded.

ADDRESS MADE BY MEMBER FOR BRYAN

Congressman George Fred Williams of Massachusetts will speak tomorrow at McMinville. In the interest of the candidacy of Bryan and Kern, Great interest has been aroused by the visit of Mr. Williams among the people of McMinville.

ONCE LOVED MADLY BUT NOT SO NOW

Declaring that she once worshipped the grocer who had seduced and tried to poison herself when he left her, Mrs. Eva Puckett appeared before Judge Galloway in court today to prosecute him for non-support.

CLEARING HOUSE ANNUAL REPORT

New York, Oct. 6.—The New York clearing house report for the year ending September 30, made public this afternoon, shows a record of $77,040,604.189, as against $99,129,347.346 the preceding year.

Advertisement for 'THERE is no better way to prove the curative powers of the Bitters than to try a bottle the next time your Stomach, Liver and Bowels are weak and unable to do their work.'

EXCESSIVE DRINKING GATTS ARE NOW WILLING AT GRANTS PASS

Three Runs in Seventh Clinch Second Game for New York.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Oct. 6.—Detroit won the post-game in the American league today, defeating Chicago 7 to 6.

W.C.T.U. OFFICERS GET TOGETHER. The Twenty-fifth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union opened this morning with the general officers' meeting. This afternoon a business session will be held and this evening there will be a program.

Brought Girl to Wake Trouble. Pure spite work, according to Judge Van Zante, led to the arrest last week of J. Wind, a saloon keeper whose place at East Third and Burnside streets Wind was charged with having allowed a minor girl in his saloon.

WIFE CHARGES ASSAULT

John Rueddy, an east side resident, morning when Constable Leo Wingerth this morning, charged with assault and battery on his wife, who swore to the complaint. Rueddy's wife says that she gave her a severe thrashing. He was committed to jail and will be arraigned in the justice court tomorrow.

INSPECTOR FINDS INFECTIOUS CASES

Medical School Inspector Geilert found 18 cases of infectious disease in the city today. Most of the cases were of typhoid and similar diseases that are not considered very dangerous.

LAWYERS TOSS WORDS OVER SUNDAY CLOSING

Heavy batteries of legal lore were turned loose in the circuit court this morning when the Sunday-closing injunction case was called for argument before Presiding Judge Gantenben. When the court adjourned for the noon recess the attorneys were in the midst of the battle, with their ammunition still piled up around them in the shape of legal precedents.

Advertisement for 'Hole Burned in Roof.' A fire broke out in the house at 501 Commercial street, owned by Henry Couch, at 11 o'clock this morning, burning a hole in the roof.

THE DISTINGUISHED MASSACHUSETTS JURIST TALKS TO CAPACITY HOUSE AT JOSEPHINE'S METROPOLIS—GUARANTEED DEPOSIT PLANK.

Judge Williams made a strong impression with his forcible and plain presentation with his guaranteed bank deposit plank of the Democratic platform.

Under existing conditions, he said, "our banks dispose of $40,000 credit of each $100,000 deposit. Thus, instead of receiving six per cent, they receive as high as 24 and even 50 per cent. This account is not rapidly with which a bank can fall when a demand is made for deposits.

W.C.T.U. OFFICERS GET TOGETHER. The Twenty-fifth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union opened this morning with the general officers' meeting. This afternoon a business session will be held and this evening there will be a program.

Brought Girl to Wake Trouble. Pure spite work, according to Judge Van Zante, led to the arrest last week of J. Wind, a saloon keeper whose place at East Third and Burnside streets Wind was charged with having allowed a minor girl in his saloon.

SWEETS SPOILS SOAR TO $40,000 MARK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Walla Walla, Wash., Oct. 6.—The amount of E. B. Sweet's defalcations will reach $40,000, according to information from the district office today. Twelve thousand of this is made up of insurance which has been turned in to the company, and a thousand is by false checks on the Prescott State bank, never recorded. It is said he stole all the undivided profits of the bank.

THOUSANDS OF AMERICAN WOMEN IN OUR HOMES ARE DAILY SACRIFICING THEIR LIVES TO DUTY.

In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo. A female weakness or displacement is often brought on and they suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

comes as a boon and a blessing, as it did to Mrs. F. Ellsworth, of Mayville, N. Y., and to Mrs. W. P. Boyd, of Beaver Falls, Pa., who say: "I was not able to do my own work, owing to the female trouble from which I suffered. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me wonderfully, and I am so well that I can do as big a day's work as I ever did. I wish every sick woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?