

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY JOURNAL FOR THE BEST RESULTS

The Weather—Showers tonight or Friday; southerly winds.

VOL. VII. NO. 186.

PORTLAND, OREGON, THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 8, 1908.—TWENTY PAGES.

JOURNAL CIRCULATION YESTERDAY WAS 30,850

PRICE TWO CENTS. ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS, FIVE CENTS.

CHICAGO TAKES FAST GAME FROM NEW YORK

TURKEY MAY REBUT WITHTYCOMBE

CALL DOWN OF ROSEBURG HAS EYES ON JOB AUSTRIA STAGE

London Report Says Unless Latter Country Recedes Sultan Will Strike—Albania and Samos Declare Independence.

Superintendent, Driver and Seven Passengers Made to Hand Over Valuables—Overlooks Diamonds and $1,500 in Stockings.

Defeated Republican Candidate of Two Years Ago Would Try for the Governorship Two Years Hence, It Is Understood.

(United Press Leased Wire.) London, Oct. 8.—A member of the Turkish embassy, whose name is not made public, declared today that unless Austria retreats from its present position Turkey undoubtedly will declare war and asserted that the sultan will not wait long. He intimated that the Turkish government had displayed every desire to bring the difficulties to a peaceful settlement and had earned the support of the powers.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Roseburg, Or., Oct. 8.—"Hands up, this is no joke." With these words, a lone robber, masked by a white handkerchief, stepped out of the brush half a mile south of this city about 10:30 o'clock last night and compelled Superintendent W. C. Bennham of the Myrtle Point-Roseburg stage line, Tom Duncan, driver, and seven passengers to deliver over their valuables. Among the passengers were Mrs. Rooney, Toledo, Or., and Mrs. Burnett, San Francisco, who were not molested. As a result he failed to secure $1,500 in the possession of the former and several thousand dollars' worth of diamonds concealed in the stockings of the latter.

James Withycombe of Corvallis, Republican nominee for governor in 1906, is going to try it again. Already, two years before the next election, he is holding his ear to the ground and is considering the call of the people. Mr. Withycombe was a Portland visitor yesterday and, so the story goes, opened the Pandora's box of his political ambitions while here in conversation with R. E. Williams, national Republican committeeman for Oregon. At that time, so it is reported, Mr. Withycombe said that he was receiving urgent and insistent requests from friends throughout the state in large numbers urging him to be a candidate and that he was considering the proposition.

Vienna, Oct. 8.—Albania today declared its independence of Turkey, according to dispatches received here. This, following the similar action of Crete last evening, leads to the belief that there will be a general rebellion through the Turkish dependencies unless some stringent action is taken at once. Albania is a mountainous country in the western part of Turkey in Europe and borders on the Adriatic sea. It is north of Greece and has a population of about 1,000,000. The young Turk movement started in the northern part of Albania and an uprising there against the sultan would probably prove serious.

Constantinople, Oct. 8.—The cruiser Medjish and three torpedo boats were dispatched to the island of Samos today, as it was reported at the war office here that the people of the island were about to declare their independence of the Moslem empire.

The probable candidacy of Mr. Withycombe adds one more to the already long list of prominent men who have their eyes on the place. Up in eastern Oregon Judge Stephen A. Lowell of Pendleton is reputed to be a possible candidate. Superintendent of Public Instruction J. H. Ackerman is also a candidate. J. W. Bailey, state dairy and food commissioner, has his eye on the job, so his friends say, though Mr. Bailey himself will not admit it. District Attorney Cameron also is training his forces on the statehouse at Salem. Judge L. R. Webster is talked of as a possibility. In addition, there are perhaps a dozen other men who either are being urged to train for the race or who are urging that they should do so. It is a certainty that there will be plenty of men to fill the place when the time comes for the people to decide who will be governor.

SEVERAL SCORES INJURED DURING MOB'S ATTACK

(United Press Leased Wire.) Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 8.—Several scores of persons were injured today in a clash between the police and a mob in an attack upon the foreign ministry. The people are incensed at the weak character of the note of protest sent by the ministry to Austria in regard to the recent actions of that nation. The police used their sabres freely, cutting down all who came within range. In some instances the mob overpowered the police and took their sabres from them. The crowd was driven back from the ministry after a hard fight. A second call for reserves was sent in and they are on their way here to assist the 120,000 troops who answered the first call issued in the royal ukase of Tuesday.

HOUSE OF GOD IS QUARANTINED

Members of Sect Allowed Diphtheria Victim's Body to Remain Exposed.

Twenty people are confined by quarantine in the Church of the House of God at Hawthorne avenue and East 81st street this morning. This is probably the only instance on record of a church being quarantined. Deputy Health Officer Parker was obliged to quarantine the House of God at 7:30 last night because through carelessness of the congregation the body of Rue Neal, an infant, whose death was caused by diphtheria, was allowed to remain exposed while scores of people came to view the remains, thus exposing them to the contagion. The violation of the health ordinance was notified of the violation of the health ordinance he hurried to the House of God and closed the doors upon every one within the building. Every person who passed out was first fumigated. Those who are still there are inmates of the building in which the church is situated, and they will not be permitted to leave until the quarantine is raised.

LAFOLLETTE TO PUBLISH PAPER

Specially Devoted to Records of Parties and Politicians.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 8.—Senator Robert M. LaFollette of this state has announced that he will soon start a weekly paper on lines similar to Bryan's Commoner. The name of the publication has not yet been selected. The senator said he was assured of financial support and would proceed immediately with the publication of a weekly magazine devoted to the public interest on lines broad enough to appeal to the people of the entire country. The records of public officials and political parties will be the vital questions discussed in the new publication, according to the announcement, and men and measures will be discussed fearlessly and impartially. "I shall make the paper, above all, a vigilant champion of representative government," said LaFollette. The senator's wife is to edit a woman's department in the new publication.

MINERS' LEADER STANDS ALONE

Two Lieutenants Leave His Staff—Socialist Rival Comes on Strong.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 8.—With the simultaneous retirement today of Vice-President J. B. White and Secretary-Treasurer W. D. Ryan, the United Mine Workers of America face a crisis in their organization. Ryan is to become leader of the Illinois operators, with supervision of the southwest territory. John Walker, an avowed Socialist, heading the Socialist wing of the organization, numbering 150,000 men, is a candidate to succeed President Lewis. Lewis is weakened by the withdrawal of White and Ryan, who have been consistently supporting the conservative policies of John Mitchell. White's withdrawal is due to ill-health. Various reasons are assigned for the withdrawal of Ryan. It is likely that strong pressure and argument will be brought to bear on both men to hold their positions until the organization election next fall. The fight between Lewis, who is comparatively conservative, and his prospective opponent, Walker, will be bitter, according to the leaders in the mine workers' organization.

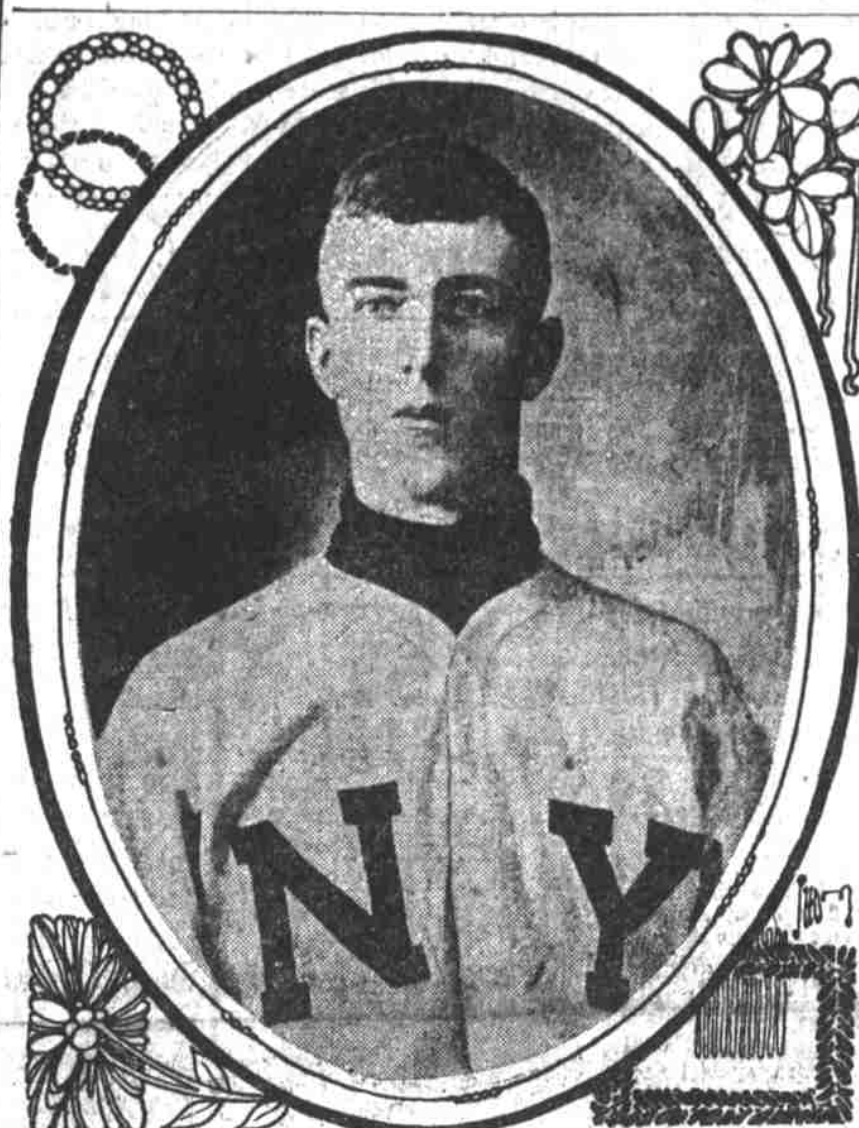

GETS TEN MILLION, NEVER BATTS AN EYE

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Oct. 8.—The news that the death of his uncle, John R. Packard, has enriched him $10,000,000 is not disturbing the quiet life of Theodore R. Shear, an elderly and dignified lawyer of this city. Shear has arranged for the transportation of his relative's body from California to New York. He receives an income of $100,000 a year derived from his law practice and has a home valued at $18,000. Theodore L. Shear, his son, a professor at Cornell, says the amount of Packard's estate is not exaggerated. Packard, who lived at Santa Cruz, owned property in Idaho, Utah, California and valuable silver mines in Mexico.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED?

Have you registered, Mr. Voter? If you have not and do not you will have to catch six freshiders on election day, or you cannot vote. It is up to you. County Clerk Fields and a number of obliging deputies are waiting at the courthouses for the coming of all voters in Multnomah county who have not signed their names to the registration books and put themselves into legal standing as voters. The clerk's office has been waiting for some time now and has given franchise credentials to a large number of men, but there are still a large number who have not complied with the law. For the convenience of those who desire to register and who do not have the time or opportunity during office hours at the courthouses, it has been decided by County Clerk Fields to keep his office open for registration until 9 o'clock each evening, commencing Monday next. At the present time the office closes at 5 o'clock. In the city there are a large number of working men who have been unable to register because they could not reach the office during the day. The evening hours will give them an opportunity to do so. The registration books will close Tuesday, October 20, according to law at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. On this evening, however, the office will be kept open until 9 o'clock to give all who have not registered a last chance. This will give equal rights to the man who cannot register in the daytime to get their names on the roll.

GO THAM TURNS OUT VAST MULTITUDE OF BALL FANS

Cause of "Bonehead" Which Threw Fandom Into Frenzy. Young Merkle, of the New York Giants, Who Deprived His Team of the Championship of the National League, When He Failed to Complete a Play Against Chicago September 23. His Lack of Headwork Has Thrown the Fan-Nation Into a Convulsion.

GREATEST CROWD THAT EVER ATTENDED GAME

New York, Oct. 8.—Thousands upon thousands of Gotham fans, eager to cheer the Giants to victory, endeavored to crowd themselves into the Polo grounds enclosure, in a space that holds about 35,000 persons, to witness the greatest struggle in the history of organized baseball at the Polo grounds. After two weeks of suspense, culminating in a harrowing three-game series in which the slightest accident might have deprived McGraw's Giants of a fighting chance for the pennant, the crisis arrived.

"Jack" Pfeiffer in Action.

Chance's Chicago Cubs were refreshed after three days' rest. Today's contest decided whether New York or Chicago should unfurl the 1908 national pennant and gain the honor of meeting Jennings' Detroit Tigers in a seven-game struggle for the championship of the world. The battle was not alone one between New York and Chicago. It was a test of brains, ability and determination between John J. McGraw, the aggressive New York leader, and Frank Chance, his wily Chicago opponent. Both men are generals of the game. Each has captured two National league pennants in the last four seasons. The game today not only aimed to decide the supremacy of the team, but to give a decided prestige to the man who attains the odd pennant.

Crowd at Gates. At the gates of the polo grounds lines of fans were formed since daybreak, carrying breakfasts and lunches. The mounted and metropolitan police were busy from early dawn holding the lines in place, quelling minor fights for places and keeping the streets clear. Back on Deadhead hill lay a carpet of humanity, while along the Washington viaduct stretched a row of tiny specks patiently waiting to get a birdseye view of the game. The weather is ideal for the game, a warm sun shining and a slight breeze cooling the bleachers. The jam at the gates is terrific. An

(Continued on Page Seventeen.)

GIANTS PLAY STRONG FOR LEAD IN FIRST

CHICAGO Final - - 4 NEW YORK Final - - 2

(United Press Leased Wire.) Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 8.—Before the greatest crowd ever assembled in the United States to witness a baseball game, the New York Giants and the Chicago Cubs came together this afternoon to settle the National league honors. The feeling of the vast audience was exhibited at every play and the excitement was tense. Hundreds of police, were on the grounds to preserve order, it being feared that the exceedingly strong factional feeling might develop into a riot by a misplay. The pitchers were announced, Mathewson for New York and Pfeiffer for Chicago. Schekard opened the game by vainly reaching for three hot ones that Mathewson steamed over. Evers slammed a grasscutter to Herzog who caught the runner by a pretty throw to Tenney. Schulte emulated Schekard and fanned. Tenney set the crowd wild with a safe smash in the first. Herzog walked. Bresnahan struck out and Kling shot the ball to Chance, catching Herzog sleeping. Donlin doubted to left and Tenney crossed the plate. Pfeiffer was unsteady and Seymour walked. Chance retired Pfeiffer to the bench and Mordca Brown succeeded him. Devlin fanned. The first inning stood: New York 1, Chicago 0. Chance slammed a safe one to the outfield but was caught napping a moment later by Mathewson. Chance argued with the umpire over the decision without avail and Mathewson "kidded" him from the box. Hofman objected so strenuously to the decision that he was chased to the bench. Howard replaced Hofman. Kling took the coaching line, but was chased away by the umpire. Steinfeld fanned, so did Howard. No runs. McCormick who succeeded Bresnahan in the Giants' batting order, opened the last half of the second by hitting to Schulte. Bridwell also flew to Schulte and Mathewson was thrown out on an infield hit. Tinker to Chance. No runs. Score: Chicago 0, New York 1. Tinker inaugurated a batting bee by swatting a three-bagger. Kling's drive to center scored Tinker. Kling was sacrificed to second when Tenney put out Brown unassisted. Schackelford to Seymour. Evers was permitted to walk

GATES CLOSED TO STOP MOB

Two Hours Before Game Is Called Grounds Are Packed.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) New York, Oct. 8.—Two hours before the game started today the gates of the Polo grounds were closed against a surging, frenzied mob of baseball enthusiasts that, from point of numbers, breaks all records in this country. In spite of the fact that the Cubs have the advantage of a four-days' rest, betting is even on this afternoon's deciding National league game.

NEW YORK-CHICAGO GAME BY INNINGS

Inning	New York	Chicago
First Inning	1	0
Second Inning	0	0
Third Inning	0	0
Fourth Inning	0	0
Fifth Inning	0	0
Sixth Inning	0	0
Seventh Inning	1	0
Eighth Inning	0	0
Ninth Inning	0	0
Tenth Inning	0	0
Final Score	4	2

RESULTS

That The Journal is the greatest real estate salesman in Portland is the opinion of the majority of realty dealers. Their opinion is, of course, based on the results they get through the different media. For rapid sales The Journal has no equal, and the secret of the superior results that come through The Journal lies in the fact that The Journal is read by more people in Portland and in Oregon than any other newspaper. The Journal goes into the homes of the people because it is the people's popular paper. Cases similar to the following are numerous, proving that it does not pay to be out of The Journal. C. H. Thompson, 128 Third street, advertised a house for sale in another newspaper several times, without success, and then inserted the ad in The Journal and sold the property almost immediately. About 20 applicants came through The Journal and only a few through the other medium. When you have property to sell, reach the people who want to buy through the people's paper.