GARRETT TARGET FOR ANGEL BAND

Seraphs Find Beavers Easy Picking and Salt Second Matinee.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, Oct. 8.—Nagle was too much for Portland yesterday, and Los Angeles made play of the ball game, winning easily 8 to 2. Fourteen safeties were made off Garrett, the little Texan's slants being pounded in all corners of the lot. The only man on the Angel payroll who failed to connect safely was "Happy" Hogan. Except Oakes and Brashear every Dillonite made two hits. Three costly errors on the part of Brashear, Delmas and Hogan prevented the local team from scoring a shutout on the northerners. Spectacular fielding by Casey and great running catches by Ryan and Oakes were the features of the game. The score:

OREGON'S TRAINER STARTS ATHLETES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 8.—Fall training for the track men began yesterday and Trainer Hayward expects to develop some good distance men during the next couple of months. The plan for the work will be similar to that of last year and some interesting cross-country and relay races will be between the different classes should result. Among the freshmen are several men who have won titles as high school runners. The interclass meets will take place before Christmas, whenever the weather permits, and will be awarded to the winning teams, each member receiving a medal. Hayward is also planning an indoor meet similar to the one held last March, but much more elaborate. It will be held some time this winter and will include both sprints and other events.

HORSES TRAINING FOR THE BIG SHOW

Out of Town Entries Are Arriving Fast at Old Fair Grounds.

Only a few minor details remain to be carried out, and the second annual horse show of the Portland Hunt club will be ready to throw open the doors of the Oriental building at the Lewis and Clark exposition grounds to the anxiously waiting public. All of the local exhibitors are ready for the show, and already those that will be shown by the out of town exhibitors are beginning to arrive. By the 3 o'clock of the week all of the Seattle entries will be here, and Wednesday morning Walter Scott Hoar and E. S. Bevard of Burlingame, California, who will officiate as judges of the show, will reach Portland. Mr. Hoar sent a telegram saying that he and Bevard would reach here on the Southern Pacific early Wednesday morning. Since the ring has been thrown open for exercising, there has been a good horse show in the ring at the Oriental building, both morning and afternoon since Monday. There is a daily attendance of several hundred curious spectators around the ring, and they are enthusiastic in their applause as the riders and drivers put their horses through their exercising stunts. J. W. Crutcher, in order to give all a chance to use the ring, has allotted the hours for exercising. In the morning from 8 o'clock until 10 o'clock, the ring is turned over for the exclusive use of the saddle horse brigade, and from 10 o'clock until noon the harness horses exercise in the ring. From 1 p. m. until 3 o'clock is the time allotted for the saddlers again, and from 3 o'clock until 5 o'clock is allotted to the harness exhibitors. After they are through with the ring the push ball team takes possession of the ring, and then follows the class of 24 riders in the high school drill.

KERMIT ROOSEVELT TO SHINE WITH HARVARD

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Boston, Oct. 8.—Among the scrub football team is Kermit Roosevelt, son of the president, who is endeavoring to get on the regular class team. Young Roosevelt, who is a member of the Harvard team, plays a snappy game and the coaches are carefully watching his work. The team wants to emulate the example of his father and the showing he has made in practice is said to warrant his hope to make either of the tackle positions on the freshman eleven.

THREE AMENDMENTS TO GAME STATUTES

Three amendments to the game and fish laws of the state were reported upon at the meeting of the Oregon Fish and Game Association last night in the chamber of commerce building. These included a closed season for Mongolian pheasants for a year, a closed season on elk until 1910, and the reenactment of the trout law, making a closed season from November 1 to April 1. The meeting was quite largely attended by sportsmen from Portland and near-by places, and considerable discussion and opinion relative to the protection of elk some thinking that the closed season should be made five years, while others thought elk should be protected at all times, since they are gradually disappearing. It was decided at the meeting to hold sessions every month until the legislative meets, at which time the petitions will be presented.

Being hard hit by the men who were when the moral crusade should begin and they should be driven from their haunts, they began making preparations for the coming winter. They are now in the hands of the moral crusaders, and they are now in the hands of the moral crusaders. They are now in the hands of the moral crusaders.
