

PAID HOSTS TO TEACHERS

Columbia County, Institute in Session—Superintendent of Public Instruction Ackerman in Charge—Advancement Shown.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Rainier, Or., Oct. 8.—The Columbia County Teachers' institute is now well under way and will close tomorrow evening at the afternoon session.

The instructors present at the convention are: J. H. Ackerman, state superintendent of public instruction; C. H. Jones, county superintendent of Multnomah county schools; Portland; H. D. Sheldon, professor of philosophy and education, Eugene; J. M. Powers, city superintendent, Salem; C. H. Jones, editor of the Oregon Teacher; Monthly, Salem; E. Collins, Columbia county superintendent.

The following committee was appointed by County Superintendent C. H. Jones to act during the convention: C. H. Jones, leader in singing; Miss Lois Perry, institute secretary; Miss Mary Conners, Clatskanie, special soloist; Professor O. H. Byland, Rainier, chairman committee of arrangements.

Among the subjects discussed Wednesday were: "What the Schools Have Done for America," H. D. Sheldon; "Ventilation," H. D. Sheldon; "The Child as an Individual," R. Robinson; "Geography," R. H. Robinson; "Numbers," J. M. Powers.

The topics discussed this morning and for discussion this afternoon are: "Care of the Eyes," H. D. Sheldon; "Reading," R. F. Robinson; "Care of the Ear," H. D. Sheldon; "Lanquor," J. M. Powers; "Civil Government," R. F. Robinson; "History," J. M. Powers; "Numbers," J. M. Powers; "Reading," R. F. Robinson.

The convention will result in material benefit to the teachers in many ways. Many new ideas were brought forward that will prove helpful in the coming school year.

Gain in Attendance. In discussing the attendance it was found that Rainier has made a gain of over 100 per cent in the past few years, having at present an enrollment of 290 pupils. The total number of school children in attendance in Columbia county is 3,000, a gain of over 25 per cent in the last two years.

There has been much advancement this past year in the Columbia county educational line. The country school is no longer what it used to be, a poorly built and heated building, with a very dull teacher in charge. A higher standard of work has been adopted and some of the best teachers are to be found in the small schools.

Five new schools were built in Columbia county this year at an approximate cost of about $30,000. It is significant that the country school is no longer what it used to be, a poorly built and heated building, with a very dull teacher in charge. A higher standard of work has been adopted and some of the best teachers are to be found in the small schools.

The Rainier school, which was erected last year, has six large rooms, a gymnasium, a large auditorium, and in the basement are a good furnace and excellent fresh-air apparatus that fills the rooms with fresh air every five minutes.

The schoolhouse is tastefully decorated for the occasion and a very hearty welcome has been accorded the visiting teachers and instructors.

Teachers at The Dalles. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) The Dalles, Oct. 8.—The annual teachers' institute of Wasco, Hood River and Sherman counties convened here yesterday with 150 teachers in attendance. The teachers of the institute were divided into four departments, in which the work was the most suited to the instructor.

The primary and intermediate sections were handled by R. R. Traver of Monmouth Normal school and L. R. Alderman, a member of the faculty of the University of Oregon. Numbers and language were discussed in these departments.

After the section work, Superintendent Ackerman addressed the general assembly, his subject being "Helping, Not Hurting." He gave a very interesting and helpful talk to the teachers, who were enthusiastic over the institute.

They were to meet at 9 o'clock this morning, but by 8 o'clock the teachers were in their places at the High school building. Miss Cornelia Martin of the state library commission presented the subject of geography in the primary and intermediate work. The Methodist church was well filled with interested listeners to enjoy the address last night by Professor J. H. Ackerman and L. R. Alderman. Institute will close Friday evening.

LOST IT MOSTLY PLAYING RACES. (United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Oct. 8.—W. H. Shafer, local agent for the Puget Sound Electric Railway company, is in the city jail and will be charged with the embezzlement of between $4,000 and $5,000. Discovery of further shortages is expected. Shafer has admitted his defalcation.

"I lost it mostly on the races," said he. "My expenses exceeded my income. It's bad business."

Shafer is 39 years old, and married. During the six years he has been in Seattle he has made a wide acquaintance. Shafer admitted a shortage of between $4,000 and $5,000 in his account for September. He confessed his shortage to President Jacob Furth of the Seattle Electric company, when he was confronted with evidence.

Tokyo, Oct. 8.—Word was received here today from Peking that the Kwang Tung, the Chinese Woman's Anti-Japanese league the Chinese women's response for the perseverance of the boycott of Japanese goods, has been dissolved. This is taken to mean that the backbone of the Chinese boycott has been broken. The members of the Kwang Tung pledged themselves not to use Japanese-made goods.

WOMEN RESIGN SUPERIOR COURT

Washington, Commission No Board "Where Women Raise Money and Men Spend It."

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Oct. 8.—The commission appointed by Governor Mead to examine into the condition of the criminal insane confined at the state penitentiary met yesterday afternoon in the office of Dr. Elmer E. Hec, secretary of the state board of health, and summed up its findings, which were sent last night to Governor Mead at Olympia. The report states that the conditions as they were found when the commission met at the penitentiary, September 23 and 24, and as they now are, are entirely inadequate and actually cruel. Many of the patients are confined in their cells 23 hours daily, with but two hours' exercise in the open air.

Members of the commission are in favor of a separate site and buildings for the proper care of the insane criminals and the convict insane, and recommend that the buildings be not over two stories and that they be surrounded with a proper wall for the safekeeping of the inmates.

BUY PLANT OR SHARE PROFITS YANNO-CHINESE ALLIANCE--RATS. That's What the Honorable Jap Says Whenever It Is Mentioned.

(United Press Leased Wire.) London, Oct. 8.—Labor delegates representing the employees of the great shipbuilding firm of Furness, Withy & Co., are considering the proposals of the employers to permit the workers to buy the plant or enter into a profit-sharing agreement with the firm provided friction between the men and the company is stopped. The offer was made by Sir Christopher Furness, head of the firm, during a meeting with the labor representatives at West Hartlepool.

Furness told the delegates that strikes must be stopped or the works would be compelled to shut down. He suggested that if trade unions thought they could carry on the business themselves at a price set by impartial assessors, the proposition was that if the unions would not buy the plant, the firm would admit them on a profit-sharing basis, provided a court be formed to settle disputes by referring them to arbitrators.

COUNCIL'S FIRST MEETING OF SEASON. The council of Jewish women held the first meeting of the season yesterday afternoon at the Seiling-Hirsch building. Mrs. Max Hirsch presided and presented an able paper in which she outlined the work of the year. She also suggested certain changes in the constitution which she thought advisable to present at the triennial convention to be held in Cincinnati.

Miss Louis Altman was chosen delegate, with Mrs. S. M. Blumauer as alternate. The neighborhood house was shown to be in excellent condition and the work progressing favorably. A committee has been selected to select a new and larger site for the Neighborhood house, but no action has yet been taken.

A committee reported that a mass meeting will be held shortly to devise ways and means for the establishment of a Jewish hospital in this city, which is now deemed necessary on account of the growth of the Jewish population.

LOST GIRL'S PARENTS EXPRESS THEIR THANKS. Hopeful of yet finding their little daughter who disappeared so mysteriously September 14, Mrs. and Mr. George H. Haviland, 749 Roosevelt street, have written to The Journal to express their appreciation of what has been done by the newspaper's representatives as well as by the police officers in their search for baby Pearl Haviland. The girl dropped from sight when she left home for school on the morning of September 14, and has not been seen since. The scores of persons who have offered their homes and have given time and labor in the attempt to find Pearl Haviland are also thanked by the parents. The Havilands have caused picketing of any person aroused as much interest as the Haviland case, and the continued efforts to find the girl have been untiring.

EDWARD FRISBIE. (United Press Leased Wire.) Oakland, Cal., Oct. 8.—Arrangements for the funeral of Edward Frisbie, one of the pioneers of California, were completed today. The interment will be at the Vallejo cemetery, where General John Frisbie of Mexican war fame, a brother of the deceased, is buried. Edward Frisbie came to California in 1855 by way of Cape Horn. He settled in the Napa valley and started farming on a large tract. In 1857 he moved to Siskiyou county and purchased the John R. Haggin grant of 26,000 acres, in which the towns of Redding and Anderson are now located. The Bank of Northern California at Redding was established by Frisbie in 1858 and he retained the presidency of the institution until his death.

Besides his wife and children, he is survived by 30 grand children and several great grandchildren.

In addition to the home-grown crop, France derives from her African colonies of Tunis and Algeria an even larger quantity of olive oil than it produces at home, the total importation in 1908 being 47,723 tons, of which 18,254 tons were imported from Tunis and Algeria, the remainder being imported in the order of quantity, from Italy, Spain, Greece, Turkey, etc.

Firm Flesh Versus Fat. Fat women who are contemplating a new gown in the mode will have to contend with a reduction of the waist when they visit the dressmaker.

Fortunately this is nothing like the hard labor it was when one was not dieting but exercising or dieting to get results with. Nowadays a short course of the Marmol Prescription Tablets should bring any woman, however fat, to the proportions necessary for her to wear a Directorate gown.

Let her take a Marmol Tablet (made in accordance with the famous prescription and, therefore, harmless) after each meal and at intervals of one hour. This result, accomplished without disturbing one's table customs, forming wrinkles or distressing the stomach, astonishes everybody.

Even a large case, costing only 75 cents at any drug store, or the same amount direct by mail, from the Marmol Company, Detroit, Mich., gives positive results. This constitutes the Marmol cure of obesity.

TEXANS HONOR GRAND OLD MAN

Monument to John H. Reagan, Patriot of Both the South and North.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Palestine, Texas, Oct. 8.—An everlasting memorial of John H. Reagan, the "grand old man" of Texas, was unveiled here today in the presence of a large crowd. The ceremonies were conducted under the auspices of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and were of an interesting character. The oration of the day was delivered by Congressman Jack Beall of Waxahatchee.

The monument is the work of Pompeo Coppini, the San Antonio sculptor. Standing upon a base of Texas granite nine feet high, the bronze figure of the grand old man is seen just risen from his seat in the United States senate. The pose is erect and fearless, with hand extended in the gesture of command. At his feet sits the allegorical figure of a defeated and feeble state. This, also the work of Coppini, is symbolic of the conquered south and is called "The Lost Cause."

On the front face of the granite base the name of Judge Reagan is inscribed and on the other three faces are tablets, two bearing quotations and one an eulogium giving the life record of Senator Reagan.

Senator John H. Reagan, the man whose memory has thus been honored, had a long and varied career in American politics. He was a public career he was a distinguished and a member of the Texas legislature. He was postmaster-general and later secretary of the treasury in the cabinet of Jefferson Davis, president of the confederacy, and was captured with his fallen chief.

He was a delegate to the convention that framed the post-bellum constitution of Texas, and a representative in congress from 1876 to 1887. For nearly 10 years he held continuously the post of chairman of the house committee on commerce, and with the exception of one term, in 1887 he was elected to the United States senate and served until 1891. He was noted for his decided views and efforts to regulate interstate commerce, and finally was one of the authors of the Cullom-Reagan interstate commerce bill, which became a law in 1887.
