

KINGCRAFT IS THE ONLY SECOND ANNUAL GRANGE ISSUE, SAYS WATTERSON FAIR OPENS AT MAYVILLE

Veteran Prophet of Democracy Points to Imperialism Alone as the Arch-Foe of Liberty — Roosevelt and the Roar of Rant and Cant.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Louisville, Ky., Oct. 8.—Presiding at a Democratic rally here last night and making his first political address since 1892, Henry Watterson, the veteran political journalist, rejoiced in a reunited Democracy, and cheered it in its onslaught upon the imperialistic forces in the government, which, he said, were destined to destroy American liberty if not checked. He reduced all issues to one issue, that of entrenched governmental privilege, regarding all enumerated and labeled issues of the campaign as only phases of the basic issue. Mr. Watterson said:
 "I truly rejoice that I have lived to look upon a reunited Democracy. I was born in a Democratic camp during what proved a bad year for Democracy, and I attained my majority just in time to see the party go over the precipice of sectionalism to what seemed its ruin.
 "The politicians tell that there are many issues, but I see only one.
 "If we can not change our rulers at will, if one organized and defiant minority inside a fortress can withstand the stage of an undisciplined and ill-equipped majority on the outside—how shall talk about trusts and tariff, about rebates and bank deposits, about money and morals and stocks and bonds profit us?
 "Behold now an almost exact reproduction of the evil conditions of 50 years ago. The Republican party, grown corrupt and arrogant, is putting forth a tremendous effort to retain the power which it has so much abused.
 "If it succeeds it will never surrender its short of some dire calamity; some may say it will be the signal for, maybe, a civil war.
 "To that end its policies of militarism, favoritism and class distinction have been tending and preparing a new irrepressible conflict between capital and labor.
 "I pray God that this may never come. The way to avert it is by occasional change of party, bringing home to our public men their subordination to the people.
 "If I were a Republican I would vote for Bryan. If I were a Republican I would let the big chief with his 'big stick' go hang. If I were a Republican I would turn my back upon a candidate no matter how personally acceptable, who represents the vicious methods of ring rule and the steam roller.
 "A Roar of Rant and Cant.
 "Whatever usefulness the Republican party ever possessed it has for the time outlived. It stands today a menace to equal taxation and economic administration, it is not to orderly government and free institutions.
 "We see all disguise of decency thrown aside; the black flag of Trustism run up to the masthead; the decks crowded with corporation counsel. The occupant of the White House summons the unrepentable Hearst as his star witness.

 "The honest rich are invoked to make common cause with the lawless rich. All perspectives of truth and sobriety and common sense are lost amid the roar of rant and cant of self-glorifying laudation and self-accusing promises of reform, with Aldrich and Cannon, with Payne and Daines and 'Sunny Jim' Sherman for their examples.
 "But Longworth Did Say It.
 "Having pitched the campaign on a false note, starting out with a man of straw on a platform of imposture, no argument is too absurd, no illustration too rank for the men and the interests that do not mean to be dislodged if fraud and force can save them.
 "Nicholas Longworth, the president's son-in-law, says he did not say it, but the 5,000 listeners say he did. The notes of two stenographers say he did. What boots it whether he did or not? No one who knows what is going on in the national capital and has been going on for a long time, needs to be told that they are undermining the popular foundation of our Democratic government and converting it into an imperial republic, with nothing wanting of monarchism and titular nobility except the nomenclature.
 "Roosevelt Really a King.
 "The White House is already the palace of a king. The president is already a sovereign in everything except the name.
 "Why should not a member of the court circle hunt it out that fact is expected merely to hold down the job for Roosevelt, since it was thought premature to run Roosevelt for the immediate succession.
 "The campaign was and is a family affair. If the machine which nominated that was so merciless toward the Republican allies who dared to resist it, why should it be counted on to spare our free institutions after eight additional years of moneyed accretion and augmented power? Only this can account for the personal interposition of the president, who throws duty and dignity to the winds and gets down like a matador into the bull ring, mud-stained and powder-smeared, swearing like a trooper at all who come within the sound of his voice and the reach of his inflamed fancy."
 "A Pennsylvania has invented a machine which scrapes, cleans and trims the heads and tails from fish at the rate of 200 to 300 a minute, according to size.
 "Tomorrow (Saturday) will positively be the last day for discount on west side gas bills. Don't forget to read Gas Tips.
 "Worth a dollar a box Satin skin face powder costs but 25c. Are you using it?"

SIDELINE STORIES OF GREAT NORTHWEST

FILES ON M'KENZIE

River to Develop Power for Electrical Purposes.
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Eugene, Or., Oct. 8.—F. A. Anderson, who is said to represent a body of capitalists whose identity is not known at present, has just filed on $8,000 cubic inches in the waters of the McKenzie river, miner's measure, for power purposes, and it is said the capitalists will soon begin the work of developing the power for electrical purposes.
 The filing was made at a point about 20 miles east of Eugene. The proposed canal is to be 50 feet wide and 20 feet deep and it will cross six sections of land.
 Many filings have been made on the McKenzie waters for power purposes during the past two or three years, but as yet no active work has been taken to develop the power.

SCARCITY OF SHEEP

Decrease of Two Thirds in Lake County's Woolly Quadrupeds.
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Klamath Falls, Or., Oct. 8.—Lake county has only a third as many sheep within its borders this year as it usually has. Dave Elder, who owns a fourth of all the sheep in the county, passed through Klamath Falls this week from his feeding grounds in the West, where he has been west of here, and states that there are only about 100,000 sheep in Lake county.
 Now are selling and nearly all will be held until next season for higher prices. Wool is being held for 15 cents, while 10 cents is being offered for the new arrangement of leasing timber land for grazing purposes is proving satisfactory, although it is more expensive.

ONE BID RECEIVED

Klamath Ranchers Do Not Patronize New Scheme.
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Klamath Falls, Or., Oct. 8.—Only one bid, W. H. Jones, received by the Klamath Water Users' association for the building of the south branch lateral. This is the work which was planned to try the experiment of land owners' bidding, to be paid in certificates, that could be applied on water payments.
 The lack of bids is ascribed to the fact of the present laterals being too far away from the ranches, necessitating the establishment of large camps. As the work progresses into the valley, land owners will then bid on the contracts, like state.

FOR KEEPING LIQUOR

Eugene Merchant Convicted of Violating Local Option.
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Eugene, Or., Oct. 8.—Joseph Jacobs, a storekeeper of this city, was convicted by a jury yesterday of violating the city's ordinance which makes it an offense to keep liquors in one's premises for sale. He will be sentenced today. As soon as the trial was over he was arrested and charged with violating the local option law and will be given a trial before the justice of the peace some time next week.
 Jacobs has twice before been convicted of violating the local option law and given heavy sentences, one of the sentences including a term of 30 days in the county jail.

FRANCHISE IS GRANTED

Irrigation Is About to Be Realized by Klamathites.
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Klamath Falls, Or., Oct. 8.—The United States government has been granted a franchise by the city council for a concrete conduit along High street in West Klamath Falls. This franchise has been before the council nearly two years.
 The conduit will be an extension of what is called the Keno canal, now ending at the Moore power house, and when extended will furnish water to the ranches on the west side of the river, which have never heretofore been irrigated.

GOOD ROADS MEETING

Gilliam County Will Discuss Problem October 17.
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Condon, Or., Oct. 8.—Representative farmers from various sections of the county will meet here October 17 to attend a big road meeting which will be addressed by John H. Scott of Salem, former county judge of Gilliam county, and Judge Lionel Webster of Portland, and other leaders interested in the good road movement. The meeting will be held in the courthouse, and a big demonstration for better highways is being

BARRISTERS ORGANIZE

White Salmon and Hood River Legal Profession Unite.
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Hood River, Or., Oct. 8.—At a meeting held last evening by the members of the legal profession of White Salmon and Hood River, preliminary steps were taken to form a local bar association, with a permanent organization. Another meeting will be held during the fruit fair, which will be concluded with a banquet.

LECTURES AT CONDON

DRUNKENNESS A Curable Disease

Eminent Physicians and Scientific Men Agree That It Should Be Treated as Such.

Drunkenness is a progressive disease; the moderate drinker is not satisfied with two or three drinks a day, the craving for more and more becomes irresistible as the disease advances; the result is Chronic Alcoholism.
 The treatment used successfully by thousands right in their own homes is Orrine. It is a scientific cure for Drunkenness and has given such universal satisfaction that it is sold under a positive guarantee to effect a cure or your money will be refunded. This guarantee is given in good faith and is carried out to the letter. Orrine is not a new remedy; it has been sold by the leading druggists in every city for years; it has lifted tens of thousands from the depths to worthy manhood and has the hearty endorsement of grateful men and women in every state in the Union.
 Orrine No. 1 is the secret remedy; Orrine No. 2 is for those willing to take the treatment. Either form costs $1.00. The guarantee is the same in either case. Write to The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C., for free booklet on Drunkenness, mailed in plain sealed envelope. Orrine will be mailed sealed on receipt of price. Sold by leading druggists and in this city by Woodward, Clark & Co., distributors.

at Spokane, Wash., has just closed an eight-day mission at the Catholic church in this city, of which Rev. Thomas Cantwell is rector. The church was too small to accommodate the audience.
 At the close of the series of lectures the young men of the congregation reorganized the Stella Maris society, which will be a literary organization. Literary subjects are to be discussed and debates held. Sister Baptista founded the society a year ago. She is in charge of St. Thomas Aquinas school, this city.

HORSE HIKES; GIRL LOST SIXTY HOURS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Socorro, N. M., Oct. 8.—After wandering about the Magdalena mountains for three days and two nights, half crazed with pain and in a starving condition, Miss Euphrasia Bonavides, the beautiful daughter of a prominent rancher here, is at her father's home recovering from her terrible experience.
 Sunday morning Miss Bonavides started for a ride in the mountains. She was thrown from her horse and so painfully injured that she was unable to recapture the animal. As soon as she recovered her strength she set out for home on foot, but became lost in the mountains, and was nearly dead when she was found by the mounted police, who had been sent out by the distracted father as soon as the riderless horse returned to the ranch.

To Welcome Cardinal Gibbons.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Baltimore, Md., Oct. 8.—Elaborate preparations have been made for the public welcome to be given tomorrow to Cardinal Gibbons upon his return from abroad. At the station addresses will be made by Governor Crothers, Mayor Mahool and Attorney-General Bonaparte. The cardinal will be escorted to his residence by a parade which is expected to embrace 10,000 or 15,000 men, representing the Catholic parishes of Baltimore and Washington.

Correct Clothes

ONE of the satisfactory things about our Clothes is that there is a style, or rather a number of styles, for every type of man. The young fellow, who likes to spread himself to the limit, is well provided for, and so is the man who is more quiet in his taste.
 Dignity, tone and character serve to keep our garments within the gates of good judgment, though in every line they are indicative of clever tailoring and the latter-day innovations of fashion.

We call special attention to our Suits and Overcoats at $10, $15, $20 and $25. We are showing unusual values for these modest prices. Offerings worth investigating.
