This paper has proved by investigation that the circulation records are kept with care and the circulation stated with accuracy.

Remember that if the opportunities for great deeds should never come, the opportunity for good deeds is renewed for you, day by day.

A GHOST THAT VANISHED

All those in the great audience at the armory Tuesday evening remember how Senator Beveridge denounced the principle of a tariff for revenue only.

THE GROWL FROM THE RAILROAD HEIGHTS

In Oregon, that Oregon that has been so discriminated against by Mr. Harriman, there will be no patience with the attitude of the Harriman system.

A CAMPAIGN OF EVASION

The Seattle Post Intelligencer (Oregon), says: Men who heard the earnest and eloquent appeal which Senator Beveridge last night made for sanity in politics.

A "SCREAMING" FARE

The Spokane Spokesman-Review makes this rather curious remark: "Whether the Roosevelt-Taft policies shall be continued by Mr. Taft or whether they shall be blocked by the election of Mr. Bryan, is the overshadowing issue of this contest."

$29,000,000 O. R. & N. surplus is a sufficient justification for the people of Oregon in their very moderate and conservative resort to legislative defense of themselves.

In the case of Oregon, the meekest people have been the worst abused, the worst plundered and exploited. In Oregon the relation of railroad and people has become fully comprehended, and if Mr. Harriman attempts the role of the bully, as the news from the Trans-Mississippi congress says, Oregon people will find means of defense and relief.

"NEAR-BEER" MAY BE LAWFUL

A good deal has been said about what is called "near-beer," a substitute for beer manufactured and put on the market by some breweries in consequence of prohibition in some states and parts of states.

OREGON SIDELIGHTS

The Pendleton fair—dry—came out $3,000 ahead. Receipts at the Albany—dry—post office show a big increase over last year.

Running Shots

Letters to the Journal should be written on one side of the paper only, and should be addressed to the Editor, The Journal, 1115 Broadway, New York.

Think for Yourself

Dayton, O., Oct. 7.—To the Editor of the Journal:—If you would kindly allow me to say a few words now that the great presidential fight is on, I can't help but see how the Republican scientific laboring man can vote for Taft or the old machine.

Edward William Bok's Birthday

Edward William Bok, the well known Philadelphia editor and writer, was born in the little town of Helder, near Amsterdam, Holland, October 2, 1863.

This Date in History

1791—A charter was granted to Yale college. Count de Minsk was mortally wounded in the battle of Smolensk.

Small Change

Senator Beveridge did not answer. Some rain will fill a long-felt want.

THE REALM FEMININE

FROM Halloween. The candy boots we get almost all of the gams which are young, manly hearts beat high with anticipation of fun and frolic and bring the swift blush to the cheek of the girl who more than guesses what the fate held in store for her during the year to come.

It is a happy, frolicsome, jovial time, this, and the young ones should not be denied its privileges. When they are older they will look back upon the fun, remembering their good times with satisfaction and living over in memory those carefree, happy days.

No other event lends itself so largely to grotesque decorations, and the more the merrier. Plenty of jack-o'-lanterns are a necessity, and a wide variety of expressions may be made in these empty countenances by one who has a little ingenuity. Let some of the mouths be drawn into the shape of a wide, smiling grin, and some into the shape of a frown, and some into the shape of a neutral expression.
