With the death last night at 6 o'clock of George Law Stewart, Portland loses one of her veteran firemen. The deceased was master mechanic of the fire department, and had been a member of the force of fire fighters for years. He leaves a widow and two sons, Paul aged 16, and David, aged 6 years. Two sisters and a brother also survive him—Mrs. D. B. Hanna, Mrs. L. Ferryman and Charles S. Stewart, all of Tacoma. The death took place at the family residence, 520 East Washington street, and resulted from a complication of organic troubles. Stewart was sick only a few days. He was at the time of his death 54 years old, having been born at Oregon City in 1854. He was a resident of Portland for 48 years. He was formerly engineer of Company No. 6 of the old volunteer fire department. When the pay service was established he was made master mechanic.

C. R. Bickley of the Hawthorne Avenue Fuel company and Richard Lynch, manager of the O. K. woodyard at 450 East Morrison, were convicted before Police Judge Van Zante yesterday of giving short measure, the information being given by Inspector of Weights and Measures Fred Buchtel, and were each fined $5. Other arrests for similar offenses are promised by the inspector.

Two supposed yeggmen, equipped with one of the finest collections of door opening apparatus that the detectives have found in a long time were given 90 days each yesterday by Judge Van Zante. The two men, O'Brien and Curtis, had bunches of keys that would open any kind of a lock made, and are regarded by the detective department as two of the most dangerous characters that have come to Portland in months. They will be kept out of plying their trade for the next three months, anyway.

The South Portland Improvement club met last night and took up the discussion of a bridge to span the Willamette in that district. It was decided to invoke the referendum law, and to that end a committee was appointed to solicit funds on the west side to be used in defraying the expenses of preparing referendum petitions. This committee is composed of A. F. Smith, Joseph Morak, A. Goldstein, J. C. Bayer, and John Barbey. The question of soliciting subscriptions on the east side will come up at the meeting to be held October 22.

M. Mortensen, who for a number of years has been manager of the Hazelwood Cream company, has tendered his resignation and in a few days will leave for his former home in Iowa, where he is to become dairy instructor in one of the state's agricultural institutions. Mr. Mortensen was last night given a farewell banquet by the owners and employes of the company. More than 100 employes were present. At the conclusion of the banquet Mr. Mortensen was presented with a handsome gold watch, the gift of his fellow employes.

The North Albina Push club has started a campaign for a fire station and fire engine, to be located in that district. At the meeting of the club last night a committee of 12 men was named and instructed to formulate a campaign to secure adequate fire protection for that rapidly-growing territory. Mayor Lane and Councilman Vaughn were present at the meeting and promised to lend their influence in securing for the district proper protection from fire.

M'GRATH JUDGE AT SPOKANE FAIR

The Hunt club has received information from Spokane that President T. S. McGrath, who is acting as presiding judge at the second annual horse show in that city, is giving the greatest satisfaction with his awards and that the judging has put the show on a very high plane. The show is being given in conjunction with the Spokane Interstate fair by the Spokane Riding and Driving club, and is being largely attended, fully 20,000 being present Wednesday and Thursday.

While this is President McGrath's first experience as a judge in this ring, he is an amateur horseman of ability and discernment, and has for many years been actively interested in the breeding of high class stock. At the conclusion of the Spokane event tomorrow evening he will immediately return to Portland to take up the active management of the local show which will open next Thursday.

A silver cup or trophy collection for the Portland show has reached a point where there are only a few more to provide a cup for each of the 59 classes on the program. The collection will be exhibited at Rowe & Martin's, where the reserved seat ticket sale is going on. Merchants and individuals have responded to the request for trophies in a manner which leaves no room for doubt on the score that the public is vitally interested in the success of the show. The list of donors to date includes: "Wilburton," W. M. Wilbur, Perkins Hotel company, Portland Hotel company, Herbert Greenland, Jaeger Brothers, Woodard, Clarke & Co., G. Heitkemper & Co., Max Fleischner, Dr. George S. Whitesides, Ernest Laidlaw, Frank Hansom, George Baker, M. G. Thorsen, W. B. Fechheimer, Elton Court, W. E. Prudhomme, J. Gas Jet Method Successful.

Seattle, Oct. 9.—Rowland Williams' ingenious attempt to end his life proved successful. He was a victim of the San Francisco earthquake, and last Tuesday attempted to end his life. He attached a rubber hose to a gas jet, filled his mouth with cotton around the tube and sealed his mouth shut with sealing wax. He was discovered by two United States sailors, and was rushed to the hospital, where he died yesterday.

Poor Teeth—Poor Looks

One cannot be beautiful without good teeth. That is impossible. The white rows of perfect teeth accentuate a woman's beauty, or a man's handsome appearance. Therefore, take care of the teeth and your beauty will take care of itself. Never neglect the teeth, or you will perhaps be sorry when it is too late. Come in and let us examine your molars anyway. Maybe we can put you on the right road to reform them if they have "gone wrong."

A New Departure
The cost of interments has been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company.
Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
