NET STATE DEBT IS $967,576.38

Finances of Washington Are Shown in Biennial Report.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Olympia, Wash., Oct. 10.—The state treasurer has completed his biennial report for submission to the next legislature. The report shows a net state indebtedness on October 1 of $967,576.38. This is a reduction in the state debt since the same date in 1906 of $125,406.63. The report, however, mentions the transfer of $219,334.96 from special funds to the general fund which were instrumental in reducing the apparent state indebtedness. These funds had accumulated and were transferred by special act of the legislature.

The report contains a synopsis of state finances compiled for the benefit of members of the legislature in determining the amount of appropriations that will be justified in comparison with the probable receipts. This synopsis shows the following:

Total receipts, all funds, $10,854,281.42; total disbursements, $11,053,376.13.

Receipts general fund past two years, $4,504,099.05.

Disbursements, $4,801,274.23.

Institutional Funds.

The state board of finance under an act of the last legislature has invested the permanent institutional funds to the amount of $475,850, as follows:

University, $50,900.

Scientific school, $95,300.

Agricultural college, $113,600.

C. E. P. & R. institutions, $157,500.

Normal school, $58,550.

These funds are in bonds of counties, cities and school districts and earn about 4½ per cent annual interest.

Cash in permanent school fund, $299,909.95.

Bonds, $4,887,890.

State Indebtedness.

The state debt is as follows:

General fund warrants outstanding, $66,503.45.

State bonds (held by permanent school fund), $1,200,000.

Accrued interest on same, $17,499.60.

Total, $1,284,003.05; less cash on hand in general fund, $316,426.67; net state debt, $967,576.38.

A.-Y.-P. exposition fund received, $236,527.04.

Disbursed, $228,410.94.

GOOD ROADS MEN MEET AT PARIS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Paris, Oct. 10.—Civilized countries throughout the world have sent official representatives to the international roads congress, which will hold forth in Paris during the next two weeks for the discussion of the best methods to be used to build roads that will withstand the new element of automobile travel, and for preserving existing highways. The congress will be formally opened tomorrow with a reception to the delegates. The subsequent sessions will be in the grand amphitheatre of the Sorbonne and in the Tuileries garden, and there will be in connection an exhibition of road-making machinery and methods at the Tuileries. The conclusion of the congress next Sunday will be followed by a three days' excursion to Nice and Monte Carlo.

The congress will be divided into eight sections and altogether 99 papers will be read. A comprehensive program has been drawn up, so that every phase of the road question will be covered. The dust problem will come in for a great deal of attention. Another section will deal with the effect of various forms of locomotion on the roads. The delegates from the United States to the congress are Logan Waller Page, of the department of agriculture; Colonel Charles S. Bromwell, representing the engineering corps of the army, and Clifford Richardson, an eminent New York chemist.

FRISCO TEAMSTERS WITHSTAND A CUT

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—The union teamsters are still at work and in view of the successful arbitration of their differences with their employers they feel that they have gained a victory without resorting to strike.

The outcome of the conference is a decision that the men shall continue working under the present wage schedule.

The formality of accepting the present rates is yet to be performed by the teamsters' union. John McLaughlin, representing the union, said today that he anticipated no discussion in the union over the recommendation of the executive committee that the prevailing rates continue.

Anniversary of Cuban Revolution.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Havana, Oct. 10.—A public holiday was kept in Havana today in celebration of the thirty-ninth anniversary of the beginning of the 10-year war for Cuban independence. Public offices were closed and flags were displayed throughout the city.

World Congress of Brewers.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Berlin, Oct. 10.—The jubilee meeting and congress of the brewers' college and institute for experimental research, which began in Berlin today, is in point of numbers one of the largest gatherings ever assembled to deal with the drink question and the world-wide campaign for total abstinence. Papers will be presented by eminent scientists on the subject of the beneficial effects of beer drinking. The scientific aspect of brewing will be thoroughly discussed. In connection with the congress there is an exhibition of brewing machinery in which American manufacturers are well represented.

Centennial at Greensboro, N. C.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 10.—The celebration of Greensboro's centennial is at hand and will be ushered in tomorrow with appropriate religious and historical services in all the churches of the city. The celebration will continue through all of next week. In addition to the carnival features the fair will be in progress, with an attractive race program, and there will be a peace congress and a number of other gatherings to swell the attendance of visitors.

JOURNAL WANTS COST LITTLE; ACCOMPLISH MUCH

Church Benefit Contest

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS FOR THE CHURCHES OF PORTLAND AND SUBURBS

Every Church in Portland and Suburbs May Share in This Distribution According to its Popularity

The Journal will donate a liberal portion of its subscription receipts during the next three months.

Every dollar received by The Journal from subscribers, for city subscriptions, during the next three months, whether from old or new subscribers, will be generously shared with the many churches of Portland.

The amount each church receives will be determined by a POPULAR CHURCH VOTING CONTEST of the subscribers. This contest opens at once

Every subscriber, whether new or old, can, when paying his subscription, indicate and vote for the church of his choice.

Members and friends of any church can, by paying their subscription at this time, help their church without any additional cost. In this manner the amount to be divided among the several churches will reach a magnificent sum of thousands of dollars.

$1500---In Addition---$1500

In addition to dividing its subscription receipts among the churches, The Journal will make a special award of $1,500 to the six churches receiving the highest number of popular votes in proportion to their membership, according to classification below.

Here Is the Plan

How Subscriptions Will Count in Money and Votes

Every person paying for a city subscription to The Journal during the next three months will be allowed to vote for the church of his choice, according to the following tables:

NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

(Daily and Sunday or Daily Without Sunday.)

No. of Weeks.	Votes to Church.	Cash to Church.
5 weeks	10 votes	10 cents
10 weeks	25 votes	25 cents
20 weeks	55 votes	55 cents
30 weeks	80 votes	80 cents
40 weeks	130 votes	130 cents
50 weeks	175 votes	175 cents
60 weeks	200 votes	200 cents
80 weeks	275 votes	275 cents

OLD SUBSCRIBERS.

(Daily and Sunday or Daily Without Sunday.)

No. of Weeks.	Votes to Church.	Cash to Church.
5 weeks	3 votes	3 cents
10 weeks	7 votes	7 cents
20 weeks	15 votes	15 cents
30 weeks	30 votes	30 cents
40 weeks	40 votes	40 cents
50 weeks	55 votes	55 cents
60 weeks	70 votes	70 cents
80 weeks	100 votes	100 cents

No votes will be allowed nor money paid for periods not specified in above tables.

One cent to the church for every vote cast.

The larger the vote the more money for your church. Each church will be given one cent for every vote it receives whether it wins any portion of the $1,500 or not.

Every Church Benefited

No losers, and no church can possibly fail to benefit by this popular voting plan. For every vote each church receives The Journal will give one cent.

How the Plan Works

EXAMPLE ONE—A new subscriber paying for 80 weeks' subscription will yield to the church of his choice $2.75 in cash and 275 votes in the popular contest for a portion of the special award of $1,500.

EXAMPLE TWO—An old subscriber paying for 80 weeks' subscription will yield to the church of his choice $1.00 in cash and 100 votes in the popular contest for a portion of the special award of $1,500.

Thousands of Dollars for the Churches

There are 40,000 church members in Portland, and at least as many more who are friendly and would be glad to help and see the churches prosper. If everyone in this vast army of over 80,000 will take an active interest in this voting contest, it will mean many thousands of dollars for the church, without any cost. Any subscriber, new or old, can participate during this period.

$1500 Special Award To Be Divided Among Six Popular Churches

All the churches of the city will be divided according to membership into three classes—A, B and C.

Class A will include all churches with a membership of 600 or more.

Class B will include all churches with a membership from 150 to 600.

Class C will include all churches with a membership from 25 to 150.

The $1,500 will be distributed among six churches, two in class A, two in class B and two in class C, receiving the highest vote as follows:

	First Award.	Second Award.
Class A—600 or more members	$500	$200
Class B—150 to 600 members	300	150
Class C—25 to 150 members	250	100

It will be seen from the above that every church is on an equal footing, no matter how many members it may have.

Bear in mind that this special award of $1,500 is in addition to allowing a liberal portion of the subscription receipts for the next three months. Every church, whether receiving a portion of this special award or not, receives one cent for every vote during the contest.

It will be seen that every subscription, whether from a new or old subscriber, yields a definite sum of money to the church.
