

POLITICAL POT BOILS

Anti-Taft Demonstration of Union Labor Men the Feature of Week Which Will Include a Visit From W. R. Hearst.

POLITICAL SCHEDULE FOR THE WEEK.

Meeting of presidents and secretaries of the Portland unions this afternoon to complete arrangements for Wednesday's rally. Monday night—W. R. Hearst and Thomas L. Kluge, Independence party, at the Armory. Stephen A. Lowell of Fendleton at Taft rally at Hunter's hall in Sunnyside. Tuesday—Judge Will H. Thompson of Seattle at Republican rally at the Armory. Wednesday—Andrew Furuseth at anti-Taft labor rally at the Armory. W. P. Nimore at prohibition meeting at the White Temple. People who take a delight in things political will have their fill during the present week. This afternoon at 2 o'clock the presidents and secretaries of the unions of Portland will meet and make final arrangements for the big anti-Taft labor rally to be held in the Armory Wednesday night. This meeting is expected to be the largest labor union demonstration ever held in Portland on a political occasion. From the interest that is being taken in the meeting, it is believed that it will draw an immense crowd of union labor men, while the high place held by Mr. Furuseth in the ranks of the labor world will undoubtedly draw a large number of people to hear him. Tomorrow night W. R. Hearst and Thomas L. Kluge, candidate for president on the Independence league ticket, will be at the Armory, when it is expected that Mr. Hearst will have more sensational letters to read. Judge Stephen A. Lowell will be the principal speaker at a rally to be held at Hunter's hall at Sunnyside, under the auspices of the Sunnyside Taft club. Tuesday night the Republican state central organization will have its second big rally at the Armory. Judge Will H. Thompson of Seattle will deliver the principal address at this meeting, though R. R. Butler of Condon will also speak. Both men have the reputation of being orators. Wednesday night will be the big anti-Taft labor union meeting, which has been planned for some time. The meeting is being held under the direction of the American Federation of Labor, and will be made a big event by the union labor men of the city. Besides these meetings, a number of precinct rallies have been planned by the central committees of both the Taft and Bryan headquarters.

REGISTRATION RECORDS BROKEN

One Hundred and Eighty-Seven Dutifully Visit the County Clerk's Office.

Yesterday was the best day for registration in the county clerk's office since the books were opened for the presidential election. The total for the day was 187, 113 subscribing themselves Republicans, 65 went on record as Democrats and 19 were in the miscellaneous list. There were 98 changes from one precinct to another. October 29 will be the last day for registration. Those not on the roll by that time will have to get six freeholders to swear in their names to vote. The clerk's office is open from 9 o'clock each morning until 5 p. m., and during the last few days will also be open nights to 8 o'clock. There seems to be an impression that a voter may cast his ballot for president when he appears at the polls less than six months. This is a mistake, the rule for the presidential election being the same as for all others.

OLLIE'S TIPS KEEP SECRET

Ollie Kram was caught prowling about the back yard of a house on Fourth street early last evening without any apparent reason and was taken to the police station by the officer to explain, if he could, his peculiar actions. Ollie couldn't—at least not to the satisfaction of the captain. He said he was looking for a man who lived on Fourth street, but that was as close as he seemed able to come to any particular address. Ollie couldn't talk very good English, anyway. But when he was ordered locked up on a charge of trespass, he suddenly found a trifle more of his suppressed tongue and explained that he was looking for a young lady. He did not seem able, however, to explain how he came to be looking for her in the back yard of a strange house, so he was locked up until he should produce $10 bail. Later in the evening his brother, Martin Kram, came down and bailed him out. Ollie, it appeared, had been endeavoring to keep the name of the lady out of the conversation. The longest span of telegraph wire in the world is 640 feet, across the river, Kistnah, in India.

Fat Woman's Troubles.

If you try to get the fat off with the exercise, tell me, please, where's one going to find the time? I haven't any faith in it, anyway, as a reducer. It hurts the fat person's weakest spot—the heart. As for dieting, that is out of the question, altogether. Better be fat than have cancer of the stomach. The safest and quickest way to reduce excess fat is also the cheapest and easiest. Go to the drugist and get half ounce Mercola, half ounce Fluid Extract Casars Bromine, and 1/2 ounce Peppermint Water. They cost but a cent. Take them home, shake them together in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. If you are not losing a half to a pound of fat a day inside of a month, your case will be one in a hundred. Try it—makes you feel better all over.

BIG CARGO OF SALMON SAVED

Star of France Reaches Bay City After Narrow Escape in a Gale.

ONE OF BIGGEST CARGOES OF THE YEAR

Member of Alaska Cannery Fleet Almost Meets Same Fate as the Star of Bengal Off Coronation Island.

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—The American ship Star of France, which arrived in this city today, looking much the worse for wear, narrowly escaped foundering in a terrific gale off the coast of Coronation Island, Alaska, while on her way down. It is reported that the ship was unmercifully tossed around on the waves near the rocks and all but met a like fate of her sister ship, the Star of Bengal, which was wrecked off the same coast only a few weeks ago. Through the courage of Captain Sparr and the heroic efforts of the ship's crew, the vessel managed to weather the storm, although it was thought for a time that all would be lost. The Star of France was loaded with about 56,000 cases of salmon, one of the largest cargoes of Alaska salmon that ever entered this port, and it is regarded as remarkable that the full cargo was saved and brought in. The vessel was bound from Bristol Bay, Alaska, to this city, as was the Star of Bengal, which was wrecked recently in a like storm and on which it will be remembered, nearly all of the passengers, consisting of whites, Chinese and Japanese fishermen returning from the Alaska canneries, lost their lives. Only a handful of the passengers, including Captain Wagner, were saved. The Star of Bengal was passing Coronation Island off the coast of Alaska near the same point where the Star of France experienced the recent storm when the tugboats cut her loose and allowed her to drift until she dashed on the rocks and was lost. Captain Wagner is now in this city preferring charges against the owners of the two tugboats on the grounds that their conduct was the cause for the great loss of life and complete wreck of the vessel. Captain Wagner thinks that the tugboats could have stayed with him and says that if they had it is probable that the Star of Bengal would have pulled safely through the storm.

WHEAT FOR EUROPE

Cornel Bart Leaves for Queenstown For Orders.

With a large cargo of wheat, another European vessel will sail today for Queenstown or Falmouth for orders and from there to the continent. The vessel is the French bark, Cornel Bart, which has been putting on a large cargo of wheat during the last few days. Another vessel taking wheat to Europe is the giant British steamer, Knight of the Thistle, which arrived down at Astoria Friday night and sailed at 1 p. m. yesterday for Hull, England, going by way of Tacoma, where she intends loading on about 2,000 tons of grain. Another vessel taking wheat to Europe is the British bark, Greenwing, which is under charter to J. J. Moore & Co.

ROMFORD ON THE WAY

Will Load Lumber Here for the Antipodes.

The British steamer Romford is expected to arrive in port from Eureka, Cal., soon, to take on a part cargo of lumber. She left Eureka Friday and should arrive tomorrow. The Romford will load on about 1,000 feet of lumber and sail for Melbourne, Australia. She put on about 1,500,000 feet of redwood at Eureka before sailing for Portland. She is under charter to J. J. Moore & Co.

TO COMMAND AMERICANO

Captain Lawrence Takes Charge of Schooner.

Captain M. C. Lawrence arrived yesterday to take his new position as captain of the American schooner Americano. Captain Lawrence is to succeed Captain James McVicar as master of the schooner.

TIDE SCHEDULE

Tides at Astoria Sunday: High—1:38 a. m., 8.2 feet; 1:42 p. m., 9.3 feet. Low—4:45 a. m., 1.2 feet; 8:19 p. m., 0.4 of a foot.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

The steamer Breakwater, plying between Portland and Coos Bay points, will leave for Coos Bay today. The steamer Alliance sailed last night for Coos Bay. The Alexander Isambard arrived yesterday evening. The steamer Cascade sailed from Astoria yesterday for San Francisco. The steamer ship Aster sailed from Astoria at 1:30 yesterday for Liverpool, England, with a large cargo of wheat. The steamer Rose City has left Astoria for San Francisco.

Chickering's at Discount.

On only two occasions during the past nine years has there ever been opportunity to buy Chickering pianos under price. Now we offer a third chance. Mr. Arthur Rosenstein, the wonderfully gifted pianist for the Metropolitan quartet, personally selected upon arriving here, one Baby Grand and four Chickering uprights for the use of the artists at the Portland hotel. In bringing these pianos down the elevator, two of the instruments sustained slight damage to their cases. Of all fine pianos, Chickering's are the finest. If there is any choice in Chickering's, these must be the choicest. The possession of an instrument used with complete satisfaction by any one of these world-renowned artists should rather than detract, from their worth. We have decided, however, to place all of these instruments on sale in Retail Hall, and they will be sold at an actual discount of $50 on each piano. Slightly dollars saved is surely $50 earned. Where are five well-to-do homes in Portland or vicinity who will take quick possession of these beautiful instruments? For the additional simple interest, these Chickering's can be bought in two or three years' monthly plan if not convenient to pay all cash. GERMAN CLUBS

Governor Speaks at Meeting in Arion Hall—Eighteen Societies Amalgamate.

Celebrating the 225th anniversary of the landing of the Germans in America, over 3,000 German-speaking residents of Portland gathered in Arion hall last night where an elaborate program of music and addresses in English and German was given. Governor Chamberlain addressed the meeting, discussing the significance of all the German societies in Oregon. Several addresses in German were made by prominent Portland Germans, all urging the union of the societies. The principal theme of the German speakers was "Personal Liberty."

Through the courage of Captain Sparr and the heroic efforts of the ship's crew, the vessel managed to weather the storm, although it was thought for a time that all would be lost. The Star of France was loaded with about 56,000 cases of salmon, one of the largest cargoes of Alaska salmon that ever entered this port, and it is regarded as remarkable that the full cargo was saved and brought in. DEPUTY'S BLUFF WORKS WHIPPLE

C. C. Whipple and his wife were arrested on the east side by Detective Tennent and Deputy Sheriff Wolters of Vancouver, last night and taken to the police station on a very indefinite charge.

LOST YOUNGSTER HAS LONG WAIT

Little Elmer Waits in the Police Station for Two Hours for Father.

For nearly two hours a little self-contained chap of only 6 years sat on a bench in the police station last night waiting for the parents he had lost. He was picked up on Washington street by an officer. He said his name was Elmer Swanson and that his father worked in a box factory, but that was all he could tell. About 9 o'clock an anxious and dripping father rushed into the station, spotted the boy, grabbed him by the hand and was about to take him away without further ceremony when he was stopped by Sergeant Golts and told he must not be in quite so much of a hurry since he appeared to have taken his time in finding the boy. The man said he had lost the boy on the street and did not know how to find him. He had been looking everywhere for him and finally came to the police station as the last resort. He was allowed to take his son home.

MAZOUROUSKY IN POLICE NET

Burnside - Street Jeweler, Often Warned, Charged With Robbing a Drunk.

San Mazourousky has apparently been caught with the goods at last. The police have had him on their list as a bad actor for a long time and have been laying for him, but Sam has always hitherto managed to escape punishment for the thefts the officers were morally certain he was guilty of. But this time they say they have him hard and fast.

Mazourousky was arrested yesterday by Detective Smith on a charge of larceny from the person. He is said to have "rolled" a drunk. Mazourousky runs a pawnshop at 343 Burnside street which goes by the name of the National Jewelry company. Complaints are almost constantly being made to the police by persons who say they have been robbed by Mazourousky, but the pawnbroker has always managed to wriggle loose from the coils of the law heretofore, though he has been arrested on various charges. But the detectives say they have him at last and have him right, so that there is no chance for him to squirm out of the net.

When Mazourousky was arrested a few weeks ago for sleeping on a Sunday, Deputy District Attorney Page told him plainly that it was a matter of common knowledge to the police and the District Attorney's department that the pawnbroker was in the habit of robbing people right and left. "We'll become an accomplished fact in every state in the Union where there are any considerable number of German-speaking people. The movement looking to a united organization of the German societies of each state was brought about as a result of the prohibition wave which engulfed many of the societies in the past year or two. The movement is nation-wide—the same action which took place at Astoria last night. It is an accomplished fact in every state in the Union where there are any considerable number of German-speaking people. Delegates were present at last night's meeting from the 18 German societies in Portland, and from the smaller cities throughout the state.

There was a basket social in Anderson's hall out at Willamette station Friday night. Basket socials aren't particularly fashionable, you know. There were two or three bridge parties the same night that were cards and spades above the Anderson's hall affair when it came to the attendance of fashionable. But there were 29 baskets, every one filled with the things people like to eat when they are not too fashionable to eat, and $38.50 was raised from the contents of those 29 baskets. Mrs. T. A. Bridge, Beach & Co.'s Superior Stoves

We are agents for Bridge, Beach Manufacturing Company's Superior Stoves. If you buy a good heater it will save enough in fuel to pay for itself in one season. Many people have been deceived in believing that stoves were cheap because of a low price, when experience proves them the most expensive. A small price may be paid for a stove which looks attractive which has been described as "perfect," but it is liable to prove a very expensive purchase, for ten chances to one trouble will arise from this stove in a month's time—it may not heat or cook properly, or it may consume fuel like a locomotive. Then the material in the stove itself may wear so poorly that at the end of a year or so it will have to be replaced. You never get something for nothing in this world, and when you pay a small price for a stove, that price must cover the cost of material and labor, and include a reasonable profit; consequently, inferior castiron and steel, and the cheapest and most inexperienced labor must go into this seemingly low-priced stove.
