

SILVER JUBILEE OF ARCHBISHOP MAY YOHE, KING'S PET, SEEKS FREEDOM HERE

Florian Honored in Brilliant Ceremonial at San Francisco.

(Quoted From Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Oct. 15.—His grace, Patrick William Florian, archbishop of San Francisco, today celebrated his silver jubilee, the twenty-fifth anniversary of his elevation to the episcopal dignity, in a religious festival at St. Mary's cathedral. The event was one of the most brilliant religious ceremonies ever seen on the Pacific coast.

The cathedral on Van Ness avenue was crowded with Catholic dignitaries and laymen long before 10 o'clock, the hour set for the pontifical mass, which was celebrated by Archbishop Florian himself. The interior of the cathedral was a mass of flowers. The celebration of the pontifical mass was preceded by a procession of 300 clergy and laity.

On the throne within the sanctuary, Archbishop Florian with his brother, Rev. D. J. Florian, pastor of St. Elizabeth's church, Chicago, who acted as honorary dean, presided.

After the celebration of the mass, a luncheon to the clergy was served at St. Mary's cathedral hall. Very Rev. J. J. Moran, V. G., rector of St. Mary's, presided.

At the theatres. "The Clansman" Tonight. The attraction at the Hellig theatre, Fourteenth and Washington streets, tonight at 8:15 o'clock, tomorrow and Wednesday will be the widely discussed drama, "The Clansman."

Seat Sale Opens Tomorrow. Next Sunday night, October 18, at the Hellig theatre, "Checkers" will begin an engagement of three nights.

"The Girl of the Golden West." Despite all rumors to the contrary, Manager Baker announces that Saturday will close the great run of "The Girl of the Golden West" at the Bungalow.

Minstrels at Baker. If you want a good hearty laugh go and see the original Richman & Fisher's minstrels at the Baker this week.

"The Rocky Mountain Express." "Look out!" is what a man yelled at the top of his voice, who occupied a seat in the front row of a theatre recently when the train in "The Rocky Mountain Express," the new melodrama, came rushing on the stage.

Planist in Vaudeville. Uproarious Audience at Orpheum. It would seem that the audience had completely lost themselves at the performance at the Orpheum last night.

"Gypsy Life" at Pantages. The beautiful and tuneful musical comedy "Gypsy Life," as presented by the eight Ziegfeld girls at the Pantages theatre this week is one of the greatest musical treats of the season and is drawing capably houses.

"Young Mrs. Winthrop" Tonight. This evening the Blunkall company will present again its phenomenally successful production of that beautiful domestic comedy-drama, "Young Mrs. Winthrop."

Harry Thornton at the Grand proves that first class piano playing is appreciated and that the most classic of compositions is applauded. This is the first act of the kind that has been sent here.

they be, were carried out as though she had commended them. Her desire, her wish for anything, was, in a way, a command. There was no "no" to anything she wanted.

The wedding, in later years, of Lady Francis Hope, to Captain Bradley Putman Strong, was the event of the season among the society followers of New York, London and Paris.

They lived in New York and in London and in Paris and after awhile moved to the orient, where Captain Strong was stationed while in the service of the government.

Eventually, however, there was a separation. Mrs. Strong returned to her former home in England, and gradually and surely the fascination, the longing for the stage—the triumphs of her former years—returned and Mrs. Strong as May Yohe was soon before the footlights again. Then she came to America and her arrival was heralded in every newspaper in the country.

When the time in life when Mrs. Strong has established her residence in Oregon—it is said she intends getting a divorce from the captain and that within a few days after the decree is granted another wedding will take place.

Here Several Months. May Yohe took up her residence at 739 Northrup street several months ago. The home is particularly modest and few if any of her neighbors have any idea of the identity of the woman of fame who is living within their very midst.

When it is known that psoriasis, the new skin remedy, will stop the torturous itching attending eczema with first application and bring immediate relief and comfort to sufferers from all skin troubles which are aggravated by hot weather, its merit will be instantly appreciated.

It of Clark Clark took the pistol away from her, saying that it made him nervous to see a woman handling a gun. He placed the pistol back in its place and a short time afterwards Mrs. Gebus took it and locked herself in the bathroom while Clark was in the parlor.

What He Saw. A Britisher was announcing his views on things in general, and summed up his own position by the statement: "Well, I've seen life. But," said his American friend, "one of your own bright poets has said, 'Life's a joke.'"

COLD WEATHER ADVICE To all is to beware of coughs and colds on the chest; as neglected they readily lead to pneumonia, consumption or other pulmonary troubles.

Enjoying Quiet Life. Thus it is that May Yohe lives. Two or three servants move quietly about the house, and she takes a drive occasionally. That is all. She reads a great deal—reads of the old world and the new all of which she knows so much about.
