Lane Tells Executive Board It Is His Duty to See Property Owners Are Not Swindled Whether They Make a Protest or Not.

An effort by Thomas G. Greene to have the executive board accept street and other improvements against which no protests have been filed without referring them to the street committee was defeated last night at the regular session of the board.

A long discussion in which every member took one side or the other was called up by the clerk's report on some work by the Barber Asphalt Paving Co. on Third street. There was no protest against the acceptance of this and Engineer Huber could not see why his vote should be held up.

Mr. Greene in moving to accept all work not protested said that the board has no business to check up improvements to see whether or not they come up to specifications.

Should Stand by Inspectors. "Why, we have subordinates who are supposed to make these inspections. Mr. Sweet has moved to refer a certain piece of street work to the street committee when it has been approved by the inspectors. He can't do it. He must depend upon the men we hire to make necessary inspections and I am in favor of abiding by their reports. There is any checking up to be done we ought to devote our time to investigating our employees. I am prepared to vote for the payment on all claims as soon as they are accepted, provided there are no remonstrances."

Let Him Take His Medicine. "But sometimes the property owners don't protest against work that is not good," said the mayor.

"Well, let him take his medicine then if he is too busy to look after his own interests, we are not supposed to exercise paternalism over the people. We are supposed to look after the city. We can't go outside of it," replied Mr. Greene.

"But," said the mayor, "the taxpayer is sometimes the property owner. For other reason he can not see that the work is done right. I hold it to be my duty to protect him whenever my attention is called to a poor bit of work. I am in honor bound to hold up warrants when I know that the taxpayer is being cheated by being forced to pay for such improvements as those to which my attention was called on Thompson street."

Moita Votes Protest. A protest from property owners on Killingsworth avenue was read by the clerk. This protest was signed by 17 John Moita, manager of the property, permitted to address the board regarding the same.

Secretary Nelson Wilbur, treasurer Rufus Russell, and other members of the executive committee, consisting of M. H. Gibbons and D. Patterson of the students' body, and W. L. Marks of the alumni. The executive committee then selected an advisory board, consisting of 10 members, taken from the Republican members of the faculty and the alumni. Following is the personnel: P. J. Miller, William Forrester, Robert Percy R. Kelly, Hugh Fisher, C. E. Sox, Gale S. Hill, Owen Beam, George Pritchard and J. C. Irvine.

Water Drinkers Seldom Have Rheumatism or Kidney Trouble. Also Tells of Splendid Prescription for Readers to Make Up.

The kidneys do their work; they are the filters of the blood. They must be made to strain out of the blood the waste matter and acids that cause rheumatism; the urine must be neutralized so it will no longer be a source of irritation to the bladder, and most of all, you must keep these acids from forming in the stomach. This is the cause of stomach trouble and poor digestion. For these conditions you can do no better than take the following prescription: Fluid Extract Cascadian, one-half ounce; Compound Kargin, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime, but don't forget to take this drink plenty and often. This valuable extract is a simple prescription should be poured up in each household and used at the first signs of rheumatism, kidney trouble, or urinary trouble, no matter how long it has been there.

UNION PRINTERS QUALIFICATIONS OF NOVEMBER ELECTORS

Who can vote for presidential electors, and thus for the presidential candidates, at the presidential election of November 3? This is a question which is asked many times each day at the headquarters of both the Republican and Democratic parties in Portland, and throughout the state.

On every hand there seems to be a widespread belief that any citizen of the United States can cast his ballot at the presidential election, whether at his home, or on travel in a distant state. Traveling men, distant from their homes, are making daily inquiry whether it is possible for them to cast their vote at the town where they may be on election day. In order to make the situation plain the following is a summary of the law of the state in herewith set forth.

Section 2 of the constitution of the State of Oregon sets out the qualifications of electors in the state. Section 2 is as follows: "Section 2. Qualifications of electors.—In all elections not otherwise provided for by this constitution every white male citizen of the United States, of the age of 21 years and upwards, who shall have resided in the state during the six months immediately preceding such election, and who shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States one year previous to such election, and who shall be naturalized, shall be entitled to vote at all elections authorized by law."

It has been held by the supreme court that the fifteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States, which restricts to white males of Oregon come under the same constitutional requirements that bind the white voter, and have the same privileges.

MRS. T. C. ROAN.

Mrs. T. C. Roan was a chronic sufferer from constipation and nervousness for over 10 years. She says she tried everything that she could think of and was treated by several doctors, but nothing seemed to relieve or help her until at last she employed Dr. Shivers of Greenville, Miss., who prescribed Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, to be taken regularly four times a day—dessert spoonful in a glass of milk—and a few bottles made a complete cure.

Mrs. Roan writes that her health is better than it has been for years, and she heartily recommends Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as the greatest family medicine and tonic stimulant, as it has cured her.

She also states that her husband, who had consumption, was completely cured after taking one and a half dozen bottles of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Any doctor who has ever treated lung trouble and tuberculosis or any one who has ever had a touch of it, can realize what a wonderful thing this was; for a case to be cured with one and a half dozen bottles of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, taken as ordered by a doctor.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system, is a promoter of health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's an absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey, and is sold in large sealed bottles only—never in bulk.
