TWO POKER GAME RAIDS

Police Pounce on Quiet Little Sessions in the Gilman Hotel and in a Lodging House on Sixth near Oak —Thirteen Arrested.

The first arrest of white gamblers that has been made in a long time was pulled off by Officers Craddock and Hyde last night when they arrested seven men in room 38 of the Gilman hotel at First and Alder streets. The men were booked at the station as Harry Martin, who is the proprietor of the place, Ed Jones, J. T. Adams, W. L. Stewart, T. J. Roberts, Fred Arthur and John Henry.

With the men the arresting officer brought all the paraphenalia, consisting of two green topped tables, a lot of poker chips, a four-bit piece, 15 beer bottles, nine of them full, the "buck," and several packs of cards.

The officers must have interrupted the game at a crucial moment, for the desk sergeant figured out from the cards as they lay that one man had a straight and another three fives. All the chips were on the table, so there was evidently some exciting betting going on.

Bail was fixed at $20 each. Martin, who had been acting as banker, was the only one who had any money, and he didn't have enough, so he was allowed to leave $100 and go out to rustle the other $40, which he did in a few minutes, and the seven men were released.

Later Officers Craddock and Hughes landed a game at 69½ Sixth, in an old lodging house, bringing tables, chips and money to headquarters. Frank Johnson, W. Jennings, Ed Dalton, W. Crook, Frank Johnson and Harry Parker were arrested for gambling in this raid.

OREGON'S TWO TEAMS VICTORS

Varsity Wallops Alumni, 4 to 0, and Freshmen Beat Portland, 5 to 0.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 17.—Both university teams were successful in their initial games today, the 'varsity defeating the alumni by a score of 4-0, the freshmen scoring 5 to Portland High's 0. The 'varsity's score came just before the end of the second half, when Clarke, signaling for a free kick, received Hug's punt on the alumni's 30-yard line. Moullen kicked from placement, dropping the ball squarely between the posts. 'Varsity tried three other place kicks, each time narrowly missing goal.

Moullen tried two from the 50 and the 40-yard lines, and Clarke one from the 40-yard line.

The alumni had a good chance to score near the end of the first half, when McKinney recovered a quarter-back kick by "Jack" Latourette on the 'varsity's five-yard line, but they could not make yardage and Clarke punted to safety.

In the second half they did not get within threatening distance, as the half was largely taken up by Oregons attempted place kicks. The 'varsity showed up exceptionally well on defensive, breaking through the alumni's line repeatedly and throwing the alumni men back for losses. The 'varsity line also held well, especially when their goal line was in danger.

Main and Michel There.

Main and Michel starred especially in defensive work, and were in almost every play.

Coach Forbes is highly gratified with the showing made by his team in this department, and he has been paying particular attention to defensive work.

Clarke easily had the best of the punting, although Hug did good work for the alumnis. Alumni did not try to kick any field goals.

One formation which gave the alumni a 30-yard run resembled the "Idaho spread," and was nicknamed "Alumni spread." Outside of this, the alumni used few trick plays, confining themselves mainly to straight football.

Latourette made the only long run of the day, running in a punt 70 yards, but it was not allowed, as the varsity had been outside. The star players for the alumni were McKinney, Templeton, Latourette and Chandler; for the varsity, Clarke, Pinkham, Moullen, Michel and Main.

Coach Forbes is very much satisfied with the general work of the team, and will turn his endeavor from now on toward developing good offensive system.

The Freshman-West Portland High School game was also closely contested, the Portland boys playing a much harder game than had been anticipated. The Freshmen made their touchdown in the middle of the first half.

Reads Like Alumni.

Hawkins advanced the ball 25 yards by an end run. Latourette made a forward pass to Hickson, netting another 25 and McKinley carried the ball over by a series of line plunges and cross bucks. The goal was missed. Gerspach later caught a forward pass and with a clear field and good interference, would have made a touchdown had it not been for a pretty tackle by Latourette.

Neither goal was threatened during the second half, the play being kept near the center of the field. Ludlam, of Portland, played a star game, making several beautiful tackles. Rader, Portland's fullback, suffered from a wrenched knee and was taken from the game.

WAR ON OUTLAWS OF PACIFIC COAST

Chicago, Oct. 17.—President Cal Ewing of the Pacific Coast Baseball league appeared before the national baseball commission today and complained that the organization was being harassed continually by the outlaws, and that it was not getting the protection it ought to get. The commission decided to hold a meeting in Chicago November 30 to devise ways and means of fighting the outlaws of the California league and to give the Pacific Coast league every support possible.

Badgers Blank Indiana.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 17.—Wisconsin university won from Indiana on Jordan field this afternoon, 16 to 0. The Badgers got three clean touchdowns. Indiana almost scored at the close of the last half, but at no other time was Wisconsin in danger.

Tried to Steal Bicycle.

A young fellow named Bill Squires was arrested last night by Officer Amundson on the charge of stealing a bicycle. The complaint was made by Warren Cornell.

TRIUMPH OF HUNT CLUB IN THREE DAYS' HORSE SHOW

FLAXY, OWNED BY DAN TARPLEY

MRS. J.W. CONSIDINE DRIVING SUNBEAM

PAUL WESSINGER'S HAL B.

MISS BAKER OF TACOMA DRIVING.

Another big success was chalked up against the name of the Portland Hunt club last night when the second annual horse show was ended. There was a general disposition on the part of audience, judges, exhibitors and cup donors alike to declare the three days of the show among the most successful in the history of the city.

It is believed that the great increase in interest among local people in good horses and handsome carriages occasioned by the first show will be repeated between this year and next and that the number of Portland owners of fine horses will be largely augmented before the third annual show.

Portland's strong point in the show just over was her heavy harness horses, those of Fred W. Leadbetter being the finest and carrying off the most first prizes. The Leadbetter stables have largely increased during the past 12 months and the money spent by Mr. Leadbetter in new horses saved many of the ribbons for Portland. The roadsters and riding horses exhibited mostly by members of the Driving and Hunt clubs, were exceptionally good although the jumping was of rather poor quality and elicited some unfavorable comment from the judges.

Efforts Brought Success.

The individual efforts of such horse fanciers as Dr. A. C. Froom, James Nicol, Paul Wessinger, W. M. Davis, Mrs. Buffum, Mrs. Cronin, T. B. Wilcox and J. P. Porter of Vancouver, went a long ways towards securing the very successful exhibitions of the week and are important because they represent horses that are kept, not solely for horse show purposes, but for general pleasure and comfort.

Fox Catcher, J. D. Farrell's famous high jumper, did not give an exhibition performance last night, and there was no high jumping. But there were many other events of interest, including the coachmen's trial for prizes of $50, $25 and $15. The Hunt club furnished a brougham and pair—James Nicol's Shamrock and Heather—and had the contestants drive between posts arranged in various ways through the ring.

Skillful Percy Taylor.

Percy Taylor, the successful contestant, drove with remarkable skill and ease, passing the gauntlet twice without disturbing an upright. Whitter, the Wilcox coachman, got through fairly well until half way around, but finished with disastrous results and used his whip on the horses so that his successor, Donald Urquhart, was able to do little with them.

In the road horses class Dr. A. C. Froom's Josephine Vernon, a 2-year-old black mare, proved to be a wonder in spite of her youth. She has been under Dr. Froom's training only since last June and was suffering from a severe cold, but took second prize, Alta Cora, Paul Wessinger's black mare, carrying off first.

James Nicol, in capturing the blue ribbon with his chestnut pair, Laddie and Thistle, won the applause of the audience. Nicol, more than any other one man, perhaps, has taught Portland people how to ride and drive horses and the show was a good deal of his making.

(Hearst News by Longest Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Oct. 17.—Cyclone Thompson, who is to box before Le Caris club at Dreamland rink on October 29, arrived in town last night with his manager, Larney Lichtenstein. Thompson's opponent will be Boer Unholz, who is already in training at Croll's gardens, Alameda.

Thompson, who has fought considerably during the past few years, seems to be as hard as nails. He weighs in the neighborhood of 140 pounds, but says he will have no difficulty in reaching the lightweight limit. Thompson has made arrangements to train at Millett's and will go into camp immediately.

Manager Lichtenstein says that Thompson's object in coming to the coast is to prove that he is a logical opponent for Battling Nelson, whom he wishes to box for the championship.

"The Boer is a hard fellow and Cyclone does not expect to dispose of him without a struggle," said Lichtenstein. "He feels confident he will win, however, and then we will do all in our power to bring Nelson to terms."
