

TAKES PART OF ESCORT AGAINST ANGRY FATHER

Old Man Ticer Starts Something on a St. Johns Car He Cannot Finish—Deliberate Brutality of Patrolman Joe Burke May Cost Him His Head.

Charges are to be preferred against Patrolman Joe Burke next Monday for making an unprovoked assault in the police station last night upon an innocent bystander who had accompanied his brother to the station when the latter was arrested by Burke.

When this story was told Murdock was asked if he wished to prefer charges against Ticer. He replied that he did not. He seemed to have had satisfaction enough. Goetz then told them that he could do nothing. If Ticer wanted Murdock arrested he could swear out a warrant Monday morning.

Then the Trouble Began. Young Murdock said he didn't think he cared to walk home, whereupon, according to his own story, that of the girl, and that of a woman who sat next them and who interested herself sufciently in the matter to accompany them to the police station, Ticer struck Murdock in the head, knocking his hat off. Murdock thereupon proceeded to trounce Ticer thoroughly.

VOICE IS RICHER THAN EVER BEFORE

That Emilio de Gogorza is the exception among male singers, is now an established fact with the musicking public of this country. Commenting on this topic, Mr. Parker of the Boston Transcript says: "Gogorza gives song recitals and finds a public eager for them. There is indeed no obvious reason in the quality of the male voice or in the art of song why a tenor or a baritone or a bass voice should not give such recitals. Again Mr. Gogorza is the exception, for he at least may count upon his audiences. Boston hears him gladly." The entire musical community now recognizes Boston's sentiment and everywhere Gogorza is acknowledged the exception among singers of his sex. A voice that can stand the strain of a program of from 18 to 20 songs and arias, such as he will give here, is found in only a few of the singers today. Gogorza's tones are even richer than when he last sang here. Clearness, depth, sensuous warmth, variety of tonal color and unaffected masculinity makes his a compelling voice. It is individual and not to be resisted. The concert is under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn Coman and will be on Thursday night, October 22.
