COMING EVENTS

Portland society is interested in tag day for the benefit of the Baby Home, which has been set for October 28. Printed tags, bearing these words, "I'm out for charity for the Baby Home," will be issued and sold for the small sum of 10 cents. Every one will buy one, and possibly more. Any one appearing on the street without a tag on that day will feel like a stranger in a strange land.

Los Angeles tag day was a decided success. Societies, churches, schools, business men, merchants, all united in their efforts to make it a success financially as well as a pleasure day, not soon to be forgotten.

We have at present street and other improvements which will cost the home over $3,000. The city is putting new streets on the north and west sides of the home, which has two blocks of land. Cement walks and walls incur expenses the Baby Home cannot meet without help. Los Angeles raised $6,000 on its tag day. Spokane raised $3,000 on its tag day.

Portland has a population of 185,000. What will Portland do?

PERSONAL

Julius Joseph, well known in Portland has gone to Paris to continue his study of art, making portrait painting his specialty. He has been studying in New York and many here will recall two of his paintings that were exhibited at the Lewis and Clark fair.

Discussed Over the Prunes.

"Why is it, Miss Willing, that fat men always have the prettiest wives? I seldom see a jolly fat man with an ugly, cross-looking wife. By Jove, those fellows just go in and win the pretty women every time."

"Well, Mr. Hammerslee, I can account for that. You see, a husband should be a sort of bromide, should have a soothing effect. Fat men are placid, calm, jolly, and good providers. They like the good things of life themselves and they like to see their wives well dressed, and to sit down to a good table. No wonder women like them better than they do lean, dyspeptic, nervous, cranky men, who find fault, nag, and are stingy. Men like this want a lot of waiting on and attention, they are generally jealous and selfish. Fat men hate a fuss, seem to understand that wives are as fond of being spoiled and of having good clothes and good dinners as other women are, and hence women naturally marry men of this temperament."

On the largest tobacco farm in the world, a 25,000-acre affair, near Amsterdam, Ga., is grown about a third of all the Sumatra tobacco used for cigar wrappers in the United States.
