

FEUD FEARED IN CARR CASE

Friends of George Moore, Alleged Abactor Killed by A. D. Carr, Are Incensed at Authorities' Refusal to Prosecute.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Lewiston, Idaho, Oct. 19.—Another step in the long line of litigation that has followed the tragic shooting affray at Carr's springs near Orofino, August 3, came late yesterday afternoon when Judge E. C. Steele of the district court, immediately after he had issued a preliminary writ for the soma of the defendant, D. Carr on the charge of murdering George Moore, also issued a writ of habeas corpus returnable Wednesday to show cause why Carr should not be turned loose or released on bail. The petition alleges that the defendant is illegally restrained of his liberty; that at the time of the alleged offense, he was acting in the capacity of an officer toward Reid, Moore, Rice and Sloan, who were heavily armed and fugitives from justice.

The shooting affray of August 3 had its real animus in a cattle rustling episode, where A. D. Carr alleged that W. T. Reid, George Moore, A. J. Sloan and C. A. Rice stole some of his cattle. In support of this allegation he found the hide with his brand at Reid's ranch. Warrants were issued for the defendants. Rice and Sloan were arrested and the day of the trial Reid gave himself up. Later that day the defendants broke from the officers, were joined at the outskirts of the town of Orofino by Moore, horses and firearms. The direction of Carr's home with threats of "doing him." After a running fight with Carr's sons they rode into an ambush where A. D. Carr opened fire, killing Moore and wounding Reid and Sloan. In the man hunt that followed all the alleged rustlers were captured.

Since that time Reid, Rice and Sloan have been tried and acquitted of assault on Carr. Carr has been arrested for the murder of Moore, but the prosecuting attorney refused to try the case and the sheriff refused to incarcerate him. A petition was made for a writ of mandamus compelling the imprisonment of Carr. Judge Steele issued this writ of habeas corpus. Public opinion in the upper country is divided over the issues raised. The principals involved are northern mountaineers and there is apprehension that whichever way the court finally decides the legal issues, a feud will follow and several shooting scrapes result.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—The detective bureau of the police department is trying to solve the mystery of the disappearance of J. A. Cappera of St. Charles, Ill., a wealthy man, from his apartments at the Majestic Annex several days ago. It is thought Cappera might have met with foul play, as he was known to have considerable money with him. He left $300 in the hotel safe. Cappera left the hotel last Friday and has not been seen since. Several of his friends here belong to the Masonic order, of which he is a prominent member, and they have telegraphed to his relatives in Illinois in an effort to learn more of the missing man's movements.

Richmond Pedron Hobson will make his first speech for William Jennings Bryan in Oregon at Pendleton tomorrow night, October 20. The committee this morning received a telephone announcing that Jared Y. Sanders, governor of Louisiana, who has been sent west by the national committee to gather information concerning the political situation, will be in this city, tomorrow probably, and will possibly make one or more speeches.

PHONY COIN MILL ON A MID SCOW

Sacramento Philanthropists Set in to Relieve the Overworked Mints.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Sacramento, Cal., Oct. 19.—Edward Hinman and J. E. Stephens, who were arrested several days ago at Marysville for passing spurious coin, were identified today as two men who leased a scow on the waterfront not more than 100 yards from the city prison, on which was found a complete outfit for making counterfeit money. The police started an investigation after the men were arrested and found out the two men had a woman with them and went out to various small towns near here to pass the coins, according to the woman.

Today the owner of the scow identified Hinman and Stephens as the men who had leased the boat. They will be taken to Johnston for a hearing before the federal commissioner.

LINCOLN COUNTY SENDS EXHIBIT

Vegetables of Enormous Size Grow in Coast Region of Oregon.

A fine lot of field and garden vegetables, grains and grasses from Lincoln county arrived in the city this morning and has been placed on exhibition in the exhibit room at the Oregon State Board of Agriculture. One of the displays which has caused considerable comment is a stand of rye eight feet, one and one half inches in height. "Some folks think that because Lincoln county is down by the sea, it can't raise anything but rye," said Colonel A. W. Miller, who is in charge of the display, "but if those people ever see this bunch of products they'll take a back seat sure." Among the products which have been sent down are vegetables that would attract attention in any agricultural show for their extraordinary size. The good-sized pumpkins and the pumpkins, but quite as big as barrels, but pretty near it. As large as small barrels, anyway. There are potatoes like water-melons, carrots, parsnips, onions and squash that can hold their own with any of them.

DELEGATES VISIT BAPTIST PASTORS

Attend Ministers' Meeting En Route to Newberg Convention.

The Baptist ministers' meeting this morning was largely attended by visiting preachers on their way to Newberg to attend the Baptist state convention, which opens there tomorrow. Each brought greetings from his church and gave a message. The pastor of the day was read by Rev. Ralph St. Pierre of Pendleton, recently from Massachusetts, whose subject was "The Ground of Appeal in Preaching." He handled it from a technical standpoint; that seemed satisfactory to his listeners, but aroused much denominational enthusiasm. Dr. Blackburn, a former pastor of the White Temple, was one of the "claritors" this morning. His entrance brought forth enthusiastic applause and an eager call for a speech. The ministers left this morning for Newberg.

FIRST CHOICE DRAWN BY GIRL

May A. Metser of Kennebec, S. D., Gets Pick of Rosebud Lands.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Dallas, S. D., Oct. 19.—The first name to be drawn in the Tripp county land lottery was that of May A. Metser of Kennebec, S. D., who gets first choice of all the Rosebud lands thrown open by the government. The drawing began today. Applicants to the number of 114,763 had registered for the lottery during the past four weeks. Landseekers arrived early in big crowds to witness the drawing. A driving rain and heavy wind caused considerable discomfort but did not diminish the size of the crowd that thronged about the platform on which stood 21 sealed casks containing the applications. With the arrival of the crowds of applicants, nearly all of them farmers, came scores of gamblers and "thimble-riggers." Extra deputy sheriffs were sworn in to the drawing. At 10 o'clock the little girls selected to draw the applications, were lifted to the screened platform, while the crowd cheered. Judge Witten, superintendent of the drawing, introduced Delegate Thomas Cale of Alaska, formerly of South Dakota. While Cale addressed the crowd several flashlight photographs were taken. The metal casks were then broken open and the 114,000 and more applications were scattered on the platform and thoroughly mixed with potato forks. Missa Rose and Virginia Wagner, the girls chosen to do the drawing, moved forward to be blindfolded. Miss Rose refused to submit to having her eyes covered. After a slight delay Judge Witten announced that owing to the girl's nervousness she would not be blindfolded. Miss Rose picked the first slip. Miss Wagner followed, drawing the name of Swift of Ponca, Neb., from the mass of papers. The names of E. M. Nauman, Meadow Grove, Neb., and Otto Snyder, Mitchell, S. D., followed. The drawing of the name of Miss Myers was received with cheers by the crowd. When the noise ceased the girls alternately plucked their hands into the pile of applications and drew forth lucky white slips.

We regret our inability to furnish you with immediate assistance, but you will see how we can explain to our friends the following questions, we will take the matter of our fund into the Republican campaign under consideration. Why did the Republican convention at Chicago vote down the publicity of campaign funds, nine to one? Why did the convention vote down popular election of senators, seven to one? How can we expect Mr. Taft to prosecute the trusts when he granted perpetual franchise to a corporation in the Philippines? How can we assure the people that Mr. Taft, if elected, will not copy Mr. Roosevelt and use the office which belongs to the people to name his successor? Why 30 Republicans could not be found in congress last winter that would join the Democrats in causing

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Portland Household Will Find Them So

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Portland sufferers. J. K. Parrish, 3274 East Oak street, Portland, Or., says: "I think just as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills today as I did over three years ago, when I endorsed them publicly. Kidney complaint made its appearance in my case so gradually that it was some time before I paid much attention to it. However, a heavy cold which I contracted was the means of bringing the trouble to a climax. Full pains across my loins and through my back caused me the most intense suffering and if I did any work in which I over-exerted myself my condition was much worse. I noticed a convincing testimonial in the papers concerning Doan's Kidney Pills and this led me to try them. The results of their use were highly satisfactory and I was so completely relieved that there has never been a return of the trouble since."

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 19.—Otis H. Wade, clerk in charge of the quartermaster's department of the United States army at the Arlington dock, was arrested yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal Fred M. Lathie, charged with having government vouchers and receipts in his possession and with attempting to dispose of them for personal gain. Wade's arrest was made at the home of Erick Johnson, president and general manager of the Seattle Machine Works, a few minutes after he proposed to sell information for $2,000. Wade's conversation with Johnson was taken verbatim by stenographer in an adjoining room, who was accompanied by Lathie. Wade had nothing to say when he saw the trap into which he had walked. He was taken to the county jail but was released on bond. Wade is 35 years old.

SUSPECTED ARMY CLERK TRAPPED

William Jones, a member of the city detective department, who was stricken with apoplexy a week ago, died at the Good Samaritan hospital this morning at 9 o'clock. A blood clot had formed on the brain, resulting in paralysis of the right side. The failure of the clot to be absorbed caused death. Jones was one of the most trusted members of the department, being frequently assigned to most difficult cases. With Detective Ticeburn, his partner, he worked up most of the testimony in the Martin murder case, although at the time the murder was committed his 13-year-old daughter was lying dangerously ill with diphtheria. For a week he worked on the case with his mind divided between his duty and the fact that his little daughter might die at any hour. The little girl died last night after that Jones was scarcely the same man. Apoplexy resulted and he was forced to go to the hospital a week ago.
