THE WORLD'S MARKETS

CHICKEN MARKET PLACED UPWARD

Demand Is Especially Good for Fat Hens—Best Sell at 13 1-2c Pound.

Portland wholesale markets:
Chickens are advanced.
Eggs quoted firmer.
Veal is not quite so firm.
Dressed hogs just easy.
Potato market holding stiff.
Efforts to depress onions fail.
Small amount of hop trading.
Sweet potatoes in fine shape.
Hothouse lettuce market dragging.
Razor clams are very scarce.
Casabas find a good sale.
Cheese market is firmer.

Chickens Are Advanced.

The demand for chickens is very good at this time in the Front street markets. Arrivals are just about as short of the demand just now as they were greater than the trade's requirements a short time ago. The reason for it is that shippers always send supplies when they are wanted least, but when there is a good demand it is invariably the rule for shippers to hold back their supplies. Along the Front street markets today the demand is best for heavy hens but of this variety few coops are coming. The trade in general is of the opinion that the call will be good for select stuff around 13½c a pound and about 13c for mixed lots. Of late the arrivals have consisted mostly of fryers and broilers and in consequence there is not so much demand for these as for fancy hens.

Eggs Are Quoting Firmer.

There is a firmer tone in the egg market with more sales at 40c, although not half of the arrivals are moving beyond 37½c a dozen for local ranch. Arrivals of fresh stock are very scant, but even then some of the larger buyers refuse to pay more than 37½c. Beyond that price they say that the range between local and eastern stock is too great; the latter being of exceptionally good quality and few can tell the difference. In fact, only an expert would be able to distinguish between the two.

Cheese Market Is Firmer.

Values in the local cheese market are disposed to show considerable firmness at this time. At Tillamook the market is very good and steady with a demand fully up to the output at current values. Along Front street sales of flats are still being made at 14½@15c, although more are asking the higher price than formerly.

Butter market is holding firm with no change in the situation for the past few days. According to local makers, the increase in the output is very light as yet.

Razor Clams Are Very Scarce.

There is a great scarcity of razor clams in the Front street market at this time. The storms off the coast have kept diggers from the beach.

The shortage in salmon yesterday was caused by the failure of the fishermen to connect with the steamers. Today supplies were quite liberal again.

Potato Market Is Stiff.

While there may be a large crop of potatoes along the rivers of California, this fact is not affecting the local market to any extent. While there is practically no shipping demand just now for Oregon potatoes, growers are not pressing their supplies on the market—in fact many of them are unwilling to sell except at materially advanced figures.

Efforts to depress the local onion market by bringing in shipments from California have failed and the trade here could scarcely be steadier without advancing values. Not enough local stock is coming to supply the trade.

Another fine car of sweet potatoes arrived from California this morning and found a good demand.

Brief Notes of Front Street.

Demand for hothouse lettuce is rather slow and prices are dragging again.

Cabbage market is easier but values are holding.

Casabas are moving freely around former figures.

Arrivals of apples from the Hood River show are liberal and demand is good. Prices range as high as $3 a box.

Dressed hogs are rather slow in moving and the tone of the dressed veal market is not nearly so good as last week.

Front street sells at the following prices. Those paid shippers are less regular commissions.

ARMOUR SENDS WHEAT HIGHER

Hears of Damage in Argentina and Buys Heavily in Chicago Market.

Armour Hears Damage.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Armour has received the following cable from Argentina:

"We fear serious damage to the crop from the frost. It is too hot and dry for a good recovery."

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Argentine news was the feature which caused strength in all world's wheat markets today. While the news regarding damage was very conflicting, still the heaviest operators believed that something was wrong with conditions down there. Armour backed his judgment with very heavy purchases of wheat. Liverpool was higher at both the opening and close, as were the other foreign markets.

This market opened unchanged to ⅛c above yesterday's final figures, but with the Armour buying there was an increase in strength and today's closing shows a net advance of ⅝ to 1c a bushel.

SHEEP SUPPLY HARD TO MOVE

Even the Limited Arrivals Are Not Being Sought—Big Run of Hogs On.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK RUN.

	Hogs.	Cattle.	Sheep.
Today	1,061	65	200
Tuesday	251	161	271
1907	402	173	210
1906	140	55	...
1905	421	191	146

Portland Union Stockyards, Oct. 21.—Simply because the trade was not looking for heavy arrivals of hogs shipments are showing a very liberal increase in the yards today. During the 24 hours a total of 106 head arrived compared with 257 yesterday and 402 a year ago today. The market is greatly influenced by the inferior quality of late arrivals, and today nothing sold above $6.25, although there was a sale late yesterday as high as $6.50. The trade is inclined to the opinion that select quality will bring the higher figure for awhile, but with eastern prices again depressed it is not known how long local prices can remain in check.

Cannot Sell Sheep.

Even though sheep arrivals in the yards have of late been very small there is scarcely a demand for the few head coming. During the 24 hours 200 head were reported in the yards, but up to a late hour today they had found no buyers. The fact is that packers are now getting their contract stuff and their requirements are therefore filled for the time being.

"Sheep are hard to move just now," said Tom Benson to The Journal this morning. "Packers are buying their supplies east of the mountains and the few sheep now coming to the yards are hard to move."

The cattle market is holding about unchanged with rather light arrivals. Select steers are moving at $4, but this is the extreme top."

"The hog market is very weak," says Mr. Hunt of Hunt & Lacy, "and I believe that the top is $6.25."

Today 20 horses were among the yard's arrivals.

A year ago today hogs were weak, cattle and sheep firm. No change in values for the day.

Following is the general range of values on stock ruling in the yards for late shipments:

Hogs—Best east of mountains, $6.25@6.50; ordinary, $6; blockers and China fats, $5.75; stockers and feeders, $5.

Cattle—Select east of mountains, steers, $4; medium steers, $3.50; ordinary, $3.25; best cows, $2.85@3; heifers, $3.25; medium cows, $2@2.25; stags, $2.50@3; bulls, $2.

Sheep—Best wethers, $3.50; ordinary wethers, $3.25; lambs, $4; straight ewes, $3; mixed lots, $2.50@2.75.

Veal—Choice young calves, $4.50; heavy and rough, $3.50@4.

A year ago today hogs were weak; cattle and sheep firm; all values unchanged.

Sellers are more willing to let go of barley supplies because of the larger holdings, but thus far they have not offered any concession in the price. Every one is now loaded up with barley, the recent purchases being very heavy. These interests are now trying to let go, but the buyers who were figured upon as possible purchasers are in a like fix. On the board of trade today there was no change in values from yesterday.

Wheat trade was firmer today for futures, but the cash market is rather quiet, though prices are holding unchanged. On the board of trade today an advance of ½c a bushel was bid for November and ¾c for the December. Asked prices for both options are ½c higher than yesterday.

Oats market started 2½c a cental lower for the November, but later in the session yesterday's price was again renewed. Holders showed no change in their view, both options being quoted at $1.55 asked.

During the session $31 a ton was offered for 1,000 tons No. 1 feed oats, but for January-February delivery no sellers appeared.

Secretary Muller has issued a call for a meeting of the grain interests of the board of trade for Friday, October 30, at 3 p. m. The future of various exchange methods will be discussed. The meeting is the most important ever called.

Latest News of Oregon Crops

NORTHWEST CROP WEATHER.

Oregon, Washington and Idaho—Generally fair tonight and Thursday; southerly winds.

Brownsville, Or., Oct. 21.—Considerable rain has fallen in this section during the past week. Farmers are taking advantage of it, and fall plowing has commenced. Much grain will be sown this fall on account of the high prices being paid for all kinds of grain.

HARRIMAN LEADS STOCK MARKET

Southern Pacific and Union Pacific Each Share in Heavy Gains Today.

New York, Oct. 21.—There was a sharp advance today in all stock market prices. The list was put up "in a bunch," so to speak, for while the advance was not uniform, the leading issues showed about the same rise for the day. London was especially firm for Harriman shares and this induced better buying for both Union Pacific and Southern Pacific in this market. The latter was strongest with a net advance of 2⅜ points for the day although Union Pacific closed 1⅝ points above yesterday's bid.

Leading advances for the day were: Amalgamated Copper, 1⅞; American Sugar, 1½; American Smelter, 1¼; American Locomotive, ⅞; Atchison, ⅝; Canadian Pacific, ⅛; St. Paul, 2⅜; Erie, ¼; Great Northern, 1¼; National Lead, 2; N. Y. Central, ⅝; Missouri Pacific, ⅝; Northern Pacific, ½; Pennsylvania, 1⅝; Reading, 2; Southern Pacific, 2⅜; Union Pacific, 1⅝; U. S. Steel common, ½; preferred, ⅝ point.

U. S. Steel earnings for the year are estimated at $90,000,000.

The dissolution of the German Westphalian pig iron syndicate officially announced will probably affect our exports favorably.

STRUCK BY CABLE; GUS NAGEL IS DEAD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Vancouver, Wash., Oct. 21. — Gus Nagel, a resident of Vancouver, for some time employed at the Twin Falls logging camp near Yacolt, was killed instantly yesterday shortly after noon. The body will be brought to Knapp's chapel in this city today and arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

Nagel was working about the cable, which was dragging a log, when it broke. He received the full force from the flying cable and according to the meager details received over the telephone wire, was killed before fellow workmen could reach him. The dead man had resided in Vancouver and vicinity for several years and was well known here. He is survived by a wife. He was 48 years of age.

DENIES SIGNATURE ON PROMISSORY NOTE

H. Leipschitz is to be brought back from San Francisco to tell what he knows about a note, the signature of which is denied. Several weeks ago Leipschitz sold to J. F. Singer, a well known broker, a note given for $60 to Leipschitz by C. D. Hoffman, a grocer of 809 Mississippi avenue. The note was due September 18.

When the payment day came Hoffman said he had given a note to Leipschitz, but that his signature was not on the note held by Singer. What Hoffman alleges to be the original note has never been presented, however, so the officers are investigating Hoffman's part in the affair. Leipschitz is under arrest in San Francisco.

THREE NEW CHARGES AGAINST LOUIS KLOOS

Three more charges of embezzlement have been laid against Louis Kloos, the young collector for M. Barde & Son, who was arrested by Constable Wagner yesterday. His bail has been increased to $1,500. Kloos' father, a resident of New York, has been telegraphed to, but the young man is still in custody.

AGED OFFENDER'S PLEA IS HEEDED

Gets Six Months in Jail for Mailing Obscene Postcard.

With head bowed and appealing to the clemency of the court on the ground that previous to this offense he had harmed no living soul, D. M. Sterling, a veteran of the civil war, pleaded guilty in the United States circuit court this morning to sending obscene matter through the mails. Judge Wolverton sentenced Sterling to serve six months in the county jail and to pay a fine of $1.00. John H. Stevenson acted as counsel for the defendant.

Sterling said that he was 69 years old and a man of family. All these years he had lived, he said, and done no wrong—no wrong except writing a few words on a postal card while in an angry mood. Revenge, it seems, was his purpose.

Sterling had been going with a young woman in Portland and learned that another man was about to "cut him out." He therefore wrote a laconic note, making certain insinuations, which resulted in trouble with Uncle Sam.

Sterling was indicted by a federal grand jury more than a year ago. He learned of the charge soon after it had been returned and fled to California. He traveled about the country with the government agents hot on his trail. Two weeks ago he was captured in Tacoma.

"I am glad it is all over," the old man said as he was led out of the courtroom by a deputy marshal on his way to jail.

HOBSON DRAWING CARD IN OREGON

Many Portland People Will Hear Speech at Oregon City Tonight.

Richmond Pearson Hobson, the "hero of the Merrimac," now a member of congress, will be in Portland this afternoon. Tonight he will address the people of Oregon City on the issues of the present presidential campaign, as viewed from under the Bryan standard. Tomorrow night he will speak in Astoria.

Congressman Hobson has been meeting with splendid success since coming to Oregon on his present tour. Last night he addressed a large and enthusiastic audience which packed the courthouse at Pendleton to the doors. The popularity of the speaker was shown by the fact that the audience which greeted him was larger than the one which went to listen to the address delivered by Senator Fulton the night before.

Mr. Hobson spoke for two hours at Pendleton and held the attention of the audience throughout. He criticised the action of the present administration in not providing adequate naval protection for the Pacific coast.

A large delegation of Portland people will go to Oregon City tonight to hear the address delivered by Mr. Hobson at that place. Owing to the short time allowed Mr. Hobson in Oregon he will be unable to speak in Portland and Oregon City will be the nearest point at which he can be heard.

During the remainder of the present week, and all of the coming week, there will be great Democratic activity at the Bryan headquarters and throughout the state. National Committeemen M. A. Miller and E. S. J. McAllister left this morning for Linn county, where they will be the principal speakers at a number of meetings. Colonel R. A. Miller is now in Polk county and will make a tour of both that county and Benton before returning to Portland. Other speakers are being sent throughout the state.

In Multnomah county things will hum from now on until election day. Tonight there will be a rally at Fox's hall, Troutdale; the speakers will be John H. Stevenson and Bert E. Haney. Thursday night there will be a rally at St. Johns in Bickner's hall, the speakers being Judge Thomas O'Day and John A. Jeffrey. Friday night there will be another rally at Firemen's hall Midway, on Milwaukie street. John Manning will be the principal speaker at this meeting.

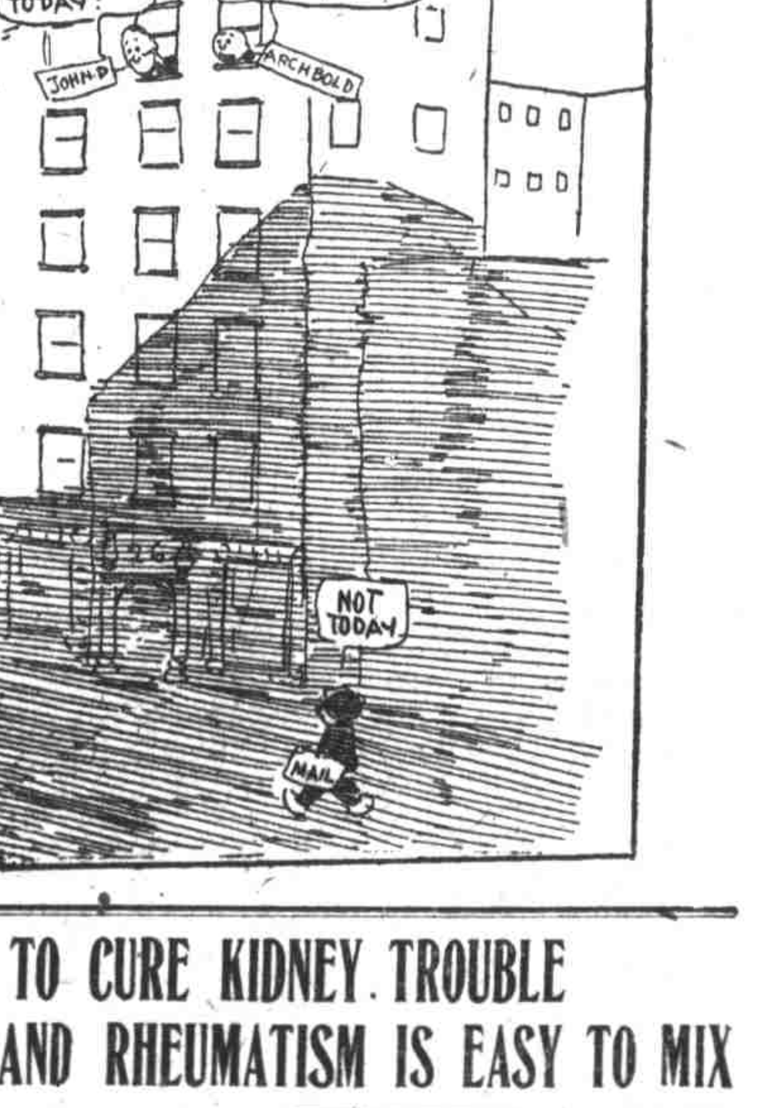
During the coming week there will be other rallies in different parts of the county. The speakers will be selected by County Chairman George H. Thomas.

ASLEEP WITH PLUNDER IN HIS POCKETS

Having finished a jail sentence in Tacoma, Sunday, the local detectives say, Walter Ellis came at once to Portland and just to keep his hand in climbed through a window into the room of a Japanese at 8 Fourth street. He was found by Officers Craddock, Howell and Hyde asleep on the bed with a stolen razor and fountain pen sticking out of his pocket. He will tell Judge Van Zante about it tomorrow.

Has Mechanic's Lien.

Judge Cleland, in the circuit court, is hearing testimony today in the case of Jack Rankin against R. A. Proudfoot. The latter is seeking to foreclose on the Heyser hotel for a mechanic's lien to the amount of $468.



RECIPE TO CURE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND RHEUMATISM IS EASY TO MIX

Many People Unnecessarily Leaving the City to Get Relief.

The following prescription for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles has no doubt been filled millions of times, viz.: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumblerful of water after each dose. It is stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and urinary difficulties, especially of the elderly people, and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic afflictions, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings.

A well-known authority states that this mixture acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys; cleanses these spongelike organs and gives them power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood which is the cause of rheumatism.

If your back or sides ache and you suspect kidney trouble it would be wise to try this for a few days.
