The spirit shown in W. M. Killingsworth's announcement in Tuesday's Journal relative to the Columbia bar is highly commendable. Mr. Killingsworth's hearing of the malicious falsehoods, circulated especially by Seattleites, defaming Portland by discouraging ship-owners to give the Columbia bar a wide berth on account of the treacherous and unscrupulous statements from the statistics set forth in his advertisement it will be seen that there is nothing to warrant the lies circulated by those who are endeavoring to build up the precipice city on the sound at the expense of Portland.

Harry Nudelman, the boy who passed a Chinaman while the latter was carrying a tray of dishes, thereby mixing up the Chinaman and the dish on the ground, was made a ward of the juvenile court by Judge Gantenbein yesterday. The boy explained that it was all a mistake on his part, that he was playing with other boys when the Chinaman got in the way. He was still inclined to giggle when the fall of the pig-tailed victim was recalled to his mind, and Judge Gantenbein decided that it would be a good plan to place him on probation.

The demand for farms is reported as being very good. The Pine Tree Land company reports the sale of an 80-acre farm belonging to Wandros, Stevenson, Wash., to D. Busby, who gave in exchange a house and quarter block at Maegly Junction valued at $3,000. The same firm made an exchange of a new house at Fifty-sixth and Clinton streets for 160 acres of wheat land in Gilliam county. The interested parties were J. O. Elrod and F. McDaniel.

Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Shaffer entertained the young people of the United Brethren church at the parsonage last night. 150 guests being invited. A short musical and literary program was rendered and refreshments served. The purpose of the gathering was to discuss ways and means for enlarging the young people's Bible class. Steps were taken which it is believed will largely increase the membership.

Victor Tarbell, steward at the Hof Brau, Sixth and Alder, pleaded guilty to a charge of selling quail out of season in the justice court this morning and was fined $100. The charge against Baronetche and Strobel, Tarbell's employers, was dismissed. The steward went to a local market and bought the quail, which had not been shot, but trapped.

At the Commercial club this evening an informal reception will be held for Engineer Ralph Modjeski of Chicago. The mayor, council members of the executive board and prominent workers in the various push clubs and civic societies of the city will be among the citizens who will shake hands with the bridge expert.

AT THE THEATRES

"Time, Place and Girl" Tonight.

The merry musical comedy "The Time, Place and Girl," will be the attraction at the Heilig theatre, for four

Our methods and equipment are modern, and we especially solicit difficult cases, where others have failed. We use no drugs, confining ourselves to refraction only, AND STUDIOUSLY AVOID ALL METHODS OF A FAKE NATURE, THAT ARE SO LARGELY ADVERTISED AT THE PRESENT TIME.

The majority of headaches can be traced to the eyes, caused either by improperly fitted glasses or the absence of them altogether, and often the system is drugged with strong medicines, whereas a pair of correct lenses only is necessary to remedy the trouble. "Cross eyes" in children can often be straightened through the use of glasses, if worn in time.

Our EYEGLASS MOUNTINGS fit any nose, having the least hold for guards. They are made to stick tight, and at the same time are nobby in appearance. Broken lenses duplicated and oculists' prescriptions filled.

We use only the highest-grade lenses and frames, and, with a reputation to uphold, feel that we are in a position to give you the best of satisfaction.

We hope to be favored with at least a part of your business, and assure you expert service.

John E. Young, Favorite Comedian as "Happy Johnny Hieck," at the Heilig Tonight in "The Time, Place and Girl."

"The Rivals" Coming to Heilig. The attraction at the Heilig theatre for four nights beginning next Sunday, will be Joseph and William Jefferson and their excellent supporting company in Richard Brinsley Sheridan's brilliant comedy, "The Rivals." Seat sale opens Friday.

Story Teller at the Orpheum. Miss Mabel Mattland, in quaint southern negro stories at the Orpheum is a brilliant and gifted daughter of Tennessee, and prior to her vaudeville debut was much sought after as a society entertainer, being herself a cultured and talented young woman of special prominence in the south.

"The Honeymooners" a Hit. As was predicted, George M. Cohan's "The Honeymooners" is the biggest kind of a hit at the Baker this week. Cohan girls, Cohan boys, music and original comedy never fail to make good, and this company is one of the real ones. Matinees tomorrow and Saturday.

Rah! Rah! Rah! Harvard. The good old college yells, songs, love affairs and games have full possession of Baker stock company this week in the famous play "Roward of Harvard." Blocks of seats are being taken, by different schools, as the scenes of life at America's famous college naturally attract them. Matinee Saturday.

Pantages Good Bill. There is a show at Pantages theatre this week that requires no boasting by the press agent. The Marvellous Hardeen, presenting his own original death-defying milk can mystery, the principal feature at the theatre, in fact every number on the program is away above the average.

"Cripple Creek" at the Star. "Cripple Creek" had another big house last night at the Star, and it deserved it. There is something to the show. It is natural, real and splendidly mounted and presented.

Have You Seen Enigmarelle? There is an electric man on exhibition at the Grand theatre. Enigmarelle, the only figure of the kind that has been invented. It is unlike any other act and must not be confused with the common mechanical doll specialties. Enigmarelle is made of electric wires, storage batteries, etc.

"Stricken Blind" at the Lyric. The best theatrical proposition in town this week is the Blunkall company's performance and production of the famous melodrama, "Stricken Blind." It is one of the most interesting plays ever seen here.

PENINSULAR PEOPLE TO PLANT MORE ROSES

In order to insure a plentiful supply of roses for the Rose Festival next summer, a meeting will be held at Peninsular Station tomorrow night, at which it is planned to take orders for several thousand rose bushes. These are to be planted during the winter so that they will be in full bloom by June.

Last year the Peninsular Rose Carnival association undertook to supply each visitor to the city with a rose as well as left the union depot, and although two carloads of roses were distributed, they did not meet the demand. With the enlarged supply however, it is now to be able to meet the need of the city for roses at the depot, as well as for the floats in the parades.

The meeting will be held in the hall at Peninsular and a program, including a concert by the Peninsular band, has been arranged.

Poor Teeth—Poor Looks

One cannot be beautiful without good teeth. That is impossible. The white rows of perfect teeth accentuate a woman's beauty, or a man's handsome appearance. Therefore, take care of the teeth and your beauty will take care of itself. Never neglect the teeth, or you will perhaps be sorry when it is too late. Come in and let us examine your molars anyway. Maybe we can put you on the right road to reform them if they have "gone wrong."

A New Departure

The cost of interments has been greatly reduced by the Holman Undertaking company.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidents connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When asked is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse or cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required, except a special casket and casket, these being effective a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
