ROBERT STOPS LOSING STRAOK

Groom Fools Peanut Peddlers and Gives Beavers First Victory.

(Clated Press Leased Wire.)
 San Francisco, Oct. 21.—The Portland club, the best pitcher on the Hubby club, stopped the losing streak of the Beavers yesterday when he won from Oakland, 4 to 1. Groom was in grand shape and had the Oaks guessing over the entire route, fanning 10 of them and allowing the rest but five scattered hits. Loucks started for the Greeks, but was chased out of the game and Wright substituted in the first inning, after the northers had stung him right hard.
 As usual with Casey, the Pearl ambled contentedly to first on four balls and Conroy got credit for a sacrifice when Loucks heaved his bunt waddy to Williams. Rafferty sent the ball skimming into center field and Casey scored. Ote Johnson laid down a pretty sacrifice and moved Conroy and Rafferty up. Then big Hal Danzig hit the ball so hard that it bounded clear over McCay's head and went careering into left field. This was enough to score Conroy and Raff.
 Portland's last run came along in the ninth frame in easy fashion. Ryan's long triple and Haasey's long sacrifice allowed Buddy to score.
 The lonesome ace of the gang from across the bay was played in the fifth hand. Van Halstren singled, Truendale and McCay moved him around to third on a pass and a sacrifice and Heine smelter hit him home on a long sacrifice to Rafferty.

Football Prospects of Wisconsin

By Charles P. Hutchins, Director of Athletics.
WISCONSIN SCHEDULE
 October 31—Marquette university at Madison.
 November 7—Minnesota university at Minneapolis.
 November 21—University of Chicago at Madison.
 Madison, Wis., Oct. 21.—The outlook on the gridiron for 1908 is not overly bright. This year there are many difficulties to contend with, in addition to the tendency of the "powers that be" to emasculate, if not wholly annihilate, the more vigorous sports, and Wisconsin has a hard fight on her hands this fall to make a showing. For two years, now, I have been fighting odds against a faculty and board of regents largely indifferent or hostile to athletics. The results of the fight are beginning to show. This year we place great hopes in T. A. Barry as football coach.
 The university authorities have restricted us to five games. This would have been considered a heavy schedule, with Indiana coming so early in the season, and Minnesota and Chicago as the last two games, even last spring when we expected that all of the team who did not graduate would be eligible to play this year. We have lost by graduation six of our best men, and a number of the remaining players have a single option to work off in their studies, which, if they do not pass the special examination, will bar them from the gridiron, according to the conference regulation regarding back work.
Some Players Poor Scholars.
 If many of the men are kept out of the game by scholastic ineligibility, it is doubtful if we can make a show which will be at all satisfactory. The freshman line last year was unusually light.

EAST SIDE HIGH TEAM RED HOT GOSSIP DOWNS ACADEMY MEN FOR RABID FANS

Wins First Game of Inter-scholastic League by 12 to 0 Score.

Two touchdowns and the resulting goals, one five minutes after the opening of the first half and the other five minutes before the end of the second half, gave the East Side High school first inter-scholastic league football victory yesterday, 12 to 0. East Side half yard leader made nine more on yesterday's victory over Portland academy was the first championship game which the East Side boys have won.
 It took but 5 minutes and 37 seconds, to be exact, for the East Siders to score their first touchdown. Big Elmer Leader recovered the kickoff and then by long, hard bucks through the tackles the ball was shoved over. Hale kicked off but his kick was short and to the left and Elmer Leader fell on it. Brazee made three yards around right tackle on his first trial and on the second try had gained eight yards, when he fumbled and a P. A. man fell on the ball. This was on the 18-yard line. P. A. instead of kicking as fans expected tried the forward pass, but Hale was waiting and took the ball on the 23-yard line. Jones made five and half yards. Leader made nine more on a tackle around tackle play and Cason went through right guard for five more. Jones on the next down advanced the ball to within two feet of the line and Cason was shoved over for a touchdown. Hale kicked the goal. Score: East Side 12, Portland academy 0.
 The rest of the half was played in P. A. territory and when the whistle blew the ball was in P. A.'s possession on the one-yard line. East Side worked the ball up to within striking distance several times, but three costly fumbles by Brazee and a couple of penalties kept them from scoring.
Plays Great Ball.
 With the possible exception of Barzee, the East Side team played a great ball in this first half. Their interference was good, Cornell ran the team very well, Cason showed himself to be a fine tryer and the line was holding beautifully. Barzee made several costly fumbles but showed very good form on the whole. His first fumble was due more to nervousness than anything else. Everest took Barzee's place soon after the opening of the first half and was a star from then on. Summers, who had been breaking up East Side plays quite regularly before this, was unable to get past Everest and when Cornell called upon him to carry the ball he was always good for from 6 to 12 yards. P. A. line shortly after the opening of the second half and an outside kick and two long bucks carried the ball to the center of the line, but East Side held and got the ball on down.
 Jones kicked out of danger. Moore was put in by P. A. at his stage of the game but on his first trial at carrying the ball Stannard nailed him for a yard. Jones kicked the ball and it went anything either and in trying a forward pass but two yards was made and the ball was in P. A. hands. East Side made a march down the field which for steadiness, length and speed has never been equaled in the inter-scholastic game before. With Jones, Cason and Everest alternately carrying the ball and at least four East Side men forming an almost perfect interference, East Side worked the ball almost to the P. A. line before they lost it.
 Everest led off with a six-yard gain. Jones made five yards, Everest another six, Ed Leader three yards, Cason four yards, Jones a long run of 12 yards around tackle, Everest seven, Leader made three again, Jones eight, Everest 5, Jones 3, Cason 2, Everest 8 yards. Cason eight in two downs, but with the ball on the three-yard line P. A. managed to stop the next play and took the ball. Cookingham punted out 45 yards only to have Cason run the punt in fully half that distance. Everest made six yards on the next play. Jones pulled by most of the East Side team went 11 yards and over the line. Some one had held in the line, however, and East Side was penalized 15 yards.
Academy Fauts.
 Hale then tried for a place kick but Moreland's pass was bad and Leonard blocked it. Hale tried a second time through guard, but on the next down the academy failed to gain an inch and was penalized 10 yards.
 Cornell again started the march down the field. Everest and Jones made 14 yards between them and Everest again tore off eight yards. Cason made yardage and Jones aided by almost perfect interference made 23 yards through the center of the P. A. team. Everest tore off eight yards around tackle and Cason made three yards better than yardage on the next play. With the ball on the eight-yard line, Everest was again called upon and made three yards. Jones made four yards to the one-yard line and Cason again carried the ball over. Hale kicked this goal, too. Time of Orleans, 104 (McBeth), out, second; Masetta, 105 (Otis), 2 to 4, third. Time, 1:15.

REAL AUTOMANIC IS A CALIFORNIAN

Santa Rosa Resident Will Incinerate Motor Car Night of Election.

Santa Rosa, Cal., Oct. 22.—"Automobiles to burn" is a literal expression with J. Luppold, a prominent business man of this city. Luppold has invited his friends to a bonfire on Main street on election night and has announced that his big red touring car will constitute the fuel for the celebration.
 Luppold declares that ill-luck has pursued him ever since he came into possession of the car and that he will dispose of the automobile and the hoodoo at the same time. He secured the automobile through attachment proceedings and declares that he has been relentlessly pursued by the hoodoo since that time.
 Every time he went for a ride in the machine something went wrong he says, and in other ways he was unfortunate. Business ventures failed him and he could not be certain that anything would come out right.
 Luppold has secured permission to build a bonfire on Main street the night of election to celebrate the election of Taft, he says. He announced today that when the fire was lit he would run his automobile on top of the pyre.

McFarland Puts It Over Leach Cross

(Clated Press Leased Wire.)
 New York, Oct. 22.—Packey McFarland, the Chicago lightweight, clearly demonstrated his superiority over Leach Cross, the idol of the East Side, last night and before the six rounds had passed had scored a knockout. McFarland had the better of the East Sider in every round but one, the fourth, when by a furious onslaught Cross put clearly the better man.
 Although there could be no decision under the law, McFarland showed clearly that he was the better man. Cross was looked upon as of championship material before last night. Now McFarland has convinced the spectators that he is the best light challenger to Bat Nelson's title of lightweight champion. There was considerable bad blood between McFarland and Cross, which resulted from posing for photographs yesterday afternoon. The fighters were demonstrating their blows and counters, when Cross swung a little too hard on McFarland's jaw. Packy sailed into the Gothamite and there would have been a regular old bare knuckle fight without rules had not friends parted the pair. Yesterday morning they went to the life out of Cross and started out to do it in the first round last night.
 Cross was willing to mix and they both raised their fists and began to box each other. In the third round Cross swung viciously with his left on McFarland's jaw and the latter stepped back with a fearful right to the jaw sent Cross to the floor for the count of six. In the fifth round Cross made McFarland's nose bleed, but in the sixth, Packy rained enough blows on the local man to make him stop. Cross staggered to his corner.

DEATH IS SUDDEN

Roseburg Man Drops Dead of Heart Failure.
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Roseburg, Or., Oct. 22.—W. H. Ollivant, a well-known resident of this city, dropped dead near Remote, Coos county, yesterday while looking over his timber claim. He and his son-in-law, J. M. Thorne, left here on Tuesday for Remote, and upon arriving stayed over night. Yesterday morning they went to the claim, a few miles distant. Later in the day they became tired and sat down on a log to rest. Mr. Ollivant was suddenly attacked with heart failure and fell over dead.
