

J. S. SHERMAN HELPED THE TRUSTS

Enlisted in the Service of Standard Oil He Led Fight for Exemption of Pipe Lines as Common Carriers.

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Chicago, Oct. 23.—Although William Randolph Hearst, who is acting in the interests of the Republican party for the election of its candidates, has not read any letters revealing the connection which James S. Sherman is said to have with the Standard Oil company, Mr. Sherman's service for that gigantic trust is plainly shown by his attitude upon the railroad rate bill passed by congress two years ago.

Mr. Sherman was one of the conferees on the part of the house, and led the fight to change the words "common carrier," which meant pipe lines as well as railroads, to "railroad company." He read, saw, and was a representative of Standard Oil interests, that to make all common carriers amenable to the law would be a serious blow to the Standard Oil company, which transports its product in its own pipe lines and refuses to accept the product of independent companies for transportation, thus exercising a complete monopoly in shipping oil.

Change of Words.

To change the words "common carrier" in the senate amendment to "railroad company" would protect the Standard Oil company from the Standard Oil bill of 1906. Sherman, in charge of the bill on behalf of the house, made an uncompromising fight for this demand of the Standard Oil company. It is stated that Senator Tillman, who had refused to sign the conference report, although he thought the bill might pass with its many favorable features, Mr. Tillman was obliged to accept the bill after conferring in the senate the Standard Oil provision. Mr. Tillman called attention to the fact that the change which Mr. Sherman was proposing would be in the interests of the Standard Oil company, and that that concern, hiding behind many so-called independent companies, which it is in fact controlled, was the source of the demand for the elimination of pipe lines as common carriers.

So skillful was Mr. Sherman's manipulation of the Standard Oil provision that both houses of congress were led to believe that the bill might pass. The entire matter is fully set forth in the Standard Oil bill, which plainly shows the victory which Mr. Sherman gained for the Standard Oil company.

NEW YORK IS THE TRUMP CARD IN GAME

York. While by no means abandoning this or Indiana and still believing there is a chance to save the former state, at least, it may be said the cardinal feature of the Republican strategy now on is to make sure of New York.

It is also the opinion of Mr. Wellman that the real battle will be fought in New York by a small plurality, but other men, equally conversant with the situation believe otherwise.

Mr. Wellman goes so far as to predict that a deal has been made with Tammany by which that organization is to trade its support of Bryan for the defeat of Hughes, thus ensuring its controllable vote for Taft in exchange for the defeat of Hughes. If such a combination has been made it will give the state to Taft, and give him the presidency. The count will still be against Bryan, but it is not so certain as it once was. The hot and heavy fighting has shifted from the western states to the industrial states east of Chicago. Here the labor vote is heavy and local conditions are abnormal and all working against the success of Mr. Taft.

Mr. Wellman says "is desperate fighting ground, with the chances, in my opinion, in Bryan's favor." Mr. Wellman goes so far as to say "Ohio, says Mr. Wellman, is desperate fighting ground, with the chances, in my opinion, in Bryan's favor. But if New York stands, Taft can easily win without Ohio and Indiana."

The closeness of the fight, and its uncertainty, is shown by the summary of the situation by Mr. Wellman when he says:

Republicans Know It.

No matter what the Republican leaders may say for publication, I happen to know that they are well aware of the closeness of the vote in many states. For example, they talk of 200,000 for Taft in Illinois. Their actual expectation is 100,000 in Wisconsin, but they really look for about 40,000. Iowa they really expect to lose. Kansas they really expect to lose. Kansas they admit is close, probably not more than 10,000. It is so uncertain that the Republicans who talk sense and drop rainbows chasing say they will win if they squeeze through with anything to the good.

"In the mountain states losses of electoral votes compared with four years ago are not so great. Colorado is uncertain. Wyoming is admittedly doubtful, with Taft having the best of it under the able leadership of Warren. Montana is probably for Bryan, although Senator Carter reports that he has a fighting chance and could surely win out if virtually all of the labor vote in Butte had not gone pell mell to Bryan. Carter says he can lose Butte by 5,000 and still save the state by 2,000. In other Republican are not so optimistic.

Miners for Bryan.

"Although the miners of Butte and surrounding region are pretty solid for Bryan, the Republicans have many a governor a man very popular among the miners, Ed Donlan, and that helps some. The general expectation is that Donlan is the only Republican on the ticket who will carry the state.

"Utah is Republican and Idaho also by reduced but safe pluralities. Nevada is fighting ground, the Republicans say, as Hearst has gone in there with his ticket, splitting up the Democratic vote and leaving a chance for the Taft electors to squeeze out a bare plurality. All these are inside facts at the Republican headquarters from confidential reports."

A like situation is set out in a summary of the presidential contest in the New York Herald of Sunday, October 18. In this article also New York is made the one great stumbling block to the party. The president-elect is mentioned on this situation the Herald says:

New York is Pivot.

"New York is to be the great center of the conflict at the very end of the campaign. Mr. Bryan, it is said, now realizes that he must have New York or he cannot be elected to the presidency. Judge Taft, it is understood, realizes that if he loses New York he will lose his own state of Ohio, a large number of states in the middle west, Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Rhode Island in the east and will be defeated.

"Conservative estimates as to the present outlook in New York are that the state is for Taft today by perhaps 50,000. This situation might possibly shift under the campaign. In the last few days of the campaign, because political sentiment in a campaign runs in waves and great political battles have been won and lost in a week's time."

An index of the closeness of the battle is the fact that the tabulated estimates of the standing of the states compiled by Mr. Wellman in Chicago, and by the Herald in New York, is practically the same. Wellman estimates that Taft must win 21 doubtful votes and Bryan 58 to be elected. The Herald estimates that Taft must win 55 and Bryan 51 to win.

Where They Differ.

There is a difference in the alignment of some states as estimated by the two writers. In the table of Wellman, Delaware, Kansas and South Dakota are counted for Taft. The Herald gives Kansas and South Dakota as doubtful with Republican leanings, and puts Delaware in the doubtful list. Wellman makes Michigan and West Virginia doubtful. The Herald makes them Republican. Wellman gives Indiana and Bryan, and West Virginia and the Herald makes Indiana doubtful with Republican leanings, and puts Maryland in the balance, ready to swing either way.

Wellman Gives Figures.

Mr. Wellman's table of the situation, showing the close race and possibility for either side, is as follows:

INDIGESTION

A Chelsea Woman Suggests a Course of Treatment.

How to Strengthen the Organs of Digestion and Really Cure the Disease.

There are plenty of remedies by which you can relieve the time heartburn, pain and gas on the stomach and can soothe nervous sensations and induce artificial sleep. But when you take your next meal all your troubles begin afresh.

Some people know that the strength which the weak stomach has for the lack of which the whole body is suffering, can be found surely and quickly in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a preparation known in medical circles as the greatest blood and nerve tonic. In hundreds of instances these pills have succeeded where every other remedy had failed, and in every case, the cure was radical.

Miss A. Gertrude Stewart of 442 Broadway, Chelsea, Mass., obtained no relief from indigestion until she tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Suffering from stomach trouble should profit by her experience. She says:

"I had suffered for years from indigestion and would be in bed for two or three weeks at a time. I tried nearly everything I could think of for relief but found none. There was a full feeling in my stomach and I had considerable gas on it. I had a ravenous appetite at times and then again cared for nothing. I was subject to severe nervous headaches and dizzy spells and was short of breath. I had very little color and was in very poor health."

"The doctor's prescriptions did not help me and I took a salt water trip thinking that might do me good. But as I got no relief I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I commenced to get better after taking a few boxes and could eat without the food distressing me. I took several boxes altogether and can eat anything I want now and am in good health."

Every dyspeptic should have a copy of our diet book, which is mailed free to any address. Send postal card request for a copy today. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Wellman says "inasmuch as 52 votes are required to elect we find that Taft needs 31 of the doubtful votes and Bryan 58. If Taft carries New York he will have enough and eight to spare. Should he lose New York it would still be possible for him to win, but to do so he must carry Ohio. If New York goes for Taft and Bryan carries all the remainder of the doubtful states the Democratic candidate will still be nine votes short."

Of the seven doubtful states it is my opinion that New York is well-nigh certain to elect we find that Taft's chances are better than Bryan's in West Virginia and Wyoming; that Bryan has the lead in Ohio, Colorado and Montana, and that Nebraska is trembling in the balance.

Estimates of Herald.

The estimate of the New York Herald, differing from Mr. Wellman's, but still showing the possibility of either Taft or Bryan being the victor is as follows:

Questions for Senator Fulton

You are campaigning in Oregon for Taft, Senator Fulton. Will you deny from the platform that you said in private conversation: "Taft is a weak sinner. He does not form an opinion until he learns what his master at the White House thinks?"

If "a weak sinner" who leans on others, how will Taft be able to get good measures through a congress controlled by Aldrich, Cannon and Foraker? Roosevelt could not do it. Is it not notorious that all the good measures Roosevelt urged were rejected by the last congress? If Roosevelt could not do it, how can Taft?

Since the senate is hopelessly trust controlled, and will so remain for the next four years, if not forever, would it not be definitely better for Bryan to be president? When the last congress spurned and hissed at all good measures urged by Roosevelt, was it not a mere row among Republicans? If Bryan instead of Roosevelt had been president, would it not have been a row between a trust congress and a Democratic president? Would that not have presented the issue squarely before the people and have given them at the ballot box a chance to vote for the side they deemed right? And, wouldn't the people have done it? And don't you everybody else know they would have done it, Senator Fulton?

Knowing it, and realizing the dilemma it presented, wouldn't congress have been compelled through fear of losing the election to pass at least a few good measures instead of none?

FRUIT COMMISSIONER RESIGNS SUDDENLY

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Salem, Oct. 23.—James H. Reid of Milwaukie, fruit commissioner for the First district, including Multnomah county, sent his resignation to Governor Chamberlain today. No reason is assigned for the action by Mr. Reid, who has made a satisfactory and efficient commissioner. The term of office would not have expired until March 22, 1910. The resignation has not yet been acted upon, and no successor is in view as yet.

Trying to Bribe Them.

From the Dallas Itemizer, It is an open secret that Salem member of the legislature was offered the postoffice at the capital city to go back on his avowed allegiance to Statement No. 1. Thus are politicians trying to defeat the will of the people and make their votes of no account. Can they find enough rascals among those the people selected to accomplish their end?

With coal at Scott's Mill, copper and gold in the Santiam hills and oil at Pratum, there is a great future before Marion county, says The Statesman.
