

TAFT MANAGERS BESEECH RE-PUBLICANS TO SEND MONEY TO SAVE THE DOUBTFUL STATES OF EAST— MONEY COMES SLOWLY.

National managers of the Taft campaign are panic stricken over conditions in the east, and have appealed, and are appealing, to Oregon men of means for Oregon gold to aid in saving the states of New York and Ohio for Taft. Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican national committee, has written scores of letters to Oregon men, telling them plainly that the situation in New York and Ohio, especially, is critical, and that unless strenuous efforts are put forth there is great danger of Bryan carrying both of these states and by so doing reaching the president's chair.

He is urging that the men of Oregon send funds to be used in the New York and Ohio campaigns, arguing that Oregon's large Republican majority makes it possible to do the aid of the cause in this, its time of dire and extreme need.

Mr. Henry W. Coe, appointed some time ago as the Oregon member of the national finance committee and entrusted with the task of raising money for the national campaign work, has opened headquarters in room 413 of the Fort Stevens hotel, where he is now busy directing the canvass of the city and the state for funds. A number of men are working under him, and he has an active canvass of the business houses of the city, the banks, corporations, manufacturing plants and the large interests as well as of the individual Republicans who may have money to give.

On his list of names are asking for any sum, no matter how small, though no limit is put on the offer. They are pleading that their need is imperative, and that their plea is bringing in but a little amount of coin.

Dr. Coe is the answer. It is to be sent to the national committee to be used where it is considered most needed.

That is in New York and Ohio, it was suggested.

How much has been collected up to this time? The doctor was asked, but he smiled at the question.

"I do not think that I want to discuss that question," he answered, "because it is hard, though we cannot get money from the corporations and the big business interests, and we do not want to give for the campaign, and the contributions are coming slowly."

When the Republicans first began to gather up a Taft fund for national use from Oregon sources, it was intended by the national committee to be raised in this state, together with other funds from other states, in the campaign in New York, Ohio and Indiana.

TAFT MANAGERS BESEECH RE-PUBLICANS TO SEND MONEY TO SAVE THE DOUBTFUL STATES OF EAST— MONEY COMES SLOWLY.

Evidence in the form of letters written by W. H. Smith, one of the defendants, and by John E. Miller and others, which the government agents may will have much to do with securing a conviction in the Pacific Furniture & Lumber company fraud case, were introduced in the federal court this morning by the prosecution to show that a conspiracy existed.

These letters had been written to broaden the net, and show that officials were endeavoring to induce to Curry county and locate on timber lands for the benefit of the company. Many other inside workings of the company were also brought out by means of these letters. The letters were taken by the government representatives at the time the Pacific Furniture & Lumber company got into trouble because of the fact that more money could not be raised to carry on the operations.

Hundreds of pages of written statements and letters have been introduced as evidence against the five men on trial—Smith, Hyman, Myers, Haddery and Kline.

Although the prosecution expected to finish up this morning it did not do so and court adjourned at noon until Monday. The government expects to introduce evidence against the five men on trial—Smith, Hyman, Myers, Haddery and Kline.

The government will probably finish by Monday noon when the defense will present its case. This will probably require two or three days.

He is urging that the men of Oregon send funds to be used in the New York and Ohio campaigns, arguing that Oregon's large Republican majority makes it possible to do the aid of the cause in this, its time of dire and extreme need.

Mr. Henry W. Coe, appointed some time ago as the Oregon member of the national finance committee and entrusted with the task of raising money for the national campaign work, has opened headquarters in room 413 of the Fort Stevens hotel, where he is now busy directing the canvass of the city and the state for funds.

On his list of names are asking for any sum, no matter how small, though no limit is put on the offer. They are pleading that their need is imperative, and that their plea is bringing in but a little amount of coin.

Dr. Coe is the answer. It is to be sent to the national committee to be used where it is considered most needed.

ST. JOHNS CASE POLICE BOARD MAKES NO CLUE IS FOUND IN THE FILES VACANCIES IN THE COMMITTEES OF ADVISORY BUTTERWORTH MURDER MYSTERY.

The sheriff's office and the St. Johns police are absolutely up in the air as to the identity of the murderer of Harry T. Butterworth. They haven't even a clew to work on that promise of St. Johns, found a suit case there yesterday, and has been trying to connect with the murderer of Butterworth. The sheriff's office says there is no reason to believe that the suit case belongs to the man who killed Butterworth.

The suit case was found on the dock early Wednesday morning by workmen of the mill, but they thought it belonged to some one connected with the plant, and left it there until that night when it was taken to the mill. Yesterday it was turned over to Chief of Police Joe Green.

Deputy Sheriff Leonard went to St. Johns yesterday to look into the matter of the suit case, but, after investigation, he dismissed it from his calculations.

Apparently every boy in St. Johns is trying to bring into print by claiming to have seen the man who committed the murder. One boy yesterday claimed to have seen the man struggling in front of the Butterworth residence Tuesday night, but investigation disclosed the fact that it was another boy of imagination. The boy's mother said that at the time he said he had seen the struggling man he was sound asleep in his bed, and could not possibly be in the house that night.

A man named Douglas, who claimed to have seen the man who committed the murder, was taken over to Vancouver, where he is being kept in the St. Johns police station. Douglas is a small chance that he will ever be caught, unless he gets drunk some day and boasts of his crime, as some times happens.

A coroner's inquest was held this morning over the body of Harry T. Butterworth. The inquest was held at the residence of the deceased, and a number of people attended the services.

The funeral of the murdered man was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of the deceased, and a number of people attended the services.

The funeral of the murdered man was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of the deceased, and a number of people attended the services.

The funeral of the murdered man was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of the deceased, and a number of people attended the services.

REBUKES CITIZENS FOR NEGLECT OF DUTY

Edward L. Hyman, a real estate agent, came to the county clerk's office this morning with a well developed grouch. He had received notice that his name was on the list of voters for the election in the registration books, and he was requested to come and correct it.

This is a lot of trouble to me, having to come here a second time, I'm busy," he growled.

County Clerk Fields, who was waiting on him, took this implied rebuke with considerable meekness until he saw from Hyman's card that the young man had waited until October 20, the last day of registration.

Hyman was advised that some other people were busy about the time he registered, and that it came with poor grace for anyone to complain about a mistake when he had waited until the last day, when the clerks were overworked and almost swamped by tardy voters.

Mr. Hyman, who lives at 509 1/2 Oregon street, is a man of a less militant fashion than he entered. Then the clerks who viewed the scene glanced at each other and said under their breath, "Gee, the boss is mad."

More homeseekers are bound for the Pacific Northwest than for any other part of the country, according to John M. Scott, assistant general passenger agent of the Harriman lines in Oregon. Mr. Scott has just returned from an extended trip through the Middle West.

Emigration to the West is not as heavy as last season," said Mr. Scott, "but it is picking up, and after election will be as heavy as ever, I think."

While in attendance upon the Transcontinental Passenger association meeting in Chicago, Mr. Scott secured the 350 round trip rate for Portland next summer. This rate will go into effect on or about June 1, and will be in time to benefit the Rose Festival in June.

Plans have been completed by the Southern Pacific for the operation of a special limited Pullman train excursion from Portland to the City of Mexico the coming winter. The train will consist of vestibule sleepers, observation sleeper, buffet smoking car, and dining car, and will be in operation on December 15.

TAFT MANAGERS BESEECH RE-PUBLICANS TO SEND MONEY TO SAVE THE DOUBTFUL STATES OF EAST— MONEY COMES SLOWLY.

Denver Judge Orders Colorado's Secretary of State Jailed Unless He Certifies the Anti-Guggenheim Ticket.

Denver, Oct. 24.—District Judge Allen today declared Secretary of State Timothy O'Connor, a Republican, to be in contempt of court and ordered him confined in jail until he agrees to certify the so-called anti-Guggenheim ticket.

The candidates on the ticket are Republicans but they are hostile to the control of the party in the state by Senator Guggenheim and are making a desperate fight to dislodge the smelting king from power.

Judge Allen also ordered County Clerk Smiley, a Republican, to place the anti-Guggenheim ticket on the official ballot whether it is certified by the secretary of state or not.

The judge ordered the state printers to put the ticket on the ballot under penalty of being declared in contempt and thrown into jail.

Joseph Baumgarten, a young farmer of Tillamook, went up against the "American Watch company" yesterday. He is $34 loose in consequence of a watch which he bought at the corner of Winona street and Clarendon avenue, and A. W. Hepburn is in jail, charged with swindling him.

According to reports from Lakeview in southern Oregon, W. F. Nelson, head of the Oregon Trunk Line, who with a party of eastern capitalists, made the trip from The Dalles to Lakeview in an automobile over the proposed route of the trunk line, has gone further south to the Pit river valley to consider it as an outlet for central Oregon into the Sacramento valley.

PORTLAND HUMAN IS LEFT $50,000

Colonel Robert A. Miller leaves this afternoon for Hillsboro, where he will be the principal speaker at a Bryan and Kern rally to be held tonight under the auspices of the local Bryan and Kern club. It is expected that the meeting will be a large and successful one.

Colonel Miller has just returned from a trip up the Willamette valley, on the way back during which he spoke at a Bryan and Kern meeting at Astoria. At Corvallis his meeting was larger and more successful than the one held at the Taft club.

Colonel Miller predicts that the vote will be a big surprise to the Republicans.

Colonel Miller predicts that the vote will be a big surprise to the Republicans.

Colonel Miller predicts that the vote will be a big surprise to the Republicans.

Colonel Miller predicts that the vote will be a big surprise to the Republicans.

Colonel Miller predicts that the vote will be a big surprise to the Republicans.

WARRIOR HAD A MARSHAL'S BADGE THAT MADE HIS CHECKS SEEM GOOD

J. J. Vajr, alias W. B. Price, said to be a bad check man, arrested by the police yesterday on suspicion of having tried to get money on worthless paper, and whose case is now before the grand jury, is to be arrested by the United States authorities on a charge of impersonating an officer, in the event that he is liberated of the charge preferred against him by the state.

Vajr goes by the name of Price in Portland and has been in this vicinity some time. He is now in the city jail pending the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

TROOPS FOLLOW HIM INTO THE LAWLESS REGION TO BE A BODYGUARD.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 24.—A hundred soldiers are rushing, this afternoon, to Sanbury in the heart of the Night Rider district to protect the life of Governor Patterson, who has been threatened with death unless he discontinues the investigation into the murder of Captain Rankin and the attempt to kill Taylor. Governor Patterson is at Walnut Log investigating the stories of suspects who are under arrest and declares that he will not cease until he has been killed or every guilty man has been punished.

At Sanbury squads of soldiers with lists of men they are to arrest are patrolling the country.

Hitchcock will conclude his work in Chicago tomorrow and go to New York where he will remain until after election.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Chairman Frank Hitchcock, of the Republican national committee, today predicted that Taft would beat Bryan this year, as badly as Roosevelt beat Parker in 1904.

He declared that on his return to New York next week he would compile tables showing his prediction, based on reports handed in this morning there was an address by Rev. J. H. Leiber of the North Carolina association, who contended that without a Sabbath there would be no Christianity and that all regard for the religion would be lost.

The Columbia Methodist conference in session at the Church of the Strangers on Grand Avenue will come to a close tonight. The conference reports handed in this morning there was an address by Rev. J. H. Leiber of the North Carolina association, who contended that without a Sabbath there would be no Christianity and that all regard for the religion would be lost.

The Columbia Methodist conference in session at the Church of the Strangers on Grand Avenue will come to a close tonight. The conference reports handed in this morning there was an address by Rev. J. H. Leiber of the North Carolina association, who contended that without a Sabbath there would be no Christianity and that all regard for the religion would be lost.

REBUKES CITIZENS FOR NEGLECT OF DUTY

Edward L. Hyman, a real estate agent, came to the county clerk's office this morning with a well developed grouch. He had received notice that his name was on the list of voters for the election in the registration books, and he was requested to come and correct it.

This is a lot of trouble to me, having to come here a second time, I'm busy," he growled.

County Clerk Fields, who was waiting on him, took this implied rebuke with considerable meekness until he saw from Hyman's card that the young man had waited until October 20, the last day of registration.

Hyman was advised that some other people were busy about the time he registered, and that it came with poor grace for anyone to complain about a mistake when he had waited until the last day, when the clerks were overworked and almost swamped by tardy voters.

Mr. Hyman, who lives at 509 1/2 Oregon street, is a man of a less militant fashion than he entered. Then the clerks who viewed the scene glanced at each other and said under their breath, "Gee, the boss is mad."

More homeseekers are bound for the Pacific Northwest than for any other part of the country, according to John M. Scott, assistant general passenger agent of the Harriman lines in Oregon. Mr. Scott has just returned from an extended trip through the Middle West.

Emigration to the West is not as heavy as last season," said Mr. Scott, "but it is picking up, and after election will be as heavy as ever, I think."

WARRIOR HAD A MARSHAL'S BADGE THAT MADE HIS CHECKS SEEM GOOD

J. J. Vajr, alias W. B. Price, said to be a bad check man, arrested by the police yesterday on suspicion of having tried to get money on worthless paper, and whose case is now before the grand jury, is to be arrested by the United States authorities on a charge of impersonating an officer, in the event that he is liberated of the charge preferred against him by the state.

Vajr goes by the name of Price in Portland and has been in this vicinity some time. He is now in the city jail pending the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

WARRIOR HAD A MARSHAL'S BADGE THAT MADE HIS CHECKS SEEM GOOD

J. J. Vajr, alias W. B. Price, said to be a bad check man, arrested by the police yesterday on suspicion of having tried to get money on worthless paper, and whose case is now before the grand jury, is to be arrested by the United States authorities on a charge of impersonating an officer, in the event that he is liberated of the charge preferred against him by the state.

Vajr goes by the name of Price in Portland and has been in this vicinity some time. He is now in the city jail pending the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

WARRIOR HAD A MARSHAL'S BADGE THAT MADE HIS CHECKS SEEM GOOD

J. J. Vajr, alias W. B. Price, said to be a bad check man, arrested by the police yesterday on suspicion of having tried to get money on worthless paper, and whose case is now before the grand jury, is to be arrested by the United States authorities on a charge of impersonating an officer, in the event that he is liberated of the charge preferred against him by the state.

Vajr goes by the name of Price in Portland and has been in this vicinity some time. He is now in the city jail pending the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

WARRIOR HAD A MARSHAL'S BADGE THAT MADE HIS CHECKS SEEM GOOD

J. J. Vajr, alias W. B. Price, said to be a bad check man, arrested by the police yesterday on suspicion of having tried to get money on worthless paper, and whose case is now before the grand jury, is to be arrested by the United States authorities on a charge of impersonating an officer, in the event that he is liberated of the charge preferred against him by the state.

Vajr goes by the name of Price in Portland and has been in this vicinity some time. He is now in the city jail pending the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

WARRIOR HAD A MARSHAL'S BADGE THAT MADE HIS CHECKS SEEM GOOD

J. J. Vajr, alias W. B. Price, said to be a bad check man, arrested by the police yesterday on suspicion of having tried to get money on worthless paper, and whose case is now before the grand jury, is to be arrested by the United States authorities on a charge of impersonating an officer, in the event that he is liberated of the charge preferred against him by the state.

Vajr goes by the name of Price in Portland and has been in this vicinity some time. He is now in the city jail pending the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

WARRIOR HAD A MARSHAL'S BADGE THAT MADE HIS CHECKS SEEM GOOD

J. J. Vajr, alias W. B. Price, said to be a bad check man, arrested by the police yesterday on suspicion of having tried to get money on worthless paper, and whose case is now before the grand jury, is to be arrested by the United States authorities on a charge of impersonating an officer, in the event that he is liberated of the charge preferred against him by the state.

Vajr goes by the name of Price in Portland and has been in this vicinity some time. He is now in the city jail pending the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

WARRIOR HAD A MARSHAL'S BADGE THAT MADE HIS CHECKS SEEM GOOD

J. J. Vajr, alias W. B. Price, said to be a bad check man, arrested by the police yesterday on suspicion of having tried to get money on worthless paper, and whose case is now before the grand jury, is to be arrested by the United States authorities on a charge of impersonating an officer, in the event that he is liberated of the charge preferred against him by the state.

Vajr goes by the name of Price in Portland and has been in this vicinity some time. He is now in the city jail pending the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.

Representing himself as J. J. Price, a United States marshal, the Vajr secured the outcome of the investigation before the grand jury. A complaint against Vajr, alias Price, was drawn up by Assistant United States District Attorney Walter H. Evans this morning.