The beautiful home of Mrs. J. N. Brown at 1014 Thurman street was the scene of a large reception Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5 with Mrs. Lena Ervin Allen as honor guest.

Mrs. Allen is president of the Washington State Federation of Women's clubs and hostess for the state of Washington at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. She was charming in a gown of violet in one of the newest directoire effects. The hostess was assisted in receiving in the drawing-room by Mrs. A. J. Stiles and Mrs. J. Coulson Hare. Serving in the dining-room were Mrs. Merwin Pugh, Mrs. Stouser and Mrs. Z. M. Parvin, mother of the hostess. Little Isabel Stouser opened the door.

About 150 guests attended, among those prominent being Mrs. Lutke, president of the Portland Women's club; Mrs. S. J. Evans, president of the Oregon State Federation of Women's clubs, and Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway. In pleasing contrast to the usual decorations of flowers, Mrs. Brown's home was beautifully decorated in her own hand painting. Every one admired particularly the paneled dining-room, which was done in woodland scenes. The studio also was thrown open to the guests.

Mrs. Allen, who comes from Spokane, was formerly an Oregon girl and is a graduate of Willamette university. Lately she has been prominently identified in the state of Washington and is now en route to Seattle, where she will take up the plans for the building for women's clubs in that city.

OUT-OF-TOWN ITEMS

Captain William Splawn, pioneer and Indian fighter, has just returned to North Yakima from a trip to Spokane and has brought with him a bride. Miss May Loudon of Loomis, Wash. The news was a complete surprise to his friends. Mr. Splawn came to the northwest in 1852, coming across the plains from his home in Missouri. He led the band of Yakima volunteers into the Chief Moses country in 1858, and brought about the complete subjugation of that warrior and his followers. Mr. Splawn was identified with stock interests in the early days, preempting a quarter section in the Parker Bottom district in 1864. Later he bought his present ranch nearer North Yakima, and he there makes his home. He has always been closely associated with the reclamation development of this section.

Three of a Kind.

Not many days ago two men who had dined not wisely but too well boarded a Market street car at Broad street.

The car started with a very violent suddenness—so violent that the two cheery gentlemen were thrown off their balance, landing in a heap on top of a very solemn gentleman on one of the seats. This individual had been in the car for some time, and had preserved an austere solemnity of demeanor that was most impressive.

At once the two men who had lost their balance became profuse in their apologies to the solemn one.

"Oh, 'm shoshorry—please 'scuse me," requested one.

"Begardon — couldn't — hic — help myself," said the other.

The solemn gentleman, who had listened with magisterial severity, now opened his mouth in turn and remarked benignly:

"Oh, thashallright. Car shtarted like—hic—rocket—thashallright."

For a moment they looked at him dazed; then their expressions changed to delighted surprise. In him they had recognized a brother.

And when they got off a few blocks further on their party consisted of three.

How to Brown Hair Without Detection

Mrs. Potter's Walnut-Juice Hair Stain Can Be Applied in a Few Minutes Every Month.

There is a way of staining gray faded or bleached hair any shade desired, from a beautiful rich brown to almost black, so that it is difficult, if not impossible, for even experts to detect that the hair has been treated in any way.

This preparation has the tremendous advantage over hair-dyes of containing no silver, sulphur, lead or other poisons which invariably cause hair-falling. It has no odor, no oil, no sediment and no grease, and does not rub off on the clothing. It makes the hair grow out fluffy and luxuriant.

A liberal amount as a laboratory trial package of this walnut-juice hair-stain, together with a booklet on hair, is sent by Mrs. Potter's Hygienic Supply Co., 642 Groton bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio, in plain, sealed wrapper, if you will send 25 cents in stamps or coin, and if it is desired to continue the treatment, full sized packages may be obtained at drug stores for $1 a package.

It is applied in a few moments with the comb, and it stains nothing but the hair, and stains it evenly from tip to root. It produces any shade desired from a beautiful rich brown to almost black.

One bottle of this walnut-juice hair-stain can last a year.

Mrs. Potter's Walnut-Juice Hair Stain is recommended and for sale in Portland by Woodward, Clark Drug Co., wholesalers and retailers; Eyssell's Pharmacy, 289 Morrison street; S. G. Skidmore & Co., 161 Third street; Blumauer Frank Drug Co., wholesalers, 142 Fourth street.
