

LAURIER'S FORECAST OF COMING WEEK Chief Event Political Tug of War in New York—The World at Large.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Washington, Oct. 26.—The last week of the presidential campaign will see a great display of activity all along the line. That New York is regarded as the pivotal state is evidenced by the fact that both parties have decided to concentrate their greatest efforts there in the windup of the campaign.

Mr. Bryan is expected to make nine speeches in New York city during his visit there today, concluding the day by speaking at the Waldorf Astoria in Madison Square Garden. He will speak in Brooklyn Tuesday, in Albany Wednesday, and in Buffalo Friday. From Buffalo he will jump to Chicago to close the campaign that city with a speech Saturday night.

The activity of the Republicans in New York during the week promises to be even greater than that of the Democrats. With the exception of today, when he will swing through Connecticut, Mr. Taft will devote the entire week to New York. He will make a trip that will carry him over the greater part of the state Wednesday night, as he is to speak in New York city in company with Governor Hughes. Other Republican campaign orators who will stump New York during the week include Vice-President Fairbanks, Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan, Secretary Root and Secretary of War Wood.

Canada will elect a new parliament. Though brief, the campaign has been very animated. The Laurier administration has been subjected to severe criticism, chiefly directed against its railway policy, as recklessly wasteful of public money. It is also charged that the public funds have been misused and the civil service prostituted to build up a great Liberal party machine. These constitute the principal ammunition of the Conservatives. The Liberals base their claim to support upon the great commercial and industrial progress under their administration.

Outside the realm of politics, the events of the week that attract attention will include the reception of the American battleship fleet at Amoy, China, the celebration of the fifth anniversary of the birthday of President Roosevelt, the unveiling of a monument to ex-President Benjamin Harrison at Indianapolis, the annual convention of the miners of the Pittsburgh district, and the meeting of the Peruvian parliament for its initial session.

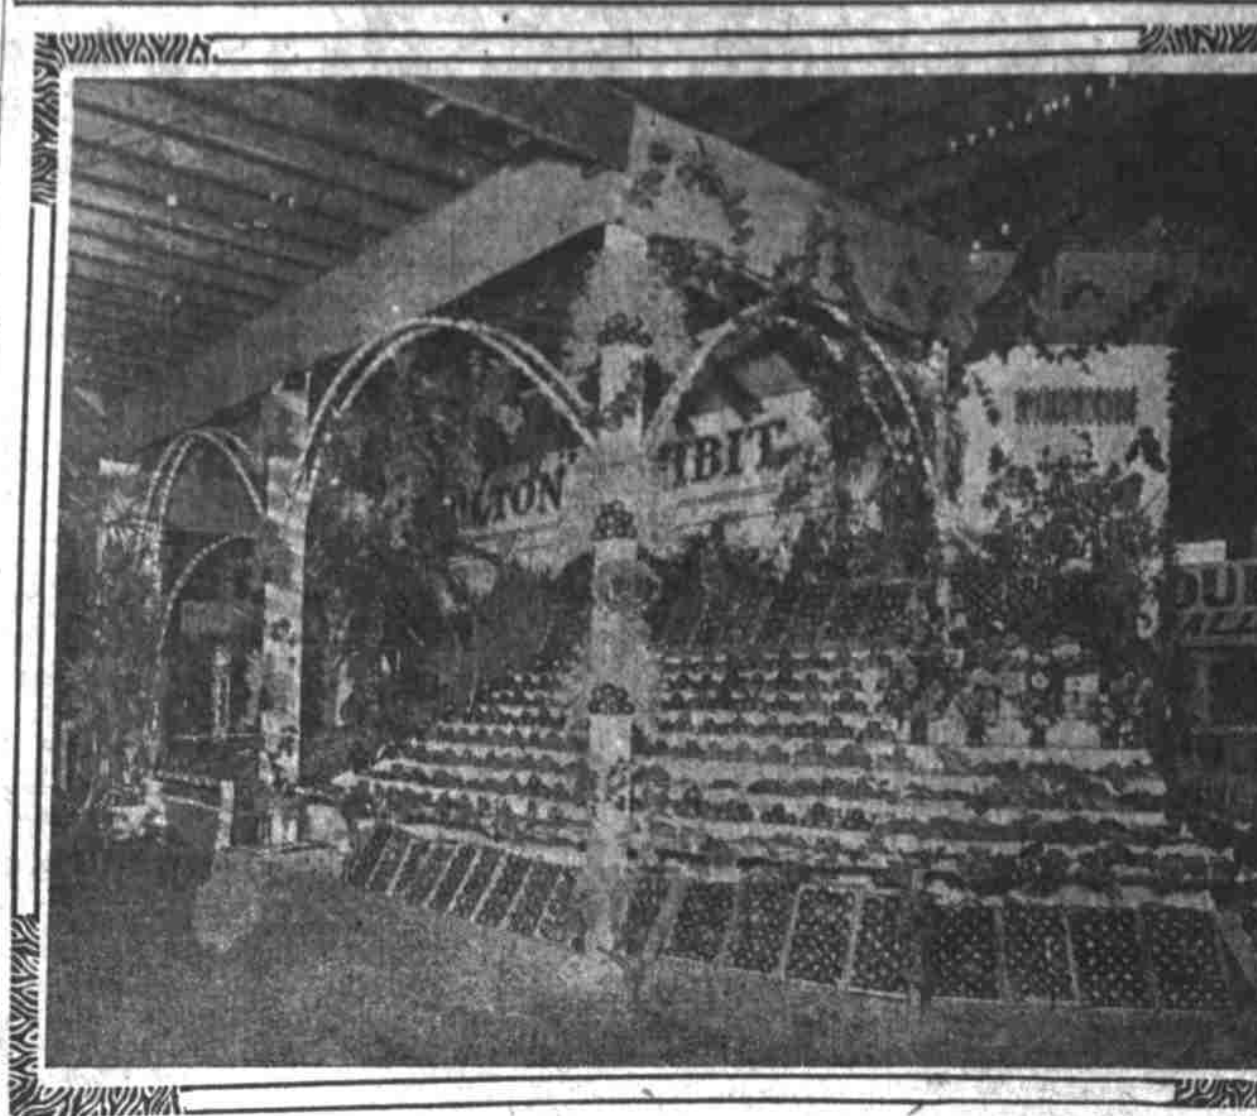

Liberals hope at the best that they will be returned to power with a much reduced majority, while the Conservatives claim that Ontario will repeat the majority just given Mr. Whitney. New Brunswick and Nova Scotia are expected to return more Conservatives than in any other former provinces. In the support of the Hazen government.

British Columbia, Manitoba and the Northwest Territories are expected to remain in the hands of the Liberal majority to defeat Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The last parliament was composed of 214 members, but owing to the increase in the number of members of the Dominion the next parliament will comprise 231 members, as follows: Ontario 85, Quebec 55, New Brunswick 12, Prince Edward Island 4, Manitoba 10, Saskatchewan 10, Alberta 7, British Columbia 7, and the Yukon 1.

Members of parliament on the Liberal side have been warring on the spoils of office, and scandal after scandal has occurred in connection with dredging contracts, bridge-building, and with the building of the Grand Trunk Pacific. Government lands have also been sold to favorites, and many friends of the government, and in all parts of the Dominion, having in nearly every province the active support of the clergy.

British Columbia, Manitoba and the Northwest Territories are expected to remain in the hands of the Liberal majority to defeat Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The last parliament was composed of 214 members, but owing to the increase in the number of members of the Dominion the next parliament will comprise 231 members, as follows: Ontario 85, Quebec 55, New Brunswick 12, Prince Edward Island 4, Manitoba 10, Saskatchewan 10, Alberta 7, British Columbia 7, and the Yukon 1.

AN EASTERN OREGON EXHIBIT

Here is a Milton, Oregon, Display That Shows What the Section Can Do.

Of the many fine exhibits at the recent Walla Walla fair, that of Milton, Or., was among the foremost. Though the first prize went to Freewater, Or., the rival sister of Milton, it can be seen by this picture that Freewater's exhibit must have been "a peach."

DEFENSE ASKS FOR DISMISSAL HEILIG AUDIENCE HEARTILY ENJOYS GOOD, OLD COMEDY "THE RIVALS"

By J. F. S. An audience of people somewhat overawed by their reverence for the classics and not quite determined whether it would be proper to laugh or not, greeted the Jeffersons in "The Rivals" at the Heilig last night. It would be more correct to say, perhaps, that they greeted William W. Jefferson, for it is still Jefferson and not the Jeffersons. William W. in his father's role of "Bob Acres" is an actor. Sheridan's character drawing, while extraordinarily good and entertaining, is nevertheless along lines that are well understood by the ordinarily intelligent actor. He is not called upon to create something entirely outside of his library of what's what.

PORTLAND SINGERS RETURN AFTER TWO YEARS IN EUROPE

Miss E. A. Beals, wife of District Forecaster Beals, of the weather bureau, and Miss Nancy Beals are back from Europe. They returned yesterday after nearly two years' absence. Accompanying them was Miss Katherine H. Bancker, of Michigan, who has spent the past three years in Europe studying music. Having learned from Mrs. and Miss Beals that Portland's weather is about ideal, Miss Bancker here with the intention of spending the winter.

SPOKANE BUNGO MEN MAKE PLAY FOR OREGONIAN AND GET THE HA HA

It isn't often that a professional bunco-artist mistakes when he sizes up his victim and if he does he never tells anyone, so they seldom break into print but the smooth tongued, friendly film-film "mining operator" tackled Colonel A. W. Miller in Spokane about two weeks ago. He learned a little lesson that he will not forget for a few moons, and it didn't take the assistance of any police department either.

PENDLETON BUSINESS MEN INTERESTED WILL HOLD MEETING TODAY. Mrs. Noyes Says She Wrote Other Man Love Letters for Fun.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., Oct. 26.—For the purpose of taking such action as would be deemed wise for the purchase and operation of the woolen mill, G. M. Miles, chairman of the Commercial Association committee, has called a meeting to be held in the rooms of the association this afternoon.

Mrs. Josephine Noyes wrote loving letters to George Soliers, and when her husband, who failed to appreciate the joke, "pestered and tantalized her" about Mr. Soliers, she told him she loved George, sure enough. This is the explanation given by Mrs. Noyes in an answer to the divorce suit begun by her husband, Albert J. Noyes, last week.

SUES FOR COMMISSION ON BIG LAND DEAL

Suit to recover $2,200 for a commission alleged to have been earned in the state of Oregon by D. N. Donaldson against Frank C. Bolin, McDonald says that he knew of the location of a large tract of government land, and was employed by Bolin to point out the tract. He was to be paid $5 an acre for all the land Bolin selected. Bolin and others have refused to pay the commission, and McDonald wants pay at the rate of $5 per acre. He says the land is worth $24,000.

TAFT PREDICTS BRYAN PANIC

(United Press Leased Wire.) New Haven, Conn., Oct. 26.—Asserting that the election of Bryan means a panic, William H. Taft delivered three addresses in this state today. The Yale club met the candidate at the station here, and though it was raining there was a big parade to the armory. Taft, without an umbrella and dressed in a suit of heavy material, carried parade along the streets. The rain poured down on his head and at times blinded him.

DEFENDANT MUST PAY COST OR LOSE CASE

Because George W. Beaver failed to appear in the state court for the trial of a suit in which he is defendant, Judge Morrow ordered that he pay the cost of the trial within 15 days. If he fails to do so the plaintiff will be given default against him. In the meantime the case is continued.

WHISKEY FOR LAME BACK

The increased use of whiskey for lame back rheumatism is causing considerable discussion among the medical fraternity. It is an almost infallible cure when mixed with certain other ingredients and taken properly. The following formula for the cure is one half pint of good whiskey and one ounce of Toris Compound and one ounce of Bryar Bark and one ounce of Stearns' Compound before each meal and before retiring.

Scott's Emulsion

clothes the nerves and muscles with warm fat, fills the veins with rich blood. It makes children rugged and hardy and fearless of the cold. It fills the whole body with warmth and life and energy. Thin people sometimes gain a pound a day while taking it.

W. B. CHASE DIES AT THE HOSPITAL. William B. Chase, former city engineer, died this morning at the Good Samaritan hospital, after a long illness that had lasted since February.

ALASKA MINERS FACE A WAGE CUT. Seattle, Wash., Oct. 24.—C. E. Mahoney, vice-president of the Western Federation of Miners, has returned from an official trip through Alaska and he said today that the miners in that state are most anxious to protect themselves and resist a cut in wages.

There's a Reason "It Builds the Brain" Grape-Nuts. Eat Grape-Nuts. "It Builds the Brain" There's a Reason.