

THE JOURNAL

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER. PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING (except Sunday) at 1000 Broadway, New York, N. Y. Entered as second-class matter.

Foreign Advertising Representative: The Journal, 113 Division Street, Chicago, Ill.

Circulation Guarantee: This certifies that the circulation of the Oregon Journal is as stated in the copy of the advertiser's circulation statement...

No man doth safely rule, but he that hath learned gladly to obey.—Thomas A. Kempis.

WHITHER ARE WE DRIFTING?

WHITHER are we drifting? Is not the portent of passing events sufficient to give men pause? Was it not enough when the revelations by Hearst showed that Standard Oil had paid Senator Foraker $50,000 to kill in the United States senate, bills objectionable to that corporation...

Small Change

Smash the calamity howler. Let us have peace and prosperity. Only a week more of campaigning. Right after election, build good roads. The average straw vote is of little value.

JAMES S. SHERMAN TACITLY ENDORSES SAVAGE DENUNCIATION OF UNION LABOR

While William H. Taft is traveling about Ohio and elsewhere making frantic appeals for the support of laboring men, his running mate on the Republican ticket, James S. Sherman, is giving his endorsement to the statement that "labor unions are composed largely of anarchists, socialists and demagogues."

The REAL FEMININE

Buy a Tag? Let friends of the Baby Home, as well as those new comers among us who are not acquainted with the representative men and women who stand behind it and its splendid history for 20 years, are expected to show their loyalty...

AN ANALOGOUS CASE

IN 1882 President Arthur, an expert politician of New York, attempted to boss the politics of that state, and forced the nomination by the Republicans of Secretary of the Treasury Folger for governor. The people resented this interference by a president, and Folger, though an able, worthy and popular man, was beaten by Grover Cleveland by over 190,000 majority.

THE WORKINGMAN AND HIS COUNTRY

PORTLAND workingman writes The Journal as follows: Looking at the political situation from the viewpoint of a non-partisan, and having read the papers of the two leading political parties of the country, I am still somewhat at a loss where to place that decisive cross mark on the ballot on November 3.

Bank Guaranty Plan Emphatically Endorsed by Lyman J. Gage, Ex-Secretary of the Treasury

The proposition to guarantee bank deposits which is advocated in the Democratic platform is not without support from eminent Republican authority. Reference to the hearings held before the house committee on banking and currency shows that the plan of guaranteeing bank deposits is not only endorsed by so high a Republican financier as the Hon. Lyman J. Gage, ex-secretary of the treasury, and ex-president of the New York university school of commerce...

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

What the Banks Will Do. Portland, Oct. 24.—To the Editor of The Journal.—Let us imagine that the Bryan deposit guarantee became a law. What then would happen? The great city banks of Portland would be guaranteed the deposits of the bank of Bust & Skip. Surely, and what of it?

Oregon Sidelights

Two cement warehouses will be built in Eugene. Some days ago snow was sixteen inches deep at Crater Lake. A free employment bureau has been established at The Dalles. J. D. Carroll of Union is 90 years old, but is as spry as a man of 60.

THE DAILY MENU

BREAKFAST. Cereal with cream. Hot fried apples. Sausage. Whole wheat gems. Coffee. LUNCH. Sweetbreads with mushrooms. Celery and cauliflower salad. Cranberry sauce. Gingersnaps. Tea. DINNER. Lemon and egg soup. Broiled flank steak. Creamed cauliflower. Baked stuffed tomatoes. Lettuce with French dressing. Cheese wafers. Pumpkin pie. Coffee.

WE MAY LEARN FROM CANADA.

THEY DO some things in Canada better than we do. One is the administration of justice in the courts, especially in criminal cases. Another is in the conservation of dominion resources. There railroads and other corporations have not been permitted to obtain possession of great areas of valuable timber lands and other public lands for little or nothing, nor of water power rights that will become very valuable.

A PLAIN REPUBLICAN CLAIM.

VICE-PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS made a speech in New Jersey recently in which he very naively and candidly stated the Republican position. "Republican policies," he said, "brought prosperity to the country, and the abuse of this prosperity brought panic." This much we are used to, but Mr. Fairbanks went on to say: "The Republican party accepts the responsibility for the creation of prosperous conditions; it cannot be charged with accountability for the abuse of prosperity."

Reform Measures in Danger.

Sumpter, Or., Oct. 23.—To the Editor of The Journal.—There is a deep-laid and cunningly-devised scheme among the machine politicians of Oregon, to carry the state for Taft by frantically appealing to party loyalty. The Hon. Mark Hanna has been successful in accomplishing the endorsement of Taft at the polls, they intend to construct it by that prestige so gained, and by the powerful influence of the Portland Oregonian, they will be exerting on the next legislature for the purpose of repealing and nullifying all the reform legislation now on our statute books in relation to the choice and election of our public officials.

Relief in Bryan's Success.

Portland, Oct. 24.—To the Editor of The Journal.—We, the common people, are occasionally allowed to gaze for a moment into the mysteries of lawmaking, as in the case of Hon. J. B. Foraker, and we are constantly ever and anon reminded that we should "obey the laws," many of them as unjust as can be imagined: for instance, the taxing of all the people to maintain colleges, while many thousands of those from whom the money is extorted could never expect any benefit. Their children are sent to these colleges, and after a few months' school only can be maintained, and are placed at a disadvantage, but it is not the money that is the trouble. The beneficiaries say, "Let the good work go on."

No More "Moral Obligations."

From the New York World. What would Quay or Brice, Whitney or Hanna have thought of a national committee that made public its campaign contributions either before or after election? The old regime has passed. There is no need of an order of the day.

Copyright 1911 by The Journal, Portland, Ore. Printed and Published by the Journal Publishing Co., 1000 Broadway, New York, N. Y.