GRANTS PASS REFUSES TO BUY ROGUE RIVER WATER PLANT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Grants Pass, Or., Oct. 24.—The question whether or not Grants Pass, as a municipality, should purchase and operate the plant of the Rogue River Water & Power company was turned down by a heavy majority at a special election yesterday. The question at issue was not so much one of municipal ownership as of the advisability of the city's buying an old and worn-out water plant. For a number of years the water service as given by the Rogue River company has been the cause of continual complaint. Last fall the owner of the plant, Fred Morris of Portland offered it to the city for $110,000. The company's engineer, Mr. Chase, made a report and represented the plant to be worth $120,000. The city employed an engineer, and his report gave the worth of the plant at only $80,000. The water company then dropped its price down to $94,000. Many citizens are in favor of the city's building an entirely new plant, even at a cost of $200,000 or $250,000. In order to secure a good water supply and afford adequate fire protection, two things that Grants Pass has always been without.

An aluminum alcohol lamp, with a cup for heating water or boiling an egg, the whole to be carried by a handle like a candlestick, is something new for kitchen or sick-room.

PREGNANT POINTERS FOR THE PEOPLE

From Bryan's Madison Square Speech.
I charge that the Republican leaders no longer lead the Republican voters. I believe that our platform better expresses the real desire of a majority of the Republicans of the United States than their desire is expressed in the Republican platform.
The Republican party has claimed to be the party of morality. It has claimed to express the conscience of the nation. I charge that today it misrepresents the general sentiment of the country and betrays the conscience of the American people.
There is a great question of conscience before the American people. It is honesty in politics. You cannot have honest government without honest principles, and the Democratic party is inaugurating a new era in American politics. The investigations, the disclosures, the revelations have been secretly collected and corruptly used, and an awakened people demands that that should stop, but the Republican senate and house refused to listen to the demand and a Republican national convention rejected the plank that was aimed at honesty in politics.
Our committee applied the doctrine of the platform to the present campaign and has done what no national committee ever did before—it has taken the people into its confidence and laid bare the sources of its campaign contributions. The Republican committee refused to do this.

The Nebraska synod of the Presbyterian church has adopted resolutions condemning the attitude of Speaker Cannon on temperance, and protesting against his reelection as speaker of the house of representatives.

REALTY MEN HEED HITCHCOCK'S APPEAL

"Help me Cassius, else I sink." Is the despairing appeal, the Macedonian cry of Mr. Hitchcock's committee, officially addressed to the Portland realty board, and containing an imperative order to hand over cash to be used in stemming the Bryan tide that is sweeping Indiana and Ohio hopelessly away from Republican moorings.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

To help out the G. O. P.'s national chairman, a committee of realty dealers went out among the faithful, gathered up quite a sum of money and hustled it back to Chicago, there to be employed in financing the whirlwind campaign that it is hoped will put the big and doubtful states back into the Taft column.
While the committee succeeded in raising a respectable sum among the members of the realty board, its path was not altogether smooth, as it did not succeed in convincing all the brokers that it was wise or necessary to send Oregon money back to the job that is to be used in buying votes for Taft.
Just how much money was contributed by the Portland real estate men could not be learned, but it was ascertained that Treasurer Shelden's
