GROOM CLINCHES 2ND FOR BEAVERS

Lanky Twirler Nearly Shuts Out Easy Champions of Coast League.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Oct. 29.—Bobby Groom, the best pitcher in the Coast league, clinched second place for the northern brigade yesterday when he held the champions down to five hits and came near shutting them out, the score being 7 to 1. On the other hand the Beavers took to Koenstner's offerings like a duck to water. Wheeler had been chased from the box for objecting to O'Connell's decisions on balls and strikes.

WEST SIDE HIGH WINS GREAT GAME

Senior School Makes Only Touchdown Twenty Seconds Before End.

West Side High school defeated East Side yesterday afternoon on Multnomah field by a score of 5 to 0. There were but 20 seconds of the second half to spare when Gunnell was sent over the line for the only touchdown of the game.

It was by far the best interscholastic game ever played in Portland and many spectators declare that the only college game played here which was more exciting was the University of Oregon-Idaho game last fall. For most of the first half the ball was in East Side territory but try as she might West Side could not get a score. At the beginning of the second half the two teams started a punting duel with East Side slightly but surely moving down on the West Siders. A beautiful 30-yard run by Ans Cornell, the East Side quarter, took the ball to the 14-yard line. Hale dropped back for try at a 30-yard goal after Stanard and Barzee had made six yards in two downs, but his dropkick carried wide and East Side's only chance to score was gone. West Side came hard then and rapidly worked the ball back into East Side territory and Gunnell was sent over for the touchdown with but 20 seconds left to play.

Trio Does Great Work.

Much of the credit for West Side's victory must go to Ludlum, Dabney and Rader for their beautiful work in the punting duel which featured the game from start to finish. Jones and Cornell of East Side did beautifully in the punting duel with Ludlum and Hale the support which the West Side line and halves gave for the men handling punts and for that reason the team went to West Side. Ludlum and Dabney were down under every punt and the fierce tackling which the pair did made their positions practically invulnerable to the East Side attack.

Rader Proved a Tower of Strength.

Rader proved a tower of strength to the West Side boys. He is not a very fast man but was as slippery as an eel and managed to pass three or four men on every punt which he ran. His consistent work in carrying the ball helped his team along towards their touchdown wonderfully.

East Side's Game.

East Side has no reason to feel grievous for they played a gritty game throughout. Cornell showed his usual form in the game and who plays right half, Captain Smith's punting and several substantial gains which the big fellow made around tackle. Arnold's work at guard was practically perfect and several tackles made behind the East Side line. Ross' work at tackle and the line was good and East Side's line brought out favorable comment from the sidelines. Vosper ran his team well throughout the game.

Game Grows Pretty.

From then on the half was as pretty as could be. First one side punting and then the other. Smith punted on the first down and Gerspach nailed Cornell before the latter could get started. Kellogg got Rader after the latter had made 10 yards on Jones' punt. Vosper failed to gain on a quarterback run and West Side was penalized 15 yards for holding. Smith sent a long punt into East Side territory and Ludlum broke through the interference which had formed around Jones and nailed him. Jones punted out of bounds in the center of the field.

West Side Fumbled on the next play and Elmer Leader fell on the ball. Two exchanges of punts netted the ball on the last of these kicks and skirting the right end of the scrimmage made 30 yards through a scattered bunch of players. This put the ball on the 14-yard line.

The play which put West Side in a position to win the game followed. Barzee was sent around Ludlum's end with the ball and Ludlum, Arnold and Stanard with such force as to almost put Barzee out of the game and knocking the ball out of his hands. Arnold was right on top of the play fell on the ball. It took but four plays for West Side to make the yardage and the game was won. Gunnell made five yards on a line buck. The East Side line braced up then and it took three downs to make the yardage. Stanard hit over for the touchdown on a criss-cross play. Rader and Patterson hurried themselves at the right side of the line. Gunnell and Vosper went around left end for eight yards and the touchdown.

RED HOT GOSSIP FOR RABID FANS

Since yesterday's game gave us the undisputed second place in the Coast league race, it now remains for the Beavers to humble the haughty Angels in the rest of the series. The teams will finish in the order of standing at present.

Hans Lobert, Cincinnati's brilliant outfielder, came near losing his life by inhaling gas at the home of Manager John Gansel in Grand Rapids the other day. He turned on a gas heater from which there was an escape of the lethal fumes and he was overcome.

Word comes from the north that Manager Shroeder of the Tacoma Tigers has signed Asher Houston for next season. Houston is the Tri-City league star who tried out with Oakland during the present season.

PORTLAND ACADEMY MEETS COLUMBIAS

Tomorrow afternoon the Portland academy and Columbia university eleven will line up on Multnomah field at 3:30 p. m.

The academy has been working very hard since their poor showing with Astoria. Since Coach Blanchard has taken hold of them they seem to be playing with a new spirit and their team work is a great deal better and faster. Captain Norris will again be back in the game which will help P. A. considerably.

SUNNYSIDE PLAYERS DEFEAT THE ALBINAS

Albina Athletic club met defeat in front of a crowd of 300 people at Albina hall last night when the Sunnyside Athletic club, strengthened by two men from the Multnomah team, defeated them 21 to 22. Sunnyside took the lead, but was soon overtaken by the Albina boys. In the second half Sunnyside pulled together and won out.
