

SOCIETY

YESTERDAY was the big charity day of the week for society. Almost everyone got out to work for the Baby Home and tag-day surely was a success. Many of the most prominent matrons interested themselves in its success and to these were given stations where they dispensed tags to their helpers and received the coin in exchange. They were assisted by the younger set, and these girls took up their places on the street near the stations of their chaperones. None could resist a tag just to be "in the swim," but if he were not susceptible to that the smiles of the fair peddlers made him succumb. Among the chaperones who controlled stations were Mrs. L. W. Stiton, Mrs. Hannah Robertson, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. O. M. Scott, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. L. M. Cox, Mrs. Henry Waldo Cox, Mrs. L. N. Fleischer, Mrs. C. E. Reed, Mrs. William C. Alvord, Mrs. Harvey W. Scott, Mrs. David Dalgleish, Mrs. Frank E. Hart, Mrs. Adolph Hirsch, Mrs. Fred Sceller, Mrs. E. J. Mrs. and Mrs. Marcus Fleischer and Miss Flora Fleischer expect to leave the middle of the week for New York, thence to sail for Europe. Many attentions have been paid them. Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kohn gave an elaborate dinner of 19 covers at the Portland. A large number of red roses were formed the centerpiece, and the favors were miniature ships. The guests besides Mr. and Mrs. Fleischer were Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Fleischer, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Simon, Mr. and Mrs. Belle, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lang, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. Oscar Meyer, Sam Simon, Sanford Hirsch, and Phillip Lowengard.

Mrs. Solomon Hirsch gave a luncheon Friday for the Fleischer family. Sol Gardo entertained yesterday afternoon with a theatre party at the Orpheum with tea after the performance. Miss Fleischer has besides been entertained a great deal by the young people with whom she is favorite at informal luncheons and dinners.

Cards came out last week announcing the opening of the Shop of Fine Arts and Industries, and many who were interested flocked at once to see the really interesting collection that Mrs. Elsie Home and Mrs. Hume Curry have got together. In the interest of the cause of art, Hume graciously turned over the fine collection of her attractive little home of Seventh and Salmon streets for the display of the good things that enthusiasts like to see and pick over and which heretofore they have had little chance even to think of. The shop will undoubtedly become a favorite resort for lovers for not only is the collection (which, by the way, you are invited to look at and enjoy) but the work in charge is so well known in artistic and social circles and are so well liked with the best of their kind that people must find it a pleasure to stop and visit. The shop is also made the center of the Arts and Crafts society of Portland.

Mrs. Solomon Hirsch was hostess at a beautiful luncheon Friday in compliment to Mrs. Marcus Fleischer. The table decorations were handsome with golden Gate roses, white chrysanthemum and violets for the centerpiece. At each place was a bunch of violets. Covers were laid for 12. Mrs. Hirsch's guests were Mrs. Albert Fleischer, Mrs. Oscar Meyer, Mrs. L. Lang, Mrs. Charles Kohn, Mrs. I. N. Fleischer, Mrs. Ella Hirsch, Mrs. Fred Sceller, Mrs. L. N. Lipman, Mrs. Charles Feldner, Mrs. Mal Hirsch and Mrs. Marcus Fleischer.

Miss Grace Warren entertained charmingly at luncheon Friday in compliment to Miss Effie Houghton, who is being entertained so much these days. Covers were laid for 16 and the guests were Miss Effie Houghton, Miss Claire Houghton, Miss Leslie Knapp, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Monroe, Miss Aveline Webster, Miss Hazel Crocker, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Miss Margaret Catlin, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Mrs. Harry Sladen, Miss Susie Stott, Miss Malda Hart and Miss Frances Warren.

Mrs. Theodore Nicolai and her daughter, Miss Lucy Nicolai, will leave this week for California, where they will make their home in the southern part of the state. This change was necessitated by the state of Mrs. Nicolai's health. She was compelled for the same reason two years ago to give up her active work with the Patton home, with which she had been so prominently identified as president for many years. Mrs. Nicolai is well known among the older residents and has many friends who will regret her departure. Several of her friends have entertained for her and Mrs. John Burgard gave a tea yesterday afternoon. Many of her friends called and the workers of the Patton home, in which the hostess as well as the guest is much interested, were prominent among them.

The Monday Night Dancing club which was organized last year for fortnightly dances is preparing for another season and the first dance will be given at Marlark hall Monday, November 9. J.
