On Thursday evening a pretty wedding was celebrated at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rhodes, Kendall Station, when their daughter, Miss Hazel V. King, was married to Martin W. Mathiesen, Rev. J. Bowersox officiating.

After a solo, "I Love You Truly," by Miss Kathleen Lawler, accompanied by Miss Frudhomme, the bridal party entered the parlor to the wedding march from Lohengrin.

The bride was accompanied by two bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Hill and Miss Lillian Hoesner, and her stepfather, Mr. Rhodes. George L. Hurd acted as best man.

The bride looked charming in a dainty gown of crepe de chine trimmed with lace applique. She wore a veil and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaids wore dainty gowns of pink organdy and carried pink carnations. A sumptuous wedding supper was served in the basement, rally decorated with colored bunting. Miss Edna Love caught the bouquet. At a late hour Mr. and Mrs. Mathiesen left for British Columbia for a few weeks, when they will reside in Portland.

Miss Florence Brown of Woodburn and G. F. Sheran of Portland were quietly married at Vancouver last week. They have apartments at Eighteenth and Couch streets. Mr. Sheran is well known in railroad circles and is one of the youngest passenger agents in the country.

Miss Maude Knapper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Knapper, prominent people of Joseph, Or., was married October 21 to Colonel R. Eberhard. They came to Portland to spend their honeymoon.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

The New York society of Oregon held its regular monthly meeting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Flynn, 403 Fourth street, on the evening of Tuesday, October 20. During a short business meeting it was decided to postpone the regular November meeting and in its place hold a celebration of Evacuation day, November 25, at some public place. Committees were appointed to make due arrangements for the celebration. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly passed in conversation and enjoying a number of delightful selections on the piano by Madame H. Hurlock, a newcomer in Portland musical circles.

The Monday History club began the year's work with an interesting meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. C. G. Tipton, October 12, and the following Monday a day with Shakespeare was held at the home of Mrs. A. M. Smith, Riverdale. Mrs. Tipton gave a delightful reading from "Midsummer Night's Dream." Mrs. C. G. Goddard and Mrs. A. M. Smith sang, "I Know a Bank where the Wild Thyme Grows." The club is studying the history of the sixteenth century. Mrs. Hellman, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. McKenna, was a most welcome guest of the club.

The literature department of the Fortnamah club met last Wednesday with Mrs. Thomas Greene. A delightful book of Conan Doyle was read and discussed. The next business meeting of the Shakespeare department will take place at the city library, Wednesday, November 11.

A pleasant day was spent by relatives and friends with Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, Tuesday in honor of the 84th anniversary of her birth. Those present were: Her husband, J. P. Wilson, Mrs. William Frazier, Mrs. Charles Prazler and her two sons, Mrs. Sarah Perry, Mrs. Clara Keener, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Willis and their two children, Mrs. Rebecca A. Hart, Mrs. Dorenda J. Willis, Mrs. Ruth Roberts, Clarence Townner, Mrs. Jennie Cook, Mrs. S. Simmons, Mrs. Caroline Richle, Mrs. Mary Walker, Mrs. A. J. Walker and her son, David Willis, Mrs. G. M. Banks.

A surprise party was given in honor of Miss Essie Gray at her home, 501 Roselawn avenue, Friday evening. Those present were the Misses Rose Huffsmith, Ella Gaynor, Kate Gaynor, Mabel Fairchild, Leola Scrabble, Mary Fowler, Lela Barbur, Lela Sprague, Miss Finn, Emma Bolet, Essie Gray, Anna Bolet and Edna Morley; Ed Gaynor, Will Jensen, Leo Bolet, George Wilkinson, George Murray, John Brown, Tom Storey, Bob Huffsmith, Jordan Taylor, Ed Storey and Al Clayton.

The Wednesday Evening Five Hundred club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Graves, Golf Links station, October 14. The house was beautifully decorated in red, roses and autumn leaves. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Powers and Mrs. Mae Van Tassel. Prizes were awarded Mrs. William Goodwin and J. N. Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Powers were invited to become members of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tweed of Silverton.

OUT-OF-TOWN ITEMS

Ernest Frederick Cramer and Julia Caroline Nickelsen were married at the Zion Lutheran church in The Dalles Thursday morning, when Rev. J. A. Leas of Portland officiated. The wedding was a very pretty one and the ring service of the Lutheran church was used with the addition of the old German custom of the exchange of rings between bride and bridegroom. The bride was attended by the matron of honor, Mrs. Frank Parker, a sister from San Francisco, and two bridesmaids, the Misses Louise Cramer and Josephine Nickelsen. The bridegroom was accompanied by his brother, William Cramer. The bride was given away by her father, Ingvert C. Nickelsen, who is a pioneer of The Dalles, and who has been a business man there for many years.

After a brief journey to Portland and the sound cities they will return and make their home in The Dalles.

The marriage of Fred D. Edwards and Miss Ora Dell Ricketts took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ricketts at Manor, Wash., last Sunday morning, Rev. Lester E. Clark of Vancouver officiating. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Mrs. Retta Clark.

The bride wore a dainty gown of white net over blue. After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards left amid a shower of rice for Portland, taking the afternoon train for White Bluffs, Wash., where Mr. Edwards is a prosperous farmer.

The most important social event of the week at McMinnville was the marriage, on Wednesday evening, of Edna Margaret, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville O. Hodson, to H. Wayne Stannard, a young business man of Brownsville. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride.

At 8:30 as the Lohengrin wedding march was played by Mrs. C. C. Potter, dean of the conservatory of music of McMinnville college, the bridal party entered the parlor through an aisle made of ivy chains held by 14 young women of the Sacajawea club, of which the bride is a member. As the bride and groom took their places under a floral bell, composed of jessamine and Japanese clematis, the service was read by Rev. A. M. Williams of the First Presbyterian church of McMinnville. Miss Lela Stannard, sister of the bridegroom, acted as bridesmaid, and Dr. J. G. Gill of Lebanon as best man.

The bride was becomingly attired in white messaline trimmed with baby Irish lace and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The bridegroom wore pink messaline and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Lela Stannard.

Just preceding the ceremony the "Wedding Chorus" from the "Rose Maiden" was sung by a quartet, composed of the Misses Lenore Seiders, Jennie and Estella Tibbury and Genevieve Graves, from the Kappa Alpha Phi sorority college, the Misses Lela Stannard, Brownville; Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Hodson, Lester G. Hodson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Purham and F. E. Patty, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hoskins Newberg; Miss Gussie Crawford, Dundee. Mr. and Mrs. Stannard left Sunday afternoon and after a short trip to the sea shore will make their home in Brownsville.

Miss Maude M. Harkus and John T. Tweed were married at Silverton, in the Methodist church last Wednesday evening by Rev. A. J. Hollingworth. They are prominent in social circles of Silverton. Mr. and Mrs. Tweed will make their home in Salem.

Miss Julia Murphy, daughter of Thomas Murphy of Mountaineer, and Henry Smith of Glencoe were united in marriage at the Catholic church at Verboort October 28, Rev. Father Kittenhofen officiating.

John J. Vanloo and Miss Berdina Vandehay were married at the Catholic church at Verboort, last Thursday. Father Kittenhofen officiating. They will reside in the Verboort neighborhood.
