PROGRESS OF THE ELECTION IN THE PACIFIC COAST STATES

Vote in Eastern Part of State Shows Democratic Gains.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Pendleton, Nov. 3.—The vote throughout Umatilla is exceedingly heavy and there is much interest being taken in the election. Opinion is about evenly divided, but the Democrats seem to be making heavy gains. Reports from nearby towns have it that the vote will be a record one. The weather is good.

MARION COUNTY

Peaceful at Salem.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Salem, Or., Nov. 3.—With weather conditions perfect, the indications are that the vote cast today will be the largest ever polled at a national election in this city. A feature of the election is the quiet way in which it is progressing, due principally to the corrupt practice act passed at the June election. An agreement was made between the chairmen of the Democratic and Republican county committees that this measure would be scrupulously complied with and as a result, for the first time in years, carriages and other conveyances have not been furnished to bring voters to the polls. Within an hour and a half after the polls opened one fourth of the registered voters had cast their ballots.

JOSEPHINE COUNTY

Democratic Victory Predicted.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Grants Pass, Or., Nov. 3.—Early morning reports from the various precincts in this county give assurance of a Democratic victory. It is believed that Bryan will carry the county by a majority of from 100 to 200. This is the final estimate made by the officers of the Bryan and Kern club and of the central committee, as well as others who have kept a close eye on the political movements of the county.

JACKSON COUNTY

Heavy Vote Anticipated.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Medford, Or., Nov. 3.—Reports from outside precincts indicate that an unusually heavy vote is being cast in Jackson county. In Medford the voting started early and voters have crowded the polling places ever since. Indications are that over 5,000 ballots will be cast in Jackson county today. The weather is ideal.

MALHEUR COUNTY

Pick Taft Winner.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Ontario, Or., Nov. 3.—Despite bright weather, Malheur county is polling a comparatively light vote. It is conceded that Taft will carry the county by 200 majority.

DOUGLAS COUNTY

Record Vote at Roseburg.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Roseburg, Or., Nov. 3.—Warm sunshiny weather is bringing out this city's voting strength in full force and it is expected that the heaviest vote in Roseburg's history will be polled.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY

Good Vote at Oregon City.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Oregon City, Nov. 3.—The county offices and the schools in this city are closed today and the city has taken on a holiday appearance. Voting has been heavy since the opening of the polls. The best of order prevails.

RUNNING FIGHT TO GET HOLDUP

Wounded, William Johnson Is Captured by Deputy and Posse.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 3.—William Johnson was wounded and captured by a posse at Chattaroy, Wash., at midnight in a running fight. He was one of a holdup pair who had robbed a crowd in a saloon at Milan two hours earlier. He lined up the inmates and got $15. A posse led by Deputy Hicks overtook Johnson. His pal escaped.

SON OF A PEER ACCUSED OF THEFT

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—The police today are looking for Clyde Johnson, alias Jewel, rumored to be a son of Lord Jewel of England, who slipped through their fingers last night after he was interviewed by detectives from headquarters on the arrival of the steamer Lord Sefton. A cablegram was received yesterday from the police of Sydney, N. S. W., requesting the detention of Johnson on charges of stealing gems and other articles of value in Australia. The Lord Sefton, on which Johnson was serving as second steward, passed quarantine last night. Detectives boarded her and interviewed Johnson. His baggage was searched, but none of the missing articles was found. It was arranged that Johnson should be kept under surveillance. During the night he managed to get away and the police now have no trace of him. A thorough search of the ship will be made.

QUICKLY CURES RHEUMATIC PAINS

Go to any good prescription druggist and get the following:

One ounce Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and one ounce Toris Compound. Add these to a half pint of first-class whiskey, and use a tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime. The bottle must be well shaken each time.

Although this is seemingly a commonplace formula, yet it is the most effective known for the eradication of acid poison from the blood, absolutely curing all kinds of rheumatism, and at the same time restoring the whole system to a vigorous, healthy condition.

The enfeebled body and nerves will feel its remarkable restoring effects after the first few doses, but it should be continued until health is fully recovered.

The prompt use of this excellent mixture will be found to save many a dollar in doctor bills and much suffering.

Heavy Vote in the Mission, San Francisco, Is for Bryan.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—A dense fog, which was not dispelled by the sun until after 10 o'clock, held back the early morning vote in the residence sections of San Francisco. The fog did not seem to affect the Mission, however, where the laboring men have a fight on in an effort to elect George Tracey, president of the state Federation of Labor, to congress in opposition to E. A. Hayes of San Jose.

The laboring men were at the polls early in this district and this is taken to mean that in San Francisco, a large vote will be cast for Bryan. Because of the complications in the local judicial ticket, the voting is slow and considerable scratching is being done. No voting machines are being used in San Francisco this year and the voters are having difficulty with their ballots. This may make the returns very late and it is probable that in the event of a close result in the national election in this state, the state's vote will not be known until San Francisco's vote is counted tomorrow.

The Republican state headquarters today predicted that Taft would carry the state by 40,000 plurality, the same given McKinley in 1900.

Roosevelt's plurality in California in 1904 was 116,000. The Republicans claim all the congressmen, 70 out of 80 assemblymen and 19 out of 20 state senators who will be elected.

At Democratic headquarters the first prediction of the vote on president in California was given out today. The Democrats claim the state for Bryan by 5,000. They say the labor vote and the Japanese exclusion plank in the Democratic platform will turn the tide. They claim the election of four congressmen and a majority in the next state senate.

Labor for Bryan.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Fresno, Cal., Nov. 3.—Very heavy voting began early in the majority of the city precincts. The weather is ideal. Local fights have aroused much interest. Labor in this city seems to be voting almost solidly for Bryan.

Heavy Vote at Oakland.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 3.—Considering the overwhelmingly Republican complexion of Alameda county, a phenomenally heavy vote is being polled. The day opened gray, but at dawn there were lines in all the larger precincts. Ballot machines are in use in all precincts and because of the complex local fights and the vote on constitutional amendments their use is slow. The congestion threatens to be intense in the rush hours toward closing.

HEAD CUT OFF IN FLY WHEEL

Joseph Charron Meets Horrible Death in a Seattle Mill.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 3.—His clothing caught by a swiftly running belt, Joseph Charron, a young man employed at the Montana street mills, was this morning jerked into an immense fly wheel, meeting an instantaneous and horrifying death. His head was literally torn from his body and by the time the machinery could be stopped his corpse had been pounded to a pulp.

Charron was about 30 years of age. He was formerly a resident of Seattle, but for the past year or two had been living at San Francisco. He returned to this city about a week ago and had been employed in the mills only a few days.

VOTERS GO TO POLLS

at 7:45 a. m., to be distributed by the captain to the polling places mostly in need of officers and to remain at their posts until 12 o'clock noon, when they will be relieved by the officers of the second night relief. They will then be excused until 2 o'clock p. m., at which time they will report again for duty and take up their posts at the polling places and remain there until the polls are closed, after which they will resume duty on their regular beats. The second night relief will report for duty at 11:45 a. m., to relieve the officers of the first relief at the polling places. They will then remain at their posts until the polls are closed, after which they are relieved until their regular time for reporting for duty, 11:45 p. m.

The day relief will remain on duty continuously until 8 o'clock p. m. Captains of each relief will keep a reserve of two officers at headquarters. The officers of the day relief and the plain clothes men will give particular attention to the liquor traffic and see that all saloons are closed absolutely during voting hours. All officers to be instructed to refrain from entering into any and all political discussions and electioneering, but will attend strictly to police duty, keep order and see that the rights of voters and citizens are protected."

FEW MEN GATHER AT REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS

There weren't more than a dozen men in the Republican headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce this morning. Former claims as to figures were repeated by Secretary McArthur of the state central committee, who said that the majority of Taft in Oregon would be something over 20,000. Yesterday he had it down to 22,975.

"It's a big vote that will be cast today," said Mr. McArthur. "Sunshiny weather is favorable to the Republican party and when we saw the sun today we knew that our majority would be bigger than ever."

So successful was the working of the corrupt practices law that the campaign managers had nothing to do. Secretary McArthur went to the dentist's to have a tooth filled at 10 o'clock this morning.

There are comparatively few reports of voters being sworn in and it is evident that the vote will be largely restricted to the registration.

An important step was taken by County Clerk Fields yesterday afternoon when he advised the members of the election boards that every man who is in line at the voting booths at 7 p. m. shall be allowed to cast his ballot. This will enable many who are employed long distances from the precincts in which they live to reach the polls in time to cast their votes.

At Democratic headquarters every one was enthusiastic over the situation and it was stated that practically a full vote is turning out.

There were few requests to help swear in voters there, not more than 8 or 10 having been reported at headquarters.

Pierce County Expects to Go Republican by Reduced Majority.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 3.—While the normal Republican majority in Tacoma and Pierce county will be largely reduced there seems little probability of a Democratic victory here. Local contests have to a certain extent overshadowed national issues. Congressman Cushman, who has always run far ahead of the Republican ticket in past elections, will, it is predicted, be scratched, owing to his open stand for Speaker Cannon, and his majority may be cut to the danger mark. Two Republican county commissioners who are candidates for reelection will also feel the effect of independent voting and will probably be defeated. Taft and Cosgrove will undoubtedly carry Pierce county by a substantial majority, although State Democratic Chairman Wright declares the county will be in the Democratic column. The weather today is clear and beautiful and the voting is proceeding in a normal way.

Slow at Bellingham.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Bellingham, Wash., Nov. 3.—With threatening weather, although the day opened warm and springlike, only a few of the voters are going to the polls, and there is less excitement than in any national campaign in the past. The wheels of industry have not stopped and business is going on just as usual. The mills and factories will close early this afternoon and the heavy voting is expected then. The Democrats of Whatcom county have already conceded the election of all of the Republican ticket with the exception of the candidates for sheriff and one county commissioner. The Republicans claim their entire ticket will be elected with a majority of 2,500. With the exception of the two doubtful offices, the Democrats conservatively estimate they will have a majority of 468.

Republican Landslide.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 3.—Voting started with the opening of the polls at 8 o'clock this morning. Contrary to the record of all previous years, a heavy early vote is being polled. Voters are taking a longer time than usual, which shows there is scratching. It is stated that many Republicans will vote for Bryan presidential electors, but will vote the remainder of the ticket straight. Democrats are claiming they will win in King county, but the Republicans issued early morning statements that the entire county and state tickets will show a Republican landslide. Weather conditions are favorable for a large vote.

COMMONER'S HONOR

will turn on votes so few in number that the city of Lincoln may decide my fate. If fate decrees that I shall be added to the list of presidents and Nebraska added to the list of states that have furnished a president, I shall rejoice with you. If, on the other hand, the election shall be against me, I can feel that I have left nothing undone that I could have done to bring success to my cause. And, my friends, I shall find private life so full of joy that I shall not miss the presidency.

Tribute to His Wife.

"I have been the child of fortune from my birth. God gave me immediately into the keeping of a Christian father and Christian mother. They implanted in my heart the ideals that have guided my life. When I was in law school, I was fortunate, as I was in my college days, to fall under the influence of men of ideals who helped me shape my life, and when but a young man not out of college yet, I was guided to the selection of one who for 24 years has been my faithful helpmate. No presidential victory could have brought her to me, and no defeat can take her from me. I have been blessed with a family. My children are with me to make glad the declining years of their mother and myself. When you first knew me, they called me in derision, 'The boy orator of the Platte.' I have outlived that title and my grandchildren are now growing up about me. I repeat that I have been fortunate indeed. I have been abundantly rewarded for what little I have been able to do and my ambition is not so much to hold any office, however great, as it is to know my duty and to do it, either in public life or as a private citizen.

No Supporter Shall Be Ashamed.

"I believe that I am going to be elected. (Great applause and cries of 'So do we.') More than that, it is going to be more than a bare victory. I believe that there is a stirring of the American people, a moral awakening, an uprising that means a sweeping victory. But, my friends, victory would be robbed of much of its sweetness if it were won outside of Nebraska merely; that victory would be robbed of much of its sweetness if my little precinct at Normal did not contribute to it. My friends, I shall be among you. It will make the stay more pleasant if I can feel that this city has at last relieved me of the sneers and criticisms that are cast at me when I travel away. And, my friends, I simply want to say this: If you, among whom I have lived, who have known my every word and thought and act, if you believe me worthy of that high office (cries of "We do") I will swear in your presence that no man who votes for me will ever have occasion to be ashamed of that vote he casts."

The Marysville Speech.

At Marysville, realizing that he was uttering his last plea of this campaign in behalf of popular rulership, Mr. Bryan spoke with the energy of the warrior and the fervor of the prophet. In conclusion he said:

"I am now 48 years of age. It is 18 years since I began my political career as a candidate for congress. I told the people of my district that if elected I would not try to get their hands into other people's pockets; that I would simply try to keep other people's hands out of their pockets. For 18 years this thought has run through every speech and act. I have tried to apply to government the Jeffersonian maxim of 'Equal rights to all and special privileges to none.' I have tried to help make this government a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"For 18 years you have had a chance to scan my every speech and act. While Republican leaders have disappeared as the result of investigations, I have invited the scrutiny of my opponents and have outlived their criticisms and their misrepresentations. I know not what the future has for me; I know not whether it is the people's wish that I shall be their spokesman in the White House or continue to perform the work which I have tried to perform as a private citizen; but I have not lived in vain. I have given an impulse to honest politics; I have helped to create a sentiment in favor of reform and as a candidate I have but one thing to rely upon, the confidence of the masses in my fidelity to their interests.

Taft Relies on the "Interests."

"My opponent has behind him all those forces which are considered potent in politics; but I would rather have the love of the people, the affection of the multitude in whose behalf I have fought, than to hold any office. If I enter the White House I shall enter it free to keep the pledges I have made; free to serve with singleness of purpose. If I am elected I shall for four years devote whatever energy I have and whatever ability I possess to the one object of making this government again a government in which the people rule and under which every citizen shall draw from society a reward proportionate to the service which he renders to his fellow men."

Statement to the Public.

A feature of the last day's campaigning was the issuance by Mr. Bryan of a signed statement, which follows:

"Our fight is won, and we await the verdict with confidence. The people will not be deceived by the padded straw votes published by the partisan newspapers, by the shambles of Wall street gamblers or the boastings of the panic-stricken Republican leaders.

"The Republican candidate has behind him an army of officeholders, the trust magnates, most of the leading newspapers and an enormous campaign fund so tainted that he dare not let the people know where it comes from until after they have voted and that part of it that is contributed to the Republican congressional committee will not be known then.

Elements of Bryan's Support.

"I have behind me the awakened conscience of the country and the sentiment in favor of popular government which demands the election of United States senators by direct vote.

"I have behind me the victims of the trusts who are pleading for relief; the laboring men, whose petitions have been rejected by the Republican party; the depositors whose savings are jeopardized by the carelessness of bank officials, and the consumers who have been exploited by the beneficiaries of the high tariff.

"All of these people see in a Democratic victory their only hope of relief, and they know that with the election of a Democratic president and a Democratic congress, backed by a popular verdict in behalf of Democratic policies, the way is open for remedial legislation.

Republican Betrayals.

"The Republican leaders have been weighed in the balance and have been found wanting; they have betrayed the rank and file of their own party and have left the Democratic party to voice the honest sentiment of the honest citizenship of the country, Republican and Democratic.

"And, I may add, we expect in this campaign the votes of all reformers, for the Democratic party is the only party that can bring at once the reforms which the people need, and I am sure the reformers cannot be deceived by the leaders who, pretending to represent labor, are now trying to assist the Republican party, which is the open foe of labor, and who, having posed as enemies of the trusts, now join hands with Rockefeller, Harriman and Carnegie in supporting the Republican party, which is today the champion and bulwark of all the trusts.

"What a spectacle the Republican campaign presents at its close, the Republican candidate trying to repudiate the support of the trust magnates, who are coming out from under cover and announcing their loyalty to him, and at the same time trying to claim the support of labor leaders like Mitchell, and Duncan, and Morrison, who are openly repudiating them. Surely the hour has come for a return of the government to the hands of the people. Let the people rule."

MEN CURED

DR. TAYLOR, The Leading Specialist

Never was the old saying, "He who hesitates is lost," more aptly illustrated than in the case of the man who suffers from NERVOUS DEBILITY, VARICOCELE, a CONTRACTED DISORDER or CONTAGIOUS BLOOD DISEASE, and who neglects to have his ailment treated. I do not scatter my faculties, as does the ordinary physician, but I concentrate them on diseases and weakness peculiar to the male. Recently I have treated scores of stubborn cases for some of the best men of this city and vicinity, and not a failure or an unpleasant result has been reported. What I have done for others I can do for you.

Prostatic Inflammation

My cures of this disorder are permanent and lasting. No tonics that stimulate temporarily, but thoroughly scientific treatment for the removal of conditions responsible for the functional derangement. General nervous depression is merely a symptom of inflammation, or congestion of the prostate gland, and under my own original local treatment the gland is promptly reduced to its normal state and complete functional activity is the lasting result.

MY FEE FOR A THOROUGH CURE IS ONLY $10 PAY ME WHEN I HAVE CURED YOU

WEATHER REPORT

The Alberta storm has moved east to the upper lake region, and a new disturbance has made its appearance over British Columbia. Storm warnings were continued last night at all seaports in Washington. A maximum wind velocity of 60 miles from the southeast was reported this morning from North Head, and the wire to Tatoosh island is down. An immense high pressure area overlies the Rocky mountain states, and fair weather prevails generally throughout the United States, except in scattered localities in the southern states, where light to moderately heavy rains have fallen. The temperatures are above normal in most of the northern states and nearly normal elsewhere.

The indications are for rain tonight and Wednesday in western Oregon and western Washington, and for rain tonight or Wednesday in eastern Washington and northern Idaho. It will be cooler tonight in the sound country.
