DUSTIN FARNUM COMES BACK TO HIS OWN AS THE "SQUAW MAN"

After devious wanderings into pulpits and rosters' back gardens, Dustin Farnum has vaulted into the saddle again; has once more assumed the sombrero and the chaps and is at home in "The Squaw Man." We are glad we didn't see him as a rooster. We are sorry we saw him as an English officer in the first act last night; his uniform didn't fit. We could imagine that mutton would have been worse and a surprise the worst. But once out of the scarlet jacket and the gilt buttons and into his customary alkali-covered garb, Mr. Farnum exercised the old charm. It used to entirely cover his deficiencies as an actor in "The Virginian." It would do the same in "The Squaw Man" had it not been that the exquisite Faversham comparison with last year's production which was unusually good—that were unfavorable to this one. The play itself has not changed and it is one of the best dramas of its kind. There are many members of the company that are good, including most of the cow-punchers and the Indians. The last act is as powerful as ever and holds interest remarkably. And the stage settings—thank heaven for these stage settings, they pull us out of many a hole—are unusually good. "The Squaw Man" if you didn't see "The Squaw Man" last year you will enjoy it this week at the Hotel. And anyway it's worth while to see Mr. Farnum back as a wild westerner.

Election Returns at Risk

Tonight the election returns will be posted at the Exposition rink. During the evening there will be moonlight skating and the rink will be warm and comfortable. There will be special music.

Three Lost Boys Found

Edmonds, Wash., Nov. 3.—John and Lewis Bakstrom and Robert McClelland, the hunters missing since last Saturday and for whom searching parties have been looking, returned home this morning. The boys went out in a small boat with only paddles for propelling power. A gale came up and they drifted across the sound to Whidbey island, where they were picked up and sent home by steamer this morning.

CONSUMPTION STATISTICS

Prove that a neglected cold or cough puts the lungs in so bad a condition that consumption germs find a fertile field for fastening on one. Stop the cough just as soon as it appears with Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Soothes the torn and inflamed tissues and makes you well again.

CANNY REPORTERS VANISH, THOUGH HE CAME ONLY TO COMPLIMENT

Ninety-nine and three fourths per cent of the persons who come into the editorial rooms of a newspaper office, it seems, have a complaint of some kind to make. A newspaper shop is the clearing house for people with a grudge. Billowness is also responsible for a great many kicks. Every time some people pass a newspaper office they drop in to file a complaint, just to show that they are among the living. If their gas or electric lights do not burn just right, if their streets are in a bad way, etc., certain citizens hike for a newspaper office every time.
A man walked into The Journal today and said he wanted to see the person who had charge of the reporters. His hat was pulled down over his eyes, and there was a certain gruffness in his voice. Every reporter in the room thought he was "it," sure. The police reporter was the first to get out. He was in such a hurry that he left his hat. On his very heels was the reporter who does the divorce courts. He's usually the first to get out in a case of this kind. Today the police reporter happened to be nearest the door.
The man stood around a bit and seemed to be sizing up every one in the office. It was explained to him that the city editor was the man he was looking for, and that at that moment the city editor was in another room. The man said he would wait.

JAPANESE CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY OF THEIR EMPEROR TONIGHT

Loyal Japanese of Portland are celebrating today the birthday of their emperor, emperor of Japan. The singing of Japanese national airs and patriotic speeches will be features of an entertainment to be held in the Y. M. C. A. hall tonight by members of the Japanese colony.
Another event in honor of His Majesty's birthday will be a banquet at the Hotel Portland to be given by Yasuhiro Numano, Japanese consul in Portland, to his friends in this city. Owing to the fact that this is election day the dinner will not be held until Thursday evening, November 5.
Invitations to the banquet have been issued as follows: United States Senator Jonathan Bourne, P. S. Malcolm, E. Ohta, T. B. Wilcox, C. F. Swigert, John M. Gearin, Bishop Scadding, C. W. Hodson, British Consul James Laidlaw, K. A. J. MacKenzie, John F. Carroll, Mayor Harry Lane, George M. Trowbridge, H. W. Scott, J. H. Barbour, S. Ban, Governor George E. Chamberlain, J. Wagon, W. M. Ladd, C. F. Adams, W. D. Woodruff, General C. F. Beane and Judge C. E. Wolverton.
It is expected that several hundred Japanese will attend the Y. M. C. A. entertainment tonight. Addresses are to be made by Secretary Stone of the Y. M. C. A., James Laidlaw, British consul in Portland, Consul Numano and others. A feature of the meeting is to be the reading of the imperial edict of morality by Secretary Ywaya, of the Japanese consulate.
Dawson Newspaper Deals.
(United Press Lensed Wire.)
Dawson, Yukon, Nov. 3.—The Dawson News and the Dawson World have been sold by Richard Roediger and William McIntyre, the founders, to Greer C. Barton and Otto Kastner, wholesale meat dealers, and Charles Sedgwick, by Joseph Greene, Albert Forrest and Arthur Devor, newspaper men.
A NEW BOOK BY A FAMOUS AUTHOR
Mrs. Mary J. Lincoln, author of the famous "Boston Cook Book," has just written another book of recipes, the "Pure Food Cook Book." It is interesting to note that in a number of recipes Mrs. Lincoln has recommended the use of a vegetable oil cooking fat, called COTTOLENE. Lard, being made from hog fat is often impure and always indigestible. It is claimed for COTTOLENE, however, that it can be used in every way that lard is that it makes light, rich, delicious pastry which can be digested with ease by the most delicate stomach, and that it is also more economical than lard, one-third less being required.

TEA
Will you buy of your grocer a pound of our tea, and go by the book in brewing it.
Your grocer returns your money if you don't like the tea. We pay him.
