STATES LINE UP

crates are basing their hopes upon the Yates-Deneen fight among the Republicans at the primaries. Despite information that some are nearly all healed, the Democrats are hoping that the wounds still ache wide. They have tried to rub a little salt into the cuts and they have visions that Adlai E. Stevenson will be elected governor with the aid of Republican votes. Stevenson, they argue, will drag Bryan through in Illinois. Conversely, they argue that Bryan is strong enough in Illinois to drag Stevenson through. So that each is expected to drag the other through, an intellectual merry-go-round that evokes loud laughter at Republican headquarters, where several comprehensive polls of the state are held to show that big pluralities for Taft and Deneen are certain in Illinois.

The Candidates' Own States.
Out in Montana a fierce fight is raging. The Republicans see the state in a safe bet for Taft, but the Democrats are still whacking away merrily. Nevada is in the doubtful list of both parties.

One of the interesting questions, the answer to which will be given at the polls today, is whether the two big presidential candidates will carry their own states. Bryan lost his, Nebraska, in 1900, so it will be no new experience for him if the predictions of the Republicans come true.

Taft's home state, Ohio, is one of the three big doubtful ones. How will the prophets of the two major parties fare in Nazareth.

GOOD WEATHER IN NEW ENGLAND

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Boston, Mass., Nov. 3.—Reports throughout New England today show that good weather prevails. Despite this, the early balloting indicates that the vote will be below normal. Higginson, the independence party candidate, and his supporters are making a hard fight to carry Massachusetts and their workers are busy about all the polling places. There is no indication, however, of an unusually heavy third-party vote. New Hampshire and Rhode Island are torn by hot state fights, which are detracting interest from the presidential campaign, but will bring out the full vote in both commonwealths. Vermont and Maine, both of which held state elections recently, are polling an unusually light vote.

INDIANA HEAVY AS WELL AS DOUBTFUL

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Indianapolis, Nov. 3.—Five heaviest votes in the history of Indiana is being polled today, according to all indications. The usual methods of inducing

Democrats in this county have been practically wiped out in the bitter, intense fight between Mormon and anti-Mormon and the result today will be the culmination of the hardest campaign in the history of Utah.

SENATOR FORAKER AT POLLS EARLY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Cincinnati, Nov. 3.—Senator Joseph B. Foraker, who has been such a prominent figure in the campaign, probably got considerable satisfaction out of voting today. He was at the polls early and remained in the booth a long time, evidently doing a great deal of scratching in the down-town voting places. Lines formed long before the polls opened. In the German districts there is very little scratching. The early vote was heavy throughout the city and all voters are being handled rapidly. Two warrants have been issued for illegal voters.

REPUBLICANS SAY UTAH IS SAFE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Salt Lake, Utah, Nov. 3.—Basing their statements on recent political developments, Republicans are predicting that Utah will go Republican by the big, great vote ever cast in the history of the state. The chief interest centers in Salt Lake county, where the anti-Mormon "American party" is attempting to capture all the offices. Owing to the attacks on their leaders, the Mormons are following explicit instructions and voting the Republican ticket. The of attack by the Republican speakers, are being voted on.

MUCH ROWDYISM AT POLLS AT ST. LOUIS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
St. Louis, Nov. 3.—Slugging, rowdyism and violence marked the election here today. Otto Burhardt, a judge of one of the river wards, was badly beaten enroute to the polls and a police guard was called out to protect voters. From 10 o'clock on the voting proceeded under police guard. Governor Polk gave orders that order must be preserved at the polls and throughout the city. Returns from various sections of the state indicate that a heavy vote is being polled throughout Missouri.

TAFT FAVORITE IN NEW YORK BETTING

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, Nov. 3.—Betting was active this morning, and it was estimated before noon that $200,000 had been wagered. The odds in favor of Taft were 5 to 1 to $ to 1. Most of the betting is on the state contest, with the odds slightly favoring Hughes for reelection.

BALLOTING SLOW—TICKETS SCRATCHED

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 3.—Reports from all portions of the state indicate that an unusually heavy vote will be polled during the day. Excellent weather conditions are inducing the voters to turn out early. The balloting is proceeding slowly, however, which is taken to indicate that a great deal of scratching is being done. A further delay in the booths is caused by the fact that a Republican primary senatorial election is in progress.

DEMOCRATS' BUSY DAY IN KANSAS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Topeka, Kan., Nov. 3.—A heavy vote is being polled in Kansas today. The farmers are manifesting an unexpected interest in the election and the rural precincts report an unusually heavy vote up to 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Democrats are making an extraordinary effort to capture the legislature in order to defeat Joseph L. Bristow for the United States senate.

HEAVY IN COLORADO; BOTH SIDES CLAIM

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Denver, Colo., Nov. 3.—Reports from throughout the state at noon today indicate that a heavy vote is being polled. The leaders on both sides are claiming the state.

FOUR TO ONE BRYAN WILL CARRY CHICAGO

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Nov. 3.—The betting on the election is light today, and is estimated to be the smallest in years, though big gain offers are being made. Bryan men were offering $ to 1 that he will carry the city, but the Taft men want to 1. The Democrats offer $ to 5 in favor of Stevenson for governor, but the Deneen men are holding out for $ to 2.

HARD FIGHT WAGED BY MARYLAND VOTERS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Baltimore, Md., Nov. 3.—Weather conditions are perfect here today and a heavy early vote resulted. In some precincts 50 percent of the vote was cast before 9 o'clock. The heavy voting is taken as an indication that both sides are fighting hard to carry Maryland, which is a doubtful factor in the electoral college.

STEVENSON VOTES

Bloomington, Ill., Nov. 3.—Adlai E. Stevenson, candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket, cast his vote early today. He was warmly greeted by the crowd surrounding the election booth. Stevenson was inside only a few seconds.

YOUNG WOMAN IS REPORTED MISSING

Elizabeth Duncan, a domestic employed by E. W. Lemcke at 475 Davenport street, has been reported to the police as missing for the past two days. She left her clothing and her money in her room. She is 32 years old, has brown hair and wore a brown skirt with white waist.
