

COURT TESTS FOLLOW THE ELECTION

Business Will Return to Normal Now That Political Affairs of Country Have Been Settled—Revival of Trade.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Chicago, Nov. 4.—That prosperity and revival of business will follow the close of the Taft presidential contest is the generally expressed view of business men. The revival in industrial and commercial fields is not to be confined to any particular kind of business, but will be general in the belief of those who hold this view. All lines of trade and industry will feel the beneficial effects of the removal of the factor of uncertainty. The revival, it is predicted, is likely to begin almost immediately and will continue in ever-increasing volume during the next six months or so, until the affairs of the nation in a business way are once more normal.

End of Depression.

Railroad men and bankers, manufacturers and merchants, stockbrokers and board of trade men, all join in declaring the termination of the conflict means the end of depression. The effects of the immediate effects will be the carrying through of many deals, and many of them for large returns, which were awaiting the cessation of the suspense. It is stated that millions of dollars are represented in business transactions which were held subject to resale. This volume of business will now be electrified into life.

Brokers and board of trade men prophecy there will be the best times seen for many months on exchanges and boards of trade. Dealings in stocks will become active and there will be large expenditures both for investment and for speculative purposes.

Will Branch Out.

In the manufacturing field there will be an increased output and the buying of far larger quantities of raw material than for months. Manufacturers and jobbers have been carrying unusually small stocks for some time, but will now begin once more to branch out. The railroad men join the ranks of the prophets of prosperity. It is the general opinion among transportation interests that better business conditions will obtain almost immediately. Although many of them do not like the fact that Taft apparently stands for all of the state veterinarian on account of the state veterinarian, nevertheless they are convinced he is the best equipped and sanest man for the position.

Although they would not talk for publication upon the subject of increased freight rates, there are a few who do not believe Taft's election will obviate the necessity of either a general increase in freight rates or the alternative of reduced wages for railroad employees. Business men in general are looking to the railroads to aid business materially. The moment the railroads begin to move forward in the general direction of expansion, it is declared, the whole country will move with them.

EXONERATED BY CORONER'S JURY

Policeman Stahl Justified in Shooting J. V. De Laney Is Verdict.

A verdict of justifiable homicide was returned by the coroner's jury which last night heard the evidence at the inquest conducted over the body of J. V. De Laney, who was shot by Policeman Stahl early Sunday morning while trying to evade arrest.

W. H. Grout, the brother-in-law of De Laney, was present at the inquest. After the car men had given their testimony and the verdict had been returned he hunted up Stahl outside the mortuary.

"I have no ill-feeling against you whatever," he said. "If what all those witnesses say is true, I would have done as you did."

Walter C. Blue, J. William Barkness, the coroner, on De Laney's behalf, boarded W. R. Older, E. W. Canine, J. V. Boyd were the car men examined. G. L. O'Shea, an electrician living at 1043 Gantenbein avenue, was standing on the corner waiting for a tripper car when the shooting was done and was one of the most important witnesses.

It was testified that after De Laney, wounded and dying, was lying on the ground he declined to answer any question as to why he had boarded the car and why he refused to stop when ordered to do so.

SOCIALIST VOTE IN WINDYVILLE

It Is 15,000 Compared With 27,000 in 1904—General Vote Shows Gains.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Nov. 4.—The Socialist vote of 15,000 shows a loss of 12,000 from the figures of 1904. National Committeeman Simons in explaining the falling off said:

"The reduction is largely the result of the efforts of the organization to make its members support the old parties. The increase of the Socialist vote throughout the entire country will be 50 per cent, despite the falling off in the industrial centers."

It is thought by politicians here that the Socialist vote in 1904 in Chicago was made abnormally large by the ballots of dissatisfied Bryanites.

SIDELINE STORIES OF GREAT NORTHWEST

LIGHTS FOR WALDPOR

Citizens Raise Money to Illuminate the Streets.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Waldport, Or., Nov. 4.—The citizens of Waldport have taken up the matter of street lights and intend to install them at once. The proceeds from a dance given at Kent's hall Saturday evening by the Renshaw orchestra were donated to the street light fund. This donation, together with private donations, enables the city to purchase about one dozen oil lamps. This number will be gradually increased. School opened here Monday, with Earl Brown of Philomath principal, and Miss Effie Williamson of Waldport primary teacher. The enrollment this year is unusually large. Owing to lack of building material this summer and fall, people from adjoining districts who intended to move into Waldport for the school year have been unable to secure houses. A number of such families are living in tents.

There were more than 350 young women, not duplicating in the counting, who were enrolled in domestic economy, and more than half the entire body of students were enrolled in one or another department of the mechanic arts. The total enrollment during the past year was 1,336 students and 80 officers and instructors, as against 942 students and 54 officers and instructors two years ago, and 652 students and 55 instructors four years ago.

ISLANDERS GLAD TAFT'S ELECTED

Filipinos Look With Confidence to Two Former Insular Governors.

By H. Lee Clotworthy, Staff Correspondent of the United Press, on Board the Battleship Georgia. Manila, Nov. 4.—The Americans of Manila and the men of the fleet are celebrating the election of Taft to the presidency.

The people of Manila expect an entire change of policy on the part of the government toward the islands under the administration of President Taft, owing to his intimate knowledge of Philippine affairs and his extensive experience here as governor.

It is expected that strict restraint will be exercised over the agitators who have been clamoring for immediate self-government for the Filipinos, and there is little doubt that the mere fact of Taft's election will quiet much of this talk.

The general impression prevails that General Luke E. Wright, secretary of war, will have active charge of the Philippine question. As General Wright also served as governor of the Philippines the islands expect to receive much attention under the administration of President Taft. The firmness of General Wright in handling politicians is well known, and it is expected that he will take vigor-

JAPS CONSIDER IT A VICTORY FOR ANTI-EXCLUSION

(United Press Leased Wire.) Tokyo, Nov. 4.—All Japan is delighted with the outcome of the presidential election in the United States, and papers in various cities issued extras announcing the victory of Judge Taft.

The Japanese are particularly pleased with the endorsement of the administration of President Roosevelt, whom they look upon as their good friend.

President-elect Taft is well remembered and much admired in Japan. Many references to his visit to this country last year are published today. The fact that the Democratic party on the Pacific coast made an issue of Japanese exclusion also makes the result a source of gratification, as the people consider it a rebuke by their American friends, who, the visit of the fleet has led them to believe, are in the majority.
