

IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT WILL EDUCATE CHILDREN OF ITS SUBJECTS RESIDING IN PORTLAND—OBJECT IS TO KEEP THE MOTHER TONGUE FROM BEING FORGOTTEN HERE.

A day school for the education of Chinese children of both sexes in their mother tongue is to be established in Portland before the end of the present month. Liang Ching Kwai, Chinese educational commissioner, is now in Chicago, but is scheduled to reach Portland November 19, coming by way of Victoria, B. C., and other northern western cities. He will make his headquarters in San Francisco, where educational work is being carried on extensively among the many Chinese who reside there. A highly educated Chinese student will be left in Portland to train the pupils here.

Wong Bak Hong, one of the Portland Chinese who is interested in the work and who is at present a student at the University of Oregon Law school, said this morning: "It is the desire of the Chinese government to keep the Chinese language alive among the younger Chinese who are growing up in America and who, as a rule, know very little of the language other than what they hear in their own homes. The Chinese government wants smart men. It must have them if they are going to form the best laws, but if they can not get smart Chinamen, they will take Americans. That is why Liang Ching Kwai has been sent to America. It is to educate the growing generation so that if they return to China, they will be able to talk and compete with their fellow countrymen and also with the large numbers of white people who are there. Chinese students who have been born in this country can also take advantage of the new school to brush up their Chinese. Moy Peng Hsi, secretary to the Chinese consul, Moy Back Hin, says that China is drawing up a better code of laws. "She realizes," he said, "that her laws as they are now are not fit for the present generation and she means to reconstruct them. Those who study in America learn the English language in the public schools and some are learning American law. Those who know American law and the English language, besides Chinese, will be very useful in China. I think that the educational instructor will remain in America, making his headquarters at San Francisco and supervising the work of teaching Chinese boys and girls. Chinese children in China are now being educated together, an innovation in the history of the world. The girls do not carry on their studies as far as do the boys, naturally turning to the duties of the household, but the new system is very gratifying to those who have been carrying on the work in China. A highly educated Chinese who has graduated from the best schools in China, and who also knows English, will be stationed in Portland to teach the children here. More than 50 pupils will attend the school here, and of them were born in America, but those who were not came here so young that they had not thoroughly learned their native tongue.

REV. MELVILLE T. WIRE AND MRS. RENO HUTCHINSON WED

The marriage of Mrs. Reno Hutchinson and Rev. Melville T. Wire, yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of Grace Methodist church, came as a surprising piece of news to many of the friends of the couple when it was made known this morning. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. W. H. Hoppe, was witnessed only by the minister's family. Mr. Wire is prominent among the younger men in the Oregon conference of his church. He was for three years pastor of the Patton Methodist Episcopal church and at the last conference

OFFERS BRIBE TO POLICEMAN

Officer Takes Thief's Money but Refuses to Release Him.

William B. Bailey has a poor opinion of the Portland police department. He thinks its members won't "stay bought." He is in jail charged with offering a bribe to an officer. The penalty is two to ten years in the penitentiary. Bailey, who first gave his name as Franklin, accompanied by another man, entered the Thurman cafe at Sixteenth and Thurman streets a few minutes after 12 o'clock this morning, and after ordering two glasses of beer tendered a $20 gold piece in payment. When the proprietor, who was about to close for the night, had handed him the change, $12.50, Bailey suddenly produced a dime and said, "Here, I don't want to carry all that silver." The saloon man threw over the double magic and reached for the silver, but the two men instantly dashed out of the place, nearly $20 ahead by the transaction. Patrolman Swennes saw the saloon man chasing the thieves and drew his revolver. Just then Bailey fell and was captured. The other man boarded a Sixteenth-street car and escaped. At the patrol box at Fifteenth and Swisher, Bailey, who appears to be about 35 years old, handed Swennes, so the policeman alleges, a $10 piece and $1.50 in silver. "What's the use of your calling the blame old wagon," said he, Swennes pocketed the money, but called the patrol wagon. Bailey will appear in court tomorrow.

DOGS ON TRAIL OF KIDNAPER BEZEMER

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 5.—With Harry McDermott's bloodhounds on his trail, it is thought that Leo Bezemer, alias "Whaling King," who attempted to extort $5,000 from E. P. English, a wealthy logger, after chaining him to a tree near Mount St. Helens, may soon be captured. The hounds followed his trail from Silvana to Lakewood yesterday afternoon and indications are that the kidnaper has headed for the Delta country north of Everett and south of Marysville. A plot has been discovered in which a number of shingle weavers are said to be aiding and abetting Bezemer in his efforts to escape. It is said, to hear the kidnaper is heading for Seattle.

MURDEROUS ITALIAN IS OUT OF DANGER

Sebastiano Gregg, the Italian who in a fit of rage shot and wounded his mother and brother yesterday morning, then cut his own throat, was reported at St. Vincent's hospital this morning to be out of danger. The mother is suffering only from the shock and there is no doubt of the brother's recovery.

Since that time he has never been heard of.

FIFTY THOUSAND IN WASHINGTON

This is Taft's Apparent Plurality—Direct Primary Is Vindicated.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 5.—Taft by 50,000 is the result of the campaign ever conducted in Washington. With state and legislative candidates chosen directly by the people through the primary election system, Republican campaign managers broke away from machine politics and made their appeal for votes direct to the people. The result is a vindication of their methods. Samuel S. Cosgrove, Republican, is elected governor by substantially the same majority given Taft and the remainder of the state ticket is elected with pluralities ranging from 10,000 down. Pierce county shows a plurality of about 6,000 for the Republican ticket. Spokane went 8,000 Republican and the remainder of the majority was made up in the remaining counties, all of which went for Taft. In four counties, Skamania, Kittitas, Chelan and Ferry the Democratic county tickets were elected, this in part being the sum total of Democratic success, aside from the members of the legislature elected. On present returns the Socialist vote in the state will total about 15,000. The prohibition vote will be up to expectations.

WOMEN'S HATRED MELTS IN TEARS

Mrs. Morse and Mrs. Curtis Weep Together as the Jury Deliberates.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Nov. 5.—Breaking the reserve of weeks and overcoming an apparent enmity, fright and suspense last night brought together Mrs. Curtis W. Morse, wife of the late John K. Morse, and Mrs. Alfred H. Curtis, wife of the former president of the National Bank of North America. The two women had sat through the long days of the trial without exchanging the least sign of recognition. The climax came in a dramatic scene that followed a second retirement of the jury, at 11:25 last night, after the foreman had asked the court for further instructions interpreting the conspiracy laws as applicable to the case.

Mrs. Curtis, who has been called the heroine of the trial, was unable to withstand the strain under which she had waited for 12 hours, as the jurors debated the fate of her husband and that of Morse, who were tried together on the charge of violating the banking laws. As the door closed behind the jury, Mrs. Curtis broke down completely and wept. Mrs. Morse, who had shown greater strength of mind to stand the passage, was so affected by the condition of Mrs. Curtis that she arose and went to her side. Through her tears, Mrs. Curtis looked up at Mrs. Morse, saw her expression and extended her arms. The women embraced each other, both sobbing. Mrs. Morse then placed her arm about Mrs. Curtis and led her from the courtroom.

THIS WOULD CHEER UP POOR OLD DIOGENES

The honest man has been found—and it wasn't necessary to use a lantern to locate him, either. He lives in Portland—of course—and may be seen on the street any day. His name is Bungal. This is the story: Two young men, weary with waiting for election returns Tuesday night, went into the Hof Brau cafe to rest and wash the dryness out of their throats. One of them, Severin Stanley Glass, a mining man of Chinua, hua, Mexico, pulled out a valuable silver cigarette case, lighted a cigarette and laid the case on the table. When he looked for it a few minutes later, it was gone.

PLAN TAG DAY FOR NEXT YEAR

As nearly as can now be computed, full returns for tag day will make the sum total $8,950. This conclusion was arrived at by estimating all possible sources which have not yet sent in returns, at a meeting of the board at the home of the president, Mrs. C. L. W. Sitton, who authorized the following statement signed by the committee: "To Our Friends—At the last regular meeting of the Baby Home board, one of the members, Mrs. D. C. Burns, suggested having a tag day, for the purpose of raising funds to meet the expense of new streets and sidewalks about the home property. "The idea, at that time new to all of us, was presented with so much enthusiasm and with such successful reports from other cities where it had been tried that it was looked upon with favor, and preparations were immediately begun for a Baby Home tag day, with the grand results already announced. "Our most sanguine expectations, the raising of the street debt was realized; then we found the land indebtedness could be cleared, and today we estimate the whole amount raised to be $8,950, after our only expense, that of printing, is paid. This great success is due to our friends, including the press, the pastor and enthusiastic members of different churches, the Women's club, merchants, the owners of the medical building, the Portland Railway company, commercial travelers, advertisers, owners of automobiles, and last, but by no means least, the hosts of tag sellers and tag buyers who thronged the streets throughout the busy day. The proprietors of the Crown theatre added to the fund by giving the proceeds of their entertainment for two hours on Wednesday afternoon. "With the great encouragement received, and with advice of friends, the ladies plan to have an annual tag day, believing that many welcome an opportunity to contribute in a small way to the maintenance of the Baby Home. "We owe a debt of gratitude to all, and they are many, who, by advice, suggestion, interest and hard work, made the raising of our debt possible, and we take this means of thanking you one and all."

NEW PULLMANS COMING WEST

Five Trains Ordered for the North Bank Road Reach St. Paul.

Word has been received at the head offices of the S. P. & S. in Portland that the five new trains of Pullman cars which the North Bank will operate in conjunction with the Great Northern between Portland and the Twin Cities have reached St. Paul and will be forwarded to Portland at once. There has been considerable talk of the establishment of suburban train service between Portland and Vancouver, Wash., over the new bridge, but this, as well as the question of how soon through train service over the new line will be established, has not yet been decided. General Passenger Agent Adams of the North Bank said this morning that the road might begin the operation of trains out of Portland almost immediately, or not for several weeks. The subject is under discussion by telegraph between Portland and St. Paul at the present time.
