

THE BEST MEATS

EVERYTHING IN THE BEST MEATS AT REASONABLE PRICES.
When you consider the quality of our meats, and that we guarantee everything we sell to be good enough and only such as we would use on our own table, our prices are more than reasonable. We are selling meat in order to make a profit, of course, but we depend on a large number of sales at a very small profit each. Our making a profit at all depends upon our doing a large volume of business and we shall do all in our power to make our prices, the quality of our meats, and the treatment of our customers such that our business cannot help but grow. We can buy on the open market just as cheaply as the largest packer.

Possibly the Credit House

Has sent your October bill; have you received it and had the opportunity of meditating upon its more or less satisfying amount? Why not take advantage of the occasion and compare same with our advertised prices, and ascertain what it means for you to buy on credit as against buying for cash. In suggesting this we have no desire to interfere with your appetite for the Sunday dinner, but we really believe you ought to know that when you buy for cash you save in the neighborhood of 25 per cent more on your groceries. You ought to know this fact, whether you decide to profit by the information or not.

At 512 Williams avenue and 226 Alder street, between First and Second streets, there will be on display in Smith's windows several dainty little pig porkers, the kind from which Smith makes pig pork sausage. After you feast your eyes on them you will know why Smith's sausages have such a sweet, delightful flavor, entirely different from what you get at other markets. Smith's Pig Pork Sausage is 12½¢ per pound and made fresh every hour.

TWENTY-FIVE SALESMEN to wait on you promptly at our Alder street market on Saturday. We don't want anyone to go near a Beef Trust market, because Smith's happened to be crowded. Come to Smith's anyhow, but try to come early in the day and pick your choice.

KNOCKED DOWN AND INJURED BY CAR

Attempting to cross the street in front of an S car on Fourteenth and Johnson streets this morning, G. Fox was struck by the front end of the car and knocked to the ground, sustaining a gash over his right eye. Fox was picked up almost unconscious and hurried to the Good Samaritan hospital where the wound was dressed and he returned home. The streetcar, No. 245, was in the charge of E. J. Sutherland, motorman, and A. J. Schultz, conductor.
