THREE STRINGS OF OREGON BACKS

Training Table Squad Is Increased—Varsity Team Shows Improvement.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 6.—The training table squad was increased to 21 men yesterday, not counting Coach Forbes and Trainer Hayward.

Coach Forbes' reason for such a large squad is the fact that he desires to develop three complete back fields and, if possible, as many sets of ends. This has been his policy all season and the result is beginning to show that it is an excellent plan.

The men are all in good condition for the Whitworth game Saturday with the exception of a few bruises. Everybody Gets Chance. This game, while considered already a victory for Oregon, is not looked upon by any means as easy. All of the men will be given a chance in it.

Ralph Dodson, the speedy end, and Walter McIntyre, the big tackle, have been assigned to the training table. They have both been playing good ball. Michael and Kiltz at end are improving every day in handling the passes and getting under punts. Both are fast men and use their heads.

FACULTY RULES ON LONGER VACATION

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 6.—At a meeting of the faculty yesterday afternoon the matter of extending the Thanksgiving vacation to include Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday between the O. A. C. game and Thanksgiving was discussed, but it was decided to turn the matter over to the advisory committee of the board of regents.

The petition, which was presented to the faculty, was signed by over two thirds of the student body. As more than half of the students live in Portland or beyond, this vacation would allow them to visit their homes. It would also do away with two arduous trips, as the journey from Portland to Eugene is very tiring.

ABERDEEN TEAM COMING STRONG

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Aberdeen, Wash., Nov. 6.—The members of the Aberdeen Athletic association football squad left on this morning's train to meet the Multnomah team on the Portland club's field tomorrow afternoon.

Egerer, the clever quarterback, who has been out of the game for a time, is now back again and will direct the movements of the team during Saturday's game. He will also do the punting, and Purdy will hold the tackle positions. Champions Nesler and Shaw will be halfbacks and Herron will play at full back.

Aberdeen's line will be heavy with the exception of Purdy, who will play a tackle position. Jack Greer will play center, Phillips will be at right guard, where he is a star, and Gibson, another heavyweight, will play the other guard. Love and Purdy will hold the tackle positions. Flynn and Johnson have not yet been assigned positions, but will be used in the lineup when the game is played.

WHAT MAN MADE NATIONAL GAME?

President Pulliam Says Fellow Who Figured Out Size of Diamond.

"Who did the most to make baseball the interesting game it is?" This question was asked of President Harry Pulliam, of the National League, recently.

And the big chief of the organization was almost at a loss to answer. Several other baseball men present sought to assist Pulliam. "The inventor of the four-strike rule," said one, "did the most good for the game. He made cleaner, faster baseball possible, and I think the fans have enjoyed the game more since the new rule was adopted."

"It was the man who invented the round bat," put in Frank Richter. "The adoption of the round bat made the game uncertain, and it is the uncertainty of baseball that makes it so interesting."

"Diamond Man Gets Credit." "Although I agree with you to some extent," said Pulliam, "I must say that another man should be given more credit than any other person who had anything to do with perfecting the game. That man is the individual who laid out the diamond, who figured that the distance between bases should be 90 feet. To me it has always been a wonder how anyone could figure that the bases should be 90 feet apart. It is possible to beat a man to first by a perfect throw, but it is just possible for a runner to beat the ball to the base by a few inches in many instances. A throw must be almost perfect to retire a man running to a base, for he has almost as good a chance as the ball.

Can Just Make Base. "Then, when a player goes to steal second, he is charged to make the base on an imperfect throw or he can be beaten out by a few inches and often by several feet when the catcher makes a perfect throw. The chances of stealing third are much smaller, but it is possible. I often wondered whether it would have been a little longer if I doff my bonnet to the man who in laying out the diamond fixed the distance between bases at 90 feet."

ABERDEEN FEARS FOR ITS LOWLAND BIRDS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Aberdeen, Wash., Nov. 6.—The attention of the authorities in this county will be called to the flagrant violations of the game laws charged to some of the sportsmen in different sections.

Hunters have been reported as having killed ducks and geese far in excess of the number allowed by law in the western part of the county. In the eastern part, quail and Chinese pheasants have fallen victims to the weapons of the "game boys." Complaints have also been received of the wanton destruction of gull, coot, snipe, heron and other waterfowl. The extermination of these birds means the extermination of ducks and geese, as these fowls are the natural decoys for the waterfowl. It also means the loss of the excellent hunting now enjoyed by the sportsmen of this section.

HOLLADAY EASILY WINS FROM VILLAS

The Holladay Grammar school football team was much better than the team from the Montavilla school yesterday afternoon and had little trouble defeating them 30 to 0. Holladay overweighed their opponents several pounds to the man, and their team work was of much better class. Montavilla, while being fairly strong on defense, was not fully weak on offense and made two touchdowns during the game. The lineup: Holladay—30. Position, Montavilla—9. W. Hastings, L. E. R., Lewis, Glendon, H. G. R., Nelson, McMurray, L. G. R., Deveny, Z. Hastings, R. G. L., Haworth, Jackson, H. G. R., Blade, McAllen, G. Q., Teed, Soneau, J. H. R., Wright, Olsen, J. H. INTERSCHOLASTIC TO PLAY FOOTBALL TODAY

One of the best of the interscholastic football games will be played on Multnomah field this afternoon, when Columbia university and East Side High school come together in a battle over the figures of the football gridiron. The teams are about evenly matched as to weight and speed and the game is sure to be hard fought from the start.

California Winter Racing.

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 6.—The season of winter racing in California will be inaugurated tomorrow with the opening of the New Calumet Jockey club meeting at Emeryville. All indications point to a successful meeting. The club has substantially increased the value of the stakes and handicaps over the figures of previous years. The most notable increase is in the Burns handicap, which is to have a stake of $10,000 and money instead of $10,000 guaranteed.

Everything is in readiness tonight for the first interclub boxing and wrestling tournament of the season. The Seattle athletes, four in number, arrived in Portland this morning in tow of Billy Inglis and are putting up at the club. They are in good condition except Speck, who is scheduled to meet Henry Neicken in a four-round bout. Speck's condition may mean his defeat but he is a game and clever boxer and will no doubt give a good account of himself.

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Nov. 6.—When H. B. Blagrave, a personal friend of King Edward VII, reaches lower California, whether he is bound today, all that will remain of his expensive English wardrobe that he brought from abroad will be a pair of pajamas and the suit he wears. Blagrave, a devotee of rod and gun, brought with him from his estate at Colcat, Berkshire, four large Lincolnshire dogs, a secretary and other incidentals to his hunting trip.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Nov. 6.—Jim Barry, the Chicago heavyweight, said today that if he was victorious in his 10-round battle with Jim Flynn of Colorado, he would here tomorrow fight with Al Kaufman over the 10, 25 or 45-round route.

SEATTLE'S GOIN MUST BE SHOWN

Billy Inglis Says A.-Y.-P. Fair May Get National Championships.

Whether or not Seattle will have any athletics of importance in connection with the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition next summer, depends upon the financial appropriation to be made by the fair board. Seattle stands an excellent chance of getting the national championships of the Amateur Athletic union, provided sufficient inducements can be offered the eastern officials.

WORK OF GREATEST ETCHERS AND ENGRAVERS EXHIBITED

The black and white exhibition now of Oliver Goldsmith and bearing these hung in the Museum of Art, is well worth a visit. To those who have some familiarity with the processes by which the great engravers attained their ends, it is a source of great pleasure and profit. Some of the prints shown are extremely rare and all have been chosen with a view to illustrating the various processes and the characteristics of fine examples of this line.

A GOOD SUIT FOR A 10-SPOT. For $5,000 Inglis believes an excellent field can be made in the heart of the exposition grounds, and for an equal sum the easterners can be guaranteed that their expenses will be met. Inglis figures that another $10,000 cannot be spent so profitably in an advertising way.
