

IT'S ONLY ETHELINDA--SHE ENTERTAINS A CALLER

"WHY, MR. BARLEY! COME RIGHT IN!"

"DO YOU EVER READ TENNYSON, MR. BARLEY? I JUST ADORE HIM! I'LL READ YOU SOME."

"THE SPLENDOR FALLS ON CASTLE WALLS, AND SNOWY SUMMITS OLD IN....."

"THE MEAN THING WENT TO SLEEP! BUT I'VE BLOWN THIS BAG UP, AND I'LL SLAP IT NEAR HIS EAR. THAT WILL WAKE HIM."

DANG

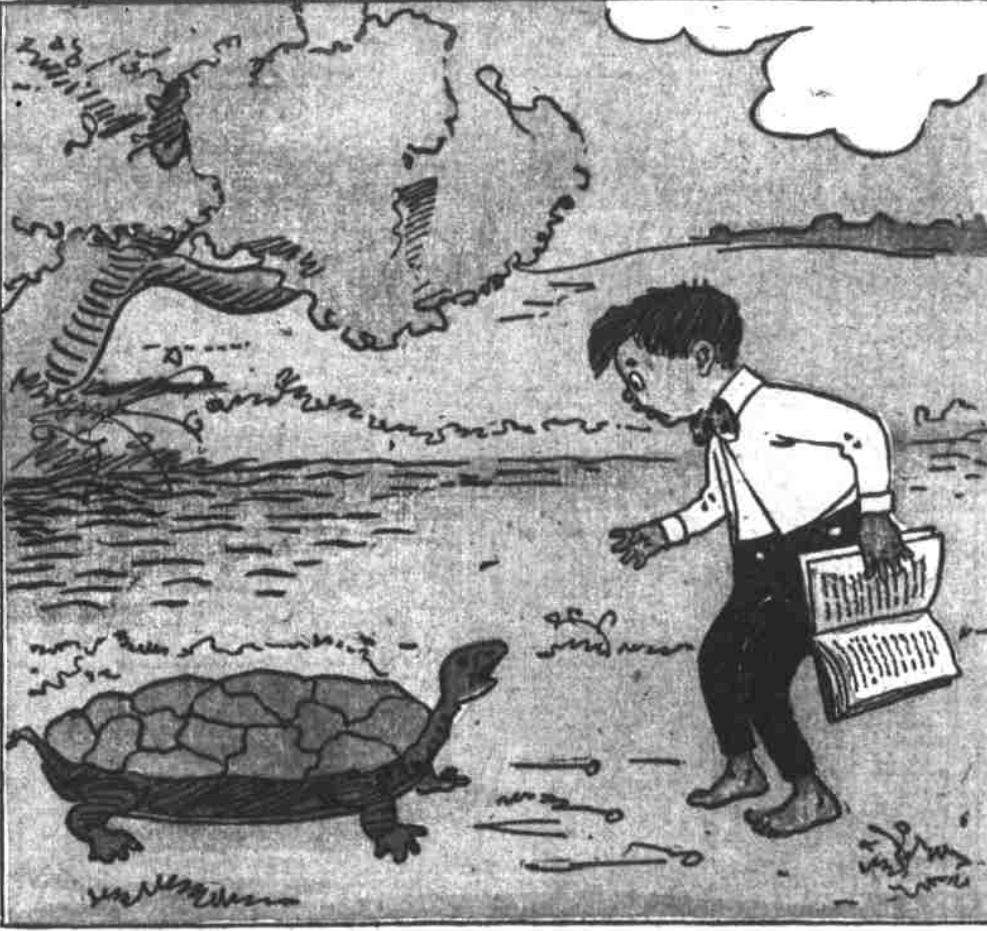

MR. BARLEY: "...AND SNOWY SUMMITS--BRRRRM!"

TED'S OBJECT SPELLING LESSON--T-U-R-T-L-E AND T-O-E

"Now T-U-R-T-L-E spells something—I'm sure of that. Maybe it is a great big horse, maybe it is a rat."

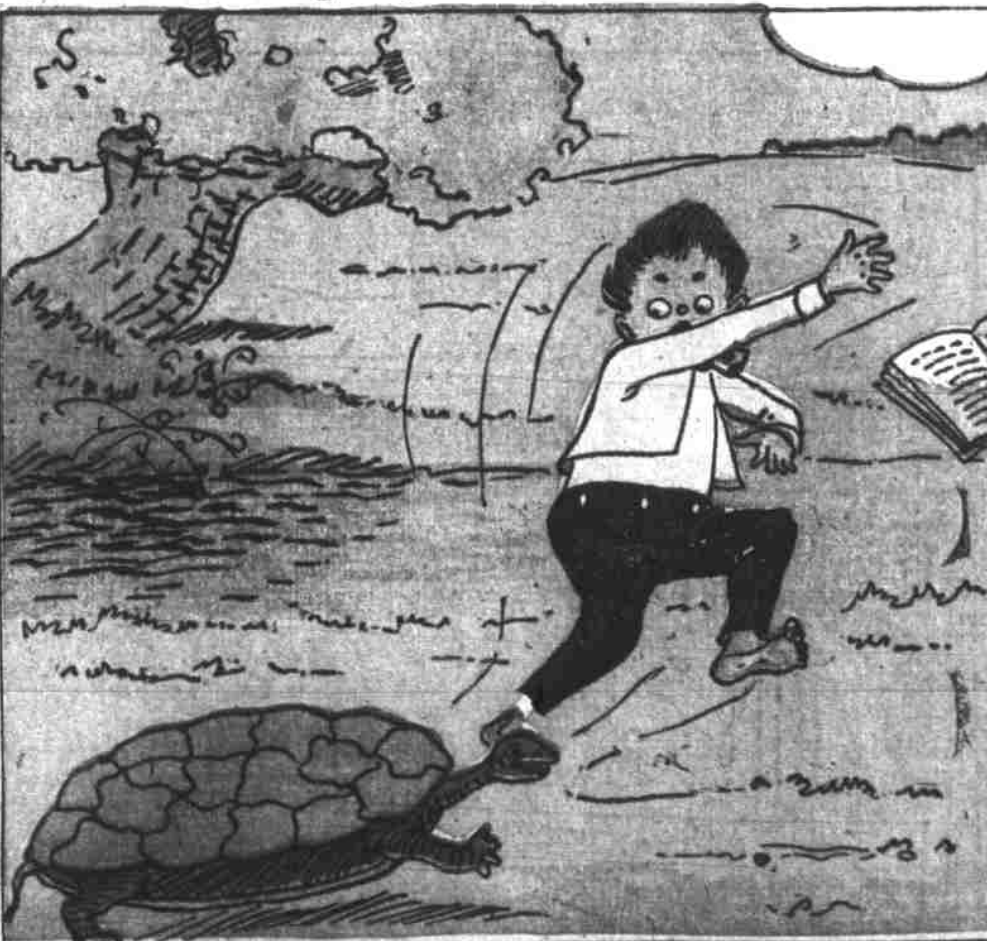

"Oh goodness gracious sakes alive! Why, here it is! Oh! Oh! A turtle—sure as anything! I'm glad now that I know."

"You look so big and strong, I think that I will take a ride." And straightway on that turtle's back young Teddy sat astride.

"The next word in my lesson is a short one—T-O-E—I wonder why my lesson is so very hard for me."

"Hi! hi! Ho! ho! Let go of me! You've got me by the toe. I cannot help to cry with pain because you hurt me so."

"T-U-R-T-L-E—turtle; that word I surely know; And T-O-E I can't forget, because it was my toe."

Fred Nankivel