

SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Two.)

Miss Alice Mulford and Mrs. Edna Robinson entertained a few of their friends delightfully at Elton Court last night. The apartments were decorated with autumn foliage, and various Halloween symbols giving forth weird and ghastly light. The hostess served a pretty supper table decorated in autumn style was brought out and appropriate refreshments were served.

A large bridge party was given yesterday afternoon at the Portland in honor of Mrs. Harry Beck, the bride who has just come from San Francisco. She was Miss Liebes and was prominent in social circles. The hostesses yesterday were Mr. Beck's sisters, Mrs. Ella Eisenbach, Mrs. Julius Levy and Miss Mabel Beck. There were 25 tables.

The antique shop opened by Miss Lois Steers and Miss Wynn Coman, the enterprising impresarios, in the Columbia building opposite their office, is a most interesting place and is visited by many folk concerned with the collection of rare articles.

Miss Maribel Seymour entertained at dinner Thursday evening for Dustin Farnum of "The Squaw Man."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCracken are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a small son.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

The La Gall Douzaine Five Hundred club gave a jolly Halloween party Saturday night at the home of Miss Laura Van Horn, 182 East Taylor street. The parlors were artistically arranged with autumn leaves, ferns and an abundance of pennants, while the dining-room was a profusion of yellow and green streamers, autumn leaves and jack o' lanterns. The table was decorated with roses, apples and popcorn. Covers were laid for 24. The centerpiece was a huge pumpkin filled with red apples. Gypsy fortune telling, games, music and a popcorn eating contest made a very enjoyable evening, followed by a delicious repast of pumpkin pie, sweet cider, apples and candy. The prize was awarded to Ethel Stiles and Earl Knowles for eating their popcorn first. Those present were the Misses Era Strickler, Edith Bern, Lilla Winters, Persis Billings, Betha Brough, Leah Brough, Leah Brough, Eva Mulkey, Laura Van Horn and Ethel Stiles and Guy E. Dobson, Westcott A. Carpenter, Earl Knowles, Edward Cable, William Mohr, Dugan Maris, Claude Patten, Bartlett Cole, John T. Edwards, William W. Loyal, McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. Van Horn.

The Oregon State Press club met with Mrs. La Barre at Richmond Wednesday evening. The program included an interesting address by Mrs. Lucia Faxon Additon, president of the club, who told of the meeting of the temperance congress at Saratoga, to which she was sent as representative by the governor of this state. She was invited, while there, to preside at the meeting of the department of the Woman's Congress, a signal honor among so many women. She was also sent as a delegate by the press club to the biennial meeting of the Federation of Women's clubs in Boston, and she told of that meeting. Mrs. Clara Bayrick Colby, editor of the Woman's Tribune, gave an account of her trip to Europe during which she visited in Amsterdam as one of the American delegates to the International Council of Women. She was in London at the time of the great demonstration of the women suffragettes and she gave an interesting talk and account of the position of English women. Refreshments were served at the close of the interesting program.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henry entertained with the first meeting of the members of the "P. F. Half Thousand Card club" last Friday evening at their beautiful home on East Twenty-eighth and Yamhill streets. Cards were played until 10:30, when the company was ushered into the handsome dining-room, where supper was served. The table decorations consisted of all kinds of Halloween novelties and were greatly admired. The club is composed of the following: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Menefee, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Boone, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Willett, Mr. and Mrs. L. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Boone, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. George Kendall, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Westermire, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miller, Mrs. George Kendall received the first prize, a beautiful brass vase. The next meeting of the club will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Westermire.

Misses Agnes Potter and Leslie Lawrence entertained a number of their friends Saturday evening at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Potter, 1071 East Lincoln street. The rooms were tastefully decorated with autumn leaves and jack o' lanterns. Halloween games were played, after which delightful refreshments were served by the Misses Leslie Lawrence, Sarah Stewart and Agnes Potter. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Potter, Mrs. M. James, the Misses Alta Black, Margaret Sinnott, Edith Carlson, Lillian Hake, Olive Hake, Faythe Lawrence, Edna W. Wern, Mildred Snelling and Enola Potter. Earl Truman, Ray Utter, Arthur McFadden, Ralph Altmann, Willie Clark, Willie Henkel, George Wishart, Frank Sinnott, Harold Rinnanman and Frank McCarthy.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice M. Binford delightfully entertained "The Merry-makers" at their home, 47 East Seventeenth street north with a Halloween party. The rooms were tastefully decorated with autumn leaves and jack o' lanterns. Prizes were won by Miss Legrande, Mrs. Satterlee and Mr. Russell. Their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. B. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Legrande, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Satterlee, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Binford, Miss Hazel Lee, Miss Bess Murray, Miss Legrande, Miss Genevieve Freerksen, Mrs. George Welles, Mrs. J. W. Grout, Clyde Shields, Newton Morgan, Arthur B. Draper, Alvah Grout, T. Legrande and C. M. Moore.

The friends of Mrs. P. F. Benson, of 605 East Main street, gave her a surprise party Thursday. The evening was spent with music and games. After the program, refreshments were served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Horn and son, Mr. and Mrs. Seis and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Swan, Mr. and Mrs. Clinckitt, Mr. and Mrs. Bitts, Mr. and Mrs. Rohr and daughter, Frank and Adolph Bitts, Mrs. Gay, Mrs. Schaffner, Miss Condon, Miss McGee, Miss Porter, Mrs. Dunbaugh, Mrs. Waller and Mrs. Benson and sons.

The Men's club of St. James' English Lutheran church held a very interesting and profitable meeting at the parsonage Thursday evening. Emil Enna gave an interesting lecture recital on Strauss' opera, "Salome," which was enthusiastically received. J. A. Clemenson gave an interesting address and Dr. J. B. Keefer and Mr. Carlson contributed vocal solos. Light refreshments were served.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of Centenary M. E. church met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. E. Waldfoel, 621 East Washington street. Mrs. B. F. Morden conducted the devotional exercises, after which the regular business of the society was transacted. A short program given by Mrs. E. P. Northrup, Mrs. J. B. Candlish, Mrs. O. G. Hughton and Mrs. J. O. Goltra was followed by a very interesting account of the branch meeting at Spokane in October by Mrs. W. H. Sawyer, who was the invited guest of the society. The pastor, Dr. Clarence True Wilson, spoke on the subject of the missionary spirit and fittingly, Miss Ethel Ballard gave a beautiful song. The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Gray, served dainty refreshments and a pleasant social hour was spent before adjourning to meet next month with Mrs. Wilson, mother of Dr. Wilson.

A pleasant surprise was given Comrade and Mrs. W. W. Gossett at their home in Lents, by Shiloh Circle No. 1, L. of G. A. R., on their forty-seventh wedding anniversary, which was also the comrade's birthday. Light refreshments were served, and the couple were presented with a beautiful silver berry spoon by the circle. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gossett, Mr. and Mrs. Christensen and daughter Gladys, Mr. and Mrs. Forester and daughter Pearl, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. William Heald, Mr. and Mrs. John Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. A. U. Powers, Mrs. Jennie Lyons of Portland, Mrs. Florence Hellen, Mrs. Letty Hembree, Mrs. Martha Cox, Miss Dorothy Cox, and Miss Matie Loyd.

The Swastika Five Hundred club met at the beautiful home of Mrs. E. J. Blazier and spent a very pleasant afternoon. A new member, Mrs. D. T. Watkins, was taken into the club. The prize was given by Mrs. E. J. Blazier. The club will meet at the residence of Mrs. Susie O'Brien next time.

Mrs. E. F. Weaver entertained the current literature department of the woman's club last week at her home, 182 East Taylor street. The program: A social hour followed the program.

WEDDINGS

Miss Celene La Fiemme and Frank Smead were quietly united in marriage Thursday evening by Rev. Henry Martocotte of the Westminster Presbyterian church. Miss Anna M. Wicks acted as bridesmaid and Louis Woodside was best man. After the ceremony the wedding party had dinner at the Perkins grill. Mr. and Mrs. Smead will be at their home, 213 Montgomery street, after November 16.

One of the prettiest church weddings of the season was celebrated at the Emmanuel Baptist church, Second and Meade streets, by Rev. A. B. Minacher, P. L. Abbott and Miss Helen C. Ordman were married. Promptly at 8 o'clock Miss Ethel Stark played the Lohengrin wedding march and the bridal party entered the church. The bridesmaids, Miss Gertrude Esser and Miss Bessie Gibbs looked pretty in pink silk organdy, carrying arm bouquets of pink carnations. Miss Hazel B. Ordman acted as maid of honor and looked dainty in heliotrope silk with large shower bouquet of heliotrope blossoms. Following her came the little ring bearer, Miss Frances Schroeder, in white, carrying the ring in a calla lily. Then came the bride, a handsome brunette, who wore white crepe de chine with full length veil and carried orange blossoms worn by her mother. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. She was given away by her brother, Tom C. Ordeman. W. R. Davis acted as best man and the ushers were Edward L. Ordeman, brother of the bride, and J. V. Guthrie. During the service "Annie Laurie" was softly sung by Mrs. Barnett. The church was prettily decorated with autumn colors and palms. A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, 349 Fifth street, for the immediate relations. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Meryl Whitcomb of Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Abbott left on the evening train for a trip to British Columbia and will be home to their friends at 542 Fourth street after November 16.

More than usual interest was the marriage in Philadelphia yesterday of George E. Ehrman of Portland to Miss Louise Schoff of Philadelphia. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Schoff of Philadelphia. Mr. Schoff is a prominent manufacturer, and Mrs. Schoff is a leader in women's reform work and has been president of the national congress of mothers for some years past.

Mr. Ehrman is a civil engineer of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Ehrman will come to Portland in a few days to reside.

Adolph W. Peterson and Mae West were married at 25 East Third street November 3, Rev. G. Hagos of the Norwegian Lutheran church officiating. Mr. Peterson is the son of Rev. and Mrs. N. Peterson of Santa Barbara, Cal. They will live at Clatskanie.

Julius Krieger and Miss Jennie B. Lion were married in the reception room of the White Temple Thursday afternoon, Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, D. D., officiating.

(Continued on Page Four.)

G. P. Rummelin & Sons

126 Second St., Bet. Washington and Alder

Black Lynx Stoles and Muffs.

Royal Ermine Neckwear and Muffs.

Sable and Mink Neckwear and Muffs.

Beaver and Otter Scarfs and Muffs.

Fur Coats

In Alaskan Sealskin, London-dyed; Alaska Mink, Persian Lamb, Astrakhan, Otter and Beaver.

Fur Rugs and Robes

SEND FOR CATALOGUE

STORE OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

Specials This Week

Drake and Swan Co.

415 Wash. St. Cor. Eleventh

Specials This Week

WHEN you hear remarks from a satisfied customer, such as: "No other place in the city have I had the attention I received in the purchasing and fitting of my suit." Many others: "The most reasonable place in the city, considering quality and styles shown." Overheard in passing our windows: "Isn't that a beaut!" Here's where I'll buy my suit."

Specials on SUITS

Continuing Friday's and Saturday's exceptional values, including new arrivals.

Reg. to $75 only $36.45
Reg. to $50 only $26.45
Reg. to $35 only $16.50

WAISTS Tailored Silks, Very Reasonable. Wash Waists, Nets and Extreme Novelties, Exceptional Values.

When here do not forget to look at our Silk Petticoats, ~~7.50~~ $4.45

Fixing Up a Bit for Thanksgiving Day? Let Us Help You

Special Sale on Buffets, Sideboards, China Cabinets, Turkish Chairs, etc., in Craftsman and Golden Oak Pieces

How About a New Range?

The Stewart Range will make your Thanksgiving dinner a pleasure. Stewart Ranges are fully guaranteed, fitted with oven thermometers and gas plates if desired.

Winter's Comfort

We have just received our holiday supply of easy Rockers and Morris Chairs, also a large assortment leather Turkish Chairs; prices lowest in the city.

A GOOD NIGHT'S REST

Unloaded a Car of Metal Springs

Spiral Spring with steel slats; worth $8, this week $5.00 for

A 25-Year Guarantee With Every Spring

Dining Furniture

We have still a large stock of China Closets, Buffets and Chairs that we are closing out at half price; now is the time to get a piece of dining room furniture at a bargain.

WE ALSO HAVE A LARGE STOCK OF HEATING STOVES OF ALL KINDS

Henry Jenning & Sons

Corner Morrison & Second Streets