

CHRISTIAN'S LIFE SHOULD BE FULL OF SUNSHINE

Dr. Oliver Van Orsdal, D. D., of McMinnville, was the speaker this morning at the meeting of the Baptist ministers and gave a straight talk to the pastors. He held that was necessary to make the church fill its rightful province and said that most churches through the fault of the ministers do not bring the practical help they should to the people. He lamented the presence of so many dead weights in the church who are there merely as members and who do nothing for the church's advancement.

responsibility of the faults in our churches lies with the ministers usually, and through them on the members where they are educated. Too much time is spent on books and theory and not enough on practical methods. "The minister of a church is always looking for the one that will draw the people, not the one who knows the most theology. And usually the crowd goes where such a man goes. But there should be some means of training our congregations so that they will remain; so that the strength of the church may be more than the strength of the man; so that men may come and men may go but the church will go on forever. We are usually so glad to get rid of a man that we forget to get rid of the church and give him no further teaching how to be useful there. But it is with these new members that we should start our new policy. Teach them that membership in the church implies cheerful giving, faithful attendance, and a willingness to do their personal work among their neighbors and a cheerful way of living.

STEAL WINE, BUT GO TO ROCK PILE THIRSTY

Before they had a chance to enjoy wine they had stolen, John Turcotte, Frank Erickson and James Rowland were arrested. Today they went to the Kelley Butte rock pile—still without having drunk the wine. It was a half gallon of sherry they had obtained from a man in the Central hotel, owned by Fecond and Burnside, and they were charged with having stolen $8 in cash.

The detectives, Tichenor and Howell, arrived while the thieves were preparing to enjoy to the fullest the stolen sherry. Though the detectives held the men accountable for having taken a book from a second man, an evidence was found on the latter to warrant more than a charge of vagrancy.
