

LA GRANDE IS HOST TO O. F. W. C.

Delegates Representing 50 Organizations Throughout the State Are Assembling in Convention Today—Three Days' Session.

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
La Grande, Or., Nov. 10.—Perfect weather ushered in the first day of the three-day convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs at this city. Half a hundred visiting delegates are in attendance and more are expected.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUNG MEN

A Showing From One Place of Business

Harold Newcomb.
This young gentleman is a full-fledged lens grinder, and has worked up to his present position from an errand boy. He is a young man of ability and energy—for such there are plenty of openings—not yet 20 years of age. He can grind and edge the most difficult and complicated lens, and has entire supervision of the lens-grinding department of Staples the Jeweler.

Ellis Ewing.
An Oregon-born boy, a fine and finished watchmaker, began as an apprentice in Staples the Jeweler's clock repair shop, and has kept climbing up until he is one of Staples' trusted watchmakers, capable, and drawing a good salary, has a family and his own home. A good workman and a splendid citizen. He began at the bottom.

Carl Greve.
Nearly every one entering the store of Staples the Jeweler thinks this young man is Mr. Staples' son. Many call him Staples. He is in full charge of the store from opening to shutting time. If you come in contact with him you will at once realize his worth, integrity and ability. Born at La Center, Washington, came to Portland 4 years ago, worked his way through high school and finally landed with Staples the Jeweler. Married and owns his own home. Do you wonder that Staples the Jeweler succeeds with such a bunch of young men, and these are only a out of 12 of his workmen. Now, young men get in with some good, reliable, live boss that does business on the square, that treats his men and the general public right. Get in with us, if you have to start at the bottom—remember you will surely get to the top before you are worth it in a short time.

to come. About 50 clubs will be represented. Masonic hall, the meeting place, is decorated with the convention colors, red, white and blue. Every member of the two clubs at La Grande, the Neighborhood club and the Lyle Tuesday Musicals, is wearing a red, white and blue badge. Every woman is a member on committee of one.

At 9 o'clock this morning the delegates began to gather. Two hours were consumed in registration. The convention was called to order at 10 o'clock. Dr. M. K. Hall, mayor of La Grande, delivered the address of welcome. Greeting from the entertaining clubs was given by Mrs. E. S. Ivanhoe of La Grande. Mrs. J. W. Sadler of Aurora responded. The hour preceding the adjournment for noon was given over to the reports of officers. Mrs. Kate Bingham, delegate to the Boston biennial convention of Women's clubs, made a pleasing address, and gave a report of that meeting.

This session was more interesting than the forenoon. At 1:30 o'clock the Lyle Tuesday Musicals chorused "Daffodils." The chorus was followed by the committee reports of the president, Mrs. Sarah A. Evans. "How the Club May Benefit the Mother" was given by Mrs. E. C. Moore of La Grande.

LANDIS' FINE
of it, and that the trial court had assessed an excessive fine and had gone beyond his power in hearing testimony after the jury had returned a verdict.

Last July the appellate court handed down its opinion on this writ of error petition, reversing the trial court and remanding the case to Judge Landis for retrial. This opinion, written by Judge Grosscup, contained what has been characterized as the most remarkable exhortation of one court by another in the history of the American bench. The opinion denounced Judge Landis in the worst terms, holding that he had really convicted the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, when it was not even on trial.

The opinion, referring to Judge Landis' decision, said:

Landis' Opinion.
"No monarch, no parliament, no tribunal of western Europe, for centuries has pretended to have the right to punish except after due trial under all the forms of the law. Can that rightfully be done here, on no other basis than the Judge's personal belief, that the party marked by him for punishment deserves punishment? If so, it is because the man who happens to be Judge is above the law."

On August 14 last, District Attorney Sims filed a petition for rehearing of the case before the appellate court, alleging that the circuit court had misunderstood and misapprehended the case before the appellate court, and that the circuit court's ruling, if sustained, would make of the Interstate Commerce Act a "mere will-o-the-wisp of legislation, a phantom statute."

Today's ruling was on this petition.

Republicans Honor Hadley.
(Special Press Leased Wire.)
Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 10.—With all the manifestations of joy attendant upon the first occasion that have had in 25 years to celebrate the election of a Republican governor of Missouri, the Republicans of this State today honored Herbert S. Hadley, governor-elect, tonight.

Help of fine quality, rivaling that of Kentucky in height, has been grown in Pennsylvania this year for the first time.
