

SCORES INJURED IN STREET RIOTS

Demonstrations by Socialists of Budapest Become Violent.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Budapest, Hungary, Nov. 11.—Scores of persons were injured in a violent demonstration by the Socialists on the streets in the heart of the city today before the police could interfere.

The mobs formed quickly after several meetings had been held at which agitators spoke. As the mob started through the street they became wild with excitement and the demonstration continued until the police and soldiers charged into the crowds and forced them to disperse. It is feared that further trouble will occur, as the leaders openly threaten another outbreak tonight. The Socialists are in sympathy with the Servians and are opposed to the attitude of the government in Belgrade.

WHIPS OUT GUN SALOONMAN DIES

Colonel W. H. Boule of Lima, Mont., Snuffs Jack Tony's Life.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Butte, Mont., Nov. 11.—W. H. Boule, constable at Lima, Mont., while intoxicated, it is alleged, shot and instantly killed Jack Tony, a saloonman at that place, yesterday, following a quarrel between the two men. Colonel Boule was leaving Tony's place when suddenly he whirled around, drew his six shooter and taking quick aim killed Tony in his tracks.

Colonel Boule is a prominent Republican politician among Montana, being elected constable last week. He is known as "The Mayor of Lima," as the result of the promise he has taken in all public proceedings. Colonel Boule is under arrest.

DRINK RUINS YOUNG LAWYER

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 11.—C. E. Young, former secretary to United States Senator John W. Daniel of Virginia, is in the city now awaiting trial on numerous charges of issuing fictitious checks for small amounts. The police have also wired to San Francisco to ascertain if the man, who formerly practiced law at Washington, D. C., and in California, is wanted in California, where he has led a varied career.

EARNINGS OF ST. PAUL ROAD SHOW GAIN

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Nov. 11.—The statement of the earnings of the Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad during the month of September shows the largest gain in gross of any road that has made its September statement public. While other roads showed gains, none showed a better condition and a greater increase of volume. The gross earnings for September were $1,058,872, an increase of $172,851 over September of last year, which was considered a good month.

JOSEPHINE IRRIGATION WORK

Local Company Elects Officers—Other County News.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Grants Pass, Or., Nov. 11.—All of the material for the new steel bridge across Rogue river in this city is now on hand, and work of construction will begin at once. The construction company hopes to have the new structure ready for traffic early in 1909. The bridge will have a width of 25 feet, and will be constructed to accommodate both wagons and cars.

The Josephine County Irrigation & Power company, the organization of which was perfected two weeks ago, and which is composed entirely of local men, has elected its officers and will at once proceed with the work of establishing an irrigating system for Grants Pass and surrounding district. The officers elected are: President, H. L. Gilkey; vice-president, G. H. Garner; secretary, J. C. Riggs; treasurer, G. A. Hamilton.

LAUNDRYMEN ORGANIZE

Officers Elected and Constitution Committee Appointed.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., Nov. 10.—The Willamette Valley Laundrymen's association perfected an organization at a meeting of laundries from all parts of western Oregon, held in Eugene. D. D. Olmsted of Salem was chosen president; E. L. Fisher of Eugene, vice-president; A. L. Simpson of Albany, secretary; W. Hodges of Eugene, treasurer. A committee on constitution and bylaws was appointed. The officers of the association are: President, D. C. Baker of Roseburg; Oscar Woodson of Cottage Grove; E. L. Strange of Corvallis. All laundries in the western part of the state, from Salem south to the California line, are eligible for membership, and nearly every laundry in the territory was represented at the meeting. Probably the most important matter discussed was that of purchasing all the supplies for the members of the association in bulk and establishing a central depot for their distribution. The depot will probably be located at Eugene, on account of its central position.

WHITE SALMON TRIP

100 Boxes of Fertile Valley's Fruit to Spokane.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Husum, Wash., Nov. 11.—The fruit products of the White Salmon valley will be well represented at the national apple show to be held in Spokane, December 7-12. As many as 100 boxes of apples will be selected from the orchards throughout the valley and placed on exhibition. Suitable space has been secured. The apples that will predominate in the makeup of the different varieties will be the Spitzenberg, Yellow Newton, Pippin, Winesap and Baldwin. R. McCracken, who has 40 boxes alone from his famous orchard, near Husum. This will be a record for the valley. The apples for the present and future industry of this valley, just coming into prominence as a result of the most successful fruiting season in the history of the White Salmon Commercial club will have charge of the exhibit.

BIG BOOSTER MEETING

Valley People Will Assemble at White Salmon.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Husum, Wash., Nov. 11.—Arrangements have been completed for a big booster meeting at White Salmon November 12. The enthusiastic citizens throughout the valley from Trout lake to the Columbia river have announced their intention of being present and assisting in the production of a thrift of the western portion of Klickitat county. The meeting will be for the purpose of devising a means of advertising this section of the county. Tom Richardson, manager of the Commercial club of Portland, and H. E. H. of the Commercial club of Seattle, and the coast representative agent of the Portland, Seattle & Spokane railroad, will be present and make addresses showing the benefits of community advertising.

OFFICERS SCOUR COUNTY

No Trace of Robert Miles, the Cattle Thief.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
North Yakima, Wash., Nov. 10.—Yakima county officers are now scouring for Robert Miles, the cattle thief, who broke jail at Goldendale in Klickitat county Sunday. After getting out of jail he secured a horse and a roan, and started for the Yakima Indian reservation. Miles and a boy named Harlan were arrested while driving a bunch of Klickitat county cattle toward North Yakima. At first they said they had been hired to drive them, but Mr. Miles confessed, but exonerated his companion. They were both being held in the Goldendale jail awaiting the next term of the superior court.

$15,000 FOR FACTORY

Iowa Men Invest in Venture at North Yakima.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
North Yakima, Wash., Nov. 11.—Several capitalists of Dubuque, Iowa, associated with two North Yakima men, will build a factory here for the manufacture of castings and malleable iron. The building is to be 40 by 100 feet in size and will cost $15,000. Arrangements are not sufficiently completed to make an announcement of the names of the promoters. They have in Seattle closing up the deal. It is expected to have the factory in operation before next spring. It will be the largest factory of the kind in central Washington.

COMPLEXION RECIPE

Obtain from your druggist the following: Two ounces Rose Water; one ounce Spirit of Cologne; one ounce Sarsaparilla. Put the Sarsaparilla in a pint of hot water (not boiling) and when dissolved, add the Rose Water and Spirit of Cologne; then strain through a fine cloth. Any large bottle will serve as a receptacle, providing it can be closed airtight. This mixture should be applied daily and will soon produce the ruddy glow of youth so desirable, but the treatment should be continued until the rosy tint of the skin is permanent. Powders and cosmetics can be discarded, as they will be found unnecessary if this treatment is continued.

REPAIR FIRES' DAMAGES

Weiser National Forests Will Be Re-seeded With Fir.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Weiser, Idaho, Nov. 10.—Supervisor J. B. Lafferty of the Weiser national forest, has received from the forestry department at Washington, D. C., a large shipment of fir tree seed that will be planted for experimental purposes on the reserve. Mr. Lafferty stated that the seed would be sown at two different times. The first planting will take place immediately, and will be carefully harrowed into the ground, while later on the second lot will be sown on top of the snow and be left to work its way into the earth.

Because of the fact that forest fires on the Weiser national forest destroyed considerable valuable timber and young growths of trees this land will be re-seeded and an effort made to have the same species started again. At the present time the forest rangers will be employed in making these experiments and preparing their stations for the winter, which will soon set in and prevent any further efforts along this line of work.

YAKIMA VALLEY'S FUTURE.

Country Is Rich in Opportunities for Investors.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
North Yakima, Wash., Nov. 11.—The productiveness of central Washington will be increased four-fold when the irrigation projects now in mind are completed. This is the statement of E. H. Libby, one of the pioneers of this valley, who left here in 1896 and opened the country around Clarkston. Mr. Libby has been in this section for several days, and has made a tour of inspection to White Bluffs and other points on the Columbia river in the territory that is just being opened by the North Coast. Mr. Libby would not say what was the special object of his visit, but it is believed that he is back of some big projects. He says that that section offers some wonderful opportunities for energetic young men.

GAMBLING RESORTS CLOSE

Reform Forces at Lewiston Win First Victory.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Lewiston, Ida., Nov. 11.—The first results of the strenuous election campaign conducted in Lewiston for the closing of the saloons is found in the closing of the open gambling. In the fight for a "wet" town the saloon forces won, but only after an alliance with elements that forced concessions from them. The first of these to materialize is the closing of open gambling. Last night the resorts that were running wide open closed voluntarily. Other reform movements are said to be afoot.

CURRY COAL STRIKE

Three-Foot Vein Is Discovered Near Wedderburn.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Gold Beach, Or., Nov. 11.—A three-foot vein of coal of good quality has recently been discovered on the Hume ranch five miles from Wedderburn. Mr. Hume will put a force of men at work at once to develop the property, and if found in sufficient quantity will ship from Wedderburn.

SOUL-MATE HITS HIM WITH CHAIR

Points Now Even Between Artist Earle and His Affinity.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, Nov. 11.—Ferdinand Pinney Earle, the artist whose claim to fame is the discovery of an "affinity," is nursing a black eye as the result of a collision between himself and a chair in the hands of the second Mrs. Earle, according to a neighbor to whom Earle ran for protection. The discovery that Earle's affinity was with a chair was made by Earle while he was quarreling with his wife, Charles Dayton, a neighbor of Earle, who was holding his head in his hands. "My wife hit me," yelled Earle. Dayton is certain he said "wife" and not "affinity."

AD PRIZE WINNERS

Eight Dollars Again Distributed to Readers of Want Ads.

Much more interest has been shown in the want ad contest than last week. Hundreds of replies came in from the city and surrounding towns. Although the contest is still in progress, the reading there were a great number of errors. It was gratifying, however, to find many who had read the fact that no electric piano was advertised at $150. This was done to ascertain how close the contestants scrutinize the want ad columns. The names of the prize winners of last Sunday are as follows: First prize, $3, William A. West, Price, 602 Kerby, Portland; second prize, $1, Mrs. I. B. Mercer, 695 Front street; third prize, $1, Charles E. Young, Jr., 45 East Fifth street, South; fourth prize, $1, Mrs. Havill, Milwaukie, Or.; fifth prize, $1, Lloyd Shannon, 811 Halsey street; sixth prize, $1, Mrs. G. H. Dier, Madras, Or. Checks for these amounts will be mailed to the above addresses.

PORTUGAL THREATENED WITH AN EPIDEMIC

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Lisbon, Nov. 11.—Declaring Portugal is threatened with an epidemic of leprosy, Dr. Zepherino Falcao of the Lisbon health department has begun a furious newspaper campaign for government action toward stamping out the disease. He calls attention, in an article in the "Seculo," to the fact that a trifle more than 1,500 leprosy cases are already registered throughout the country. This number, he adds, is a long way from being a negligible quantity. He asserts, too, that the disease is spreading rapidly, citing the daily fresh registration in support of his contention. The doctor attributes the outbreak to returning Portuguese emigrants from South America and explains that the Portuguese climate seems favorable to the disease, which is now beginning to appear among persons who have never left the country.
