SIDE LINE STORIES OF GREAT NORTHWEST

SENSATIONS ARE PROMISED.
Morrow Grand Jury Probes Alleged Illegal Liquor Sales.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Heppner, Or., Nov. 12.—Circuit court is in session and some sensational developments are expected. District Attorney Phelps and the grand jury are of the opinion that there has been more liquor sold and used in this county than is consistent with the prohibition law passed last June, and are sparing no effort to bring the offenders to justice. About 200 witnesses have been subpoenaed, and three indictments have been returned. Dr. C. C. Chick of Ione was indicted for selling liquor. Phelps pleaded guilty and was fined $150. Ed West of Heppner pleaded guilty to a like offense, but has not received sentence. Ray Jody of Lexington pleaded guilty to giving liquor to a minor and was fined $50. The grand jury has not completed its work and more indictments are expected.

LIGHTNING LEGAL WORK.
Frank Campbell Indicted, Tried and Sentenced in Three Days.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
The Dalles, Or., Nov. 12.—Frank Campbell, who burglarized a harness shop here Saturday night, was arrested by Policemen Craie, Gibbons and Mosbus Sunday morning on a charge of larceny of a building. Campbell was indicted by the grand jury Monday, pleaded guilty to the charge Tuesday evening, was sentenced Wednesday morning to serve two years in the penitentiary by Judge Bradshaw, and taken to Salem by Deputy Sheriff Glenn O. Allen the same morning.
The grand jury returned a true bill in the case of the state vs. Joseph Shaughnessy Tuesday afternoon. He is facing a charge of manslaughter, having. It is alleged, stabbed to death A. A. Wilcox, a local bartender, September 3, in this city. Shaughnessy pleaded not guilty before Judge Bradshaw Wednesday morning and his trial began today at 10 o'clock.

L. Austin pleaded guilty to a charge of forgery, and commitment will be made today. He was charged with attempting to pass a forged check on the E. C. Foscoe store last August.
The grand jury returned a true bill in the case of Alec Dalrymple for murder in the second degree. He was charged with the murder of Lee Putnam, whom he struck with a rock one night in July during a quarrel. The date of the trial of Dalrymple has not been set.

UNKNOWN SUICIDE FOUND.
The Dalles Woman Walks Onto Dead Man's Body.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
The Dalles, Nov. 12.—A gruesome find was made Tuesday morning by Mrs. O. C. Bowers, this city, who while out walking with her children in the sunshine found the body of a man, whom at first she thought to be asleep. He was lying on the hill covered with a blanket. Mrs. Bowers notified the coroner, C. N. Furgit, who removed the dead man to the morgue.
It is apparent that he committed suicide. A bottle labeled carbolic acid was found by his side, and his lips were burned by the acid. He was a laboring man, stranger, and was probably out of work and despondent. He had some provisions with him when found, in his pockets was a notebook in which was written "John C. Carlson." He was a man about 40 years of age.

Death Roll of the Northwest

John H. Larsen.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
North Yakima, Wash., Nov. 12.—John H. Larsen, 70 years of age, a pioneer of Oregon and an old resident of Vancouver, Wash., died here at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Spilawa of stomach trouble. Mr. Larsen was born in Denmark, coming to the United States when a young man. After two years in New York state he returned to Denmark. When the civil war broke out he crossed the Atlantic once more to offer his services to the Union army. He served under Sheridan and bore to his grave a scar of a sabre cut across his forehead received in a hand-to-hand encounter at the battle of Peterborough, when he was left on the field for dead. After the war he went to Kansas, where he married Hester E. Tilton, a native of Washington, Pa.
Mr. Larsen became a resident of The Dalles in 1874, later going to Vancouver, Wash., where he was engaged in business until six months ago. He is survived by his widow and five children: William and Lawrence Larsen, Mrs. A. J. Spilawa, Mrs. James Loudon of North Yakima, and Bert Larsen of Ellensburg. He had many friends among the early settlers of Yakima county and his funeral was attended by many pioneers and veterans of the civil war.

Mrs. Julia W. Bisbee.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Heppner, Or., Nov. 12.—Mrs. Julia W. Bisbee, 58 years of age, one of Morrow county's early pioneers, died of paralysis at her home in this city Monday. She leaves a son, Louis, junior member of the hardware firm of Gilliam & Bisbee of this city; a daughter, in California; three brothers, Silas A. Anson, E. and George E. Wright, well known stockmen of this county; and a sister, Mrs. Frank Gilliam of Heppner. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the M. E. church, of which she was a faithful and devoted member.

MRS. REED, DENVER DYNAMITER, BAILED
(United Press Assn. Wire.)
Denver, Col., Nov. 12.—Mrs. Allen Reed, charged with an attempt to dynamite Mrs. Lawrence Phipps and her five-year-old daughter Helen, was released today on a bond furnished by Dr. R. O. Butterfield and is at a local hotel under the care of physicians. The police continue their efforts to find the man, Leroy, with whom Mrs. Reed traveled from Chicago. H. Mason, a clairvoyant, stated at home, a bottle of this mixture, Reed, said the companion of Mrs. Reed is not the well known Oregon clairvoyant she claimed to be.

COMMENTS ON CATARRH
Giving Excellent Recipe for It's Quick Relief and Cure.
The only logical treatment for the malady is through the blood. A prescription, which has recently proved so wonderfully effective in preventing and following. It is an exceedingly simple mixture, but one that will bring quick results and put the system in a normal condition:
"One ounce compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla; one ounce 'Fris' Compound; half pint first-class whiskey. These to be mixed by shaking well in a bottle, and used in tablespoon doses before each meal and at bedtime."
The ingredients can be gotten from any well stocked drug store, and easily made at home. A bottle of this mixture should be in every family medicine chest on account of the manifold ills that it will cure, as well as being a most perfect tonic and system builder, the good results being felt after the first few days.

$60,000 IN YAKIMA.
Middle Westerners Invest in Valley Ranch Lands.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
North Yakima, Wash., Nov. 12.—Upwards of $60,000 from the middle west has just been invested in irrigated land in this vicinity. Samuel Fairbanks of Washington, Kansas, has invested $25,000 in the purchase of the home ranch of Mrs. W. W. Gamble on Nob Hill, and he has also bought 75 acres of reservation land for $15,000. S. W. Hopkins of Albert, Minn., has purchased 20 acres of Selah fruit land, for which he has paid the sum of $10,000. Dr. Campbell and James Friony of Rochester, Minn., have invested $4,200 in Cowichee dry land, the tract including 120 acres, and Mrs. Andrew of West Concord, Minn., has bought 10 acres of Cowichee dry land for $200. These last two tracts will go under the Tieton ditch, which is
