WINTER RACING NEWS

Nevada May Be Home of Racing for Twenty-five Years.

By Joe Murphy.
(Special News by Longest Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Nov. 14.—Another attempt to take advantage of the retirement in Nevada favoring a wide-open state is now being made. Thomas H. Williams of Emeryville, Cal., racing fame, has started a campaign to win candidates of the Nevada legislature for a 25-year charter for horse racing to be held near Reno.

It is Williams' plan to buy up a large tract of land and open the season there in the spring, continuing throughout the summer of each year. California's uncertain, if not unfavorable attitude toward the sport is given as the reason for Williams' move. While the plans of the California legislature are embryonic, it is understood that he with Jim May, the well-known Reno sporting man, has discussed the project for three months, and that they have an option on a piece of land south of town, which, in the event of the proposed legislation, will be used for a track site.

California winter racing season of 1908-9 inaugurated by the new California Jockey club, with the running of the opening handicap at one mile, late in the afternoon at San Francisco, the first of the season. Thoroughbred into his winter realm in this state is an accompanying period of soltity and increased circulation of money, which is annually regarded as a sort of heaven upon the bread of affairs. On Thanksgiving Day, the gates will continue at Oakland until May 1. Almost $1,000,000 will be given the owners and breeders of winning horses in California in a year, while one fixture, the Burns handicap, an event dearly beloved of all San Franciscans, will this winter have a value of about $25,000, placing it exactly on a par with the Suburban handicap, the Brooklyn handicap and the other convulsions of the world with every riding back east.

Of course, without good horses you cannot have good racing. By the same token you cannot expect high-class racing without high-class jockeys in the saddle. One thing is bound to be pleased with at California is the abundance of the best sort of riding material this winter.

With one or two exceptions the very foremost riders in the country will be in service in Arcadia and Emeryville this winter. Other names are still to be mentioned, but by a lack of efficient jockeys. For a time last winter at Oakland, Walsh, McIntyre and Miller were the best, but they were not in the best of health. The best of the winter was the field to himself, for naught but third rate boys were in the line opposed to him. Yet he was able to win a better horse to beat Miller's mount with the best jockey you could get. This season things about without a doubt are good, but without any one of them standing out too far above his mates.

This time Shilling appears to be the king-pin among all California riders. Miller has grown stale and seems to have lost his touch. The boy is trying to outdo nature in making anything less than 110 pounds. Next to Shilling, described by E. E. Moran as the best horseman seen in this country since "Tom" Sloan's day, we might place Notter or Powers. Notter will go to the front, otherwise he is racing there. Otherwise he and "Lucky Jack" McGinnis will try California.

Wherever the Anglo-Saxon lives there you will find concern in the racing of thoroughbreds.

Myron McIntyre, the veteran horseman who as a driver is in a class by himself, is an advocate of a change in the betting system of the horse track. McIntyre's leaning is toward the runners as well as the trotters makes his statement of "Heat betting," as he conducted at the present time, a plainly an act of robbery," stand out in bold relief over the weak bolsters of those who would rather see the sport merely to quench their greedy thirst for gold.

McHenry believes that the present day condition of the racing sport and the cause of its gradual deterioration is due almost entirely to the system of speculation in betting and ninety per cent of the scandal at present rampant will disappear. It is the forewarned in the betting man's mind that the sport is to start with," said the horseman, "where there is heat racing as we practice it in horse racing, and the heat racing is absolutely no limit for heats, wagering or allowing books to be made on the result of such and every heat from the start of the race to the finish is simply and plainly an act of robbery."

"The manner in which the heat betting is carried on in harness racing, to my mind, is equal to sandbagging men on our highways.

"At least 75 per cent of all scandals connected with trotting races are due directly to heat betting."

Papke has decided that he will take a flying trip to Harbin Springs prior to going into training for the contest, but the week of training will be spent at a sort of preliminary gallop to his main training stunts.

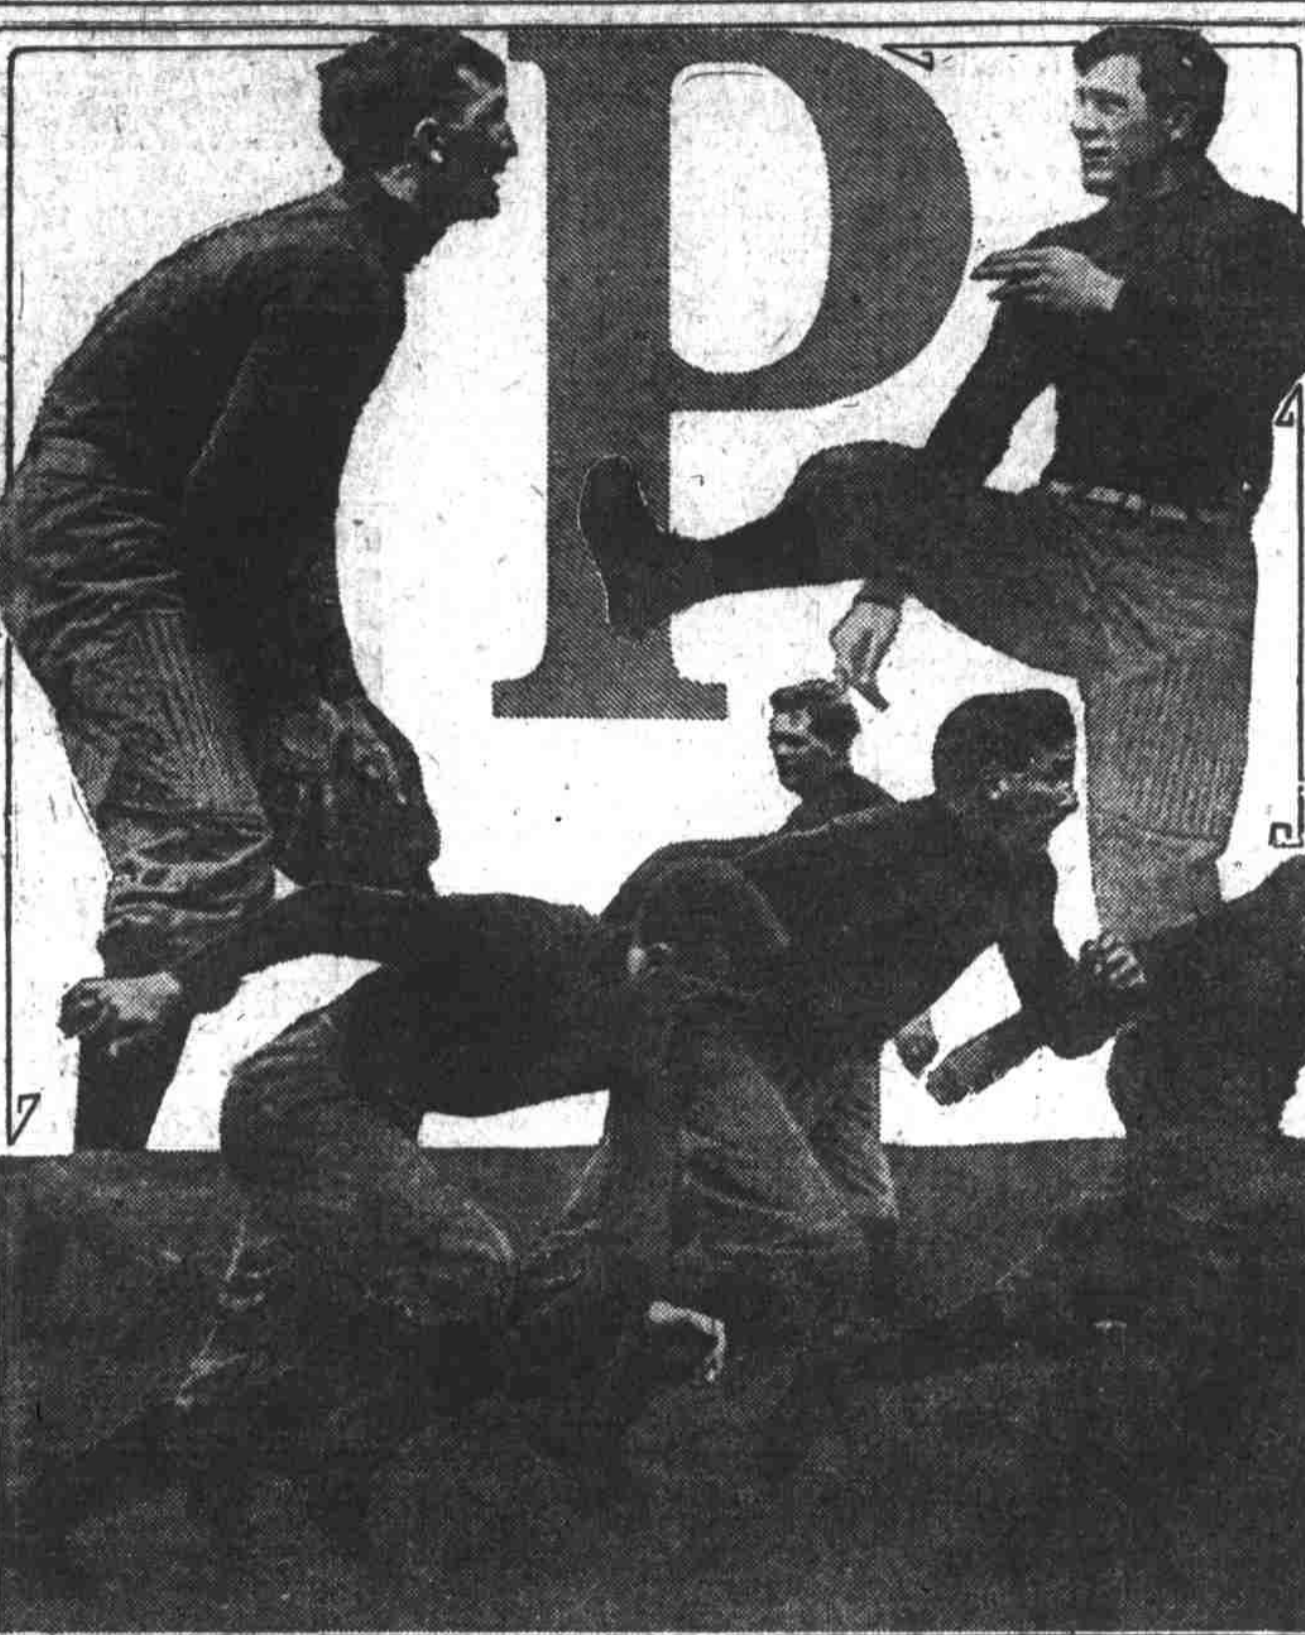

This contest is probably the biggest pugilistic attraction of the year, and in securing it San Francisco has once again grabbed the plum that most every promoter in the country would like to have had.

Jack Gleason will handle the affair, and now that he and Manager Joe Conroy have come to an agreement as to the splitting of the purse and the handling of the contest in general, everything has been done with the exception of selecting of the referee, and to us it looks as if it was foolish to try and lay hands on the man that will stop who is chosen. No one knows the mind of O'Connor on the subject, and Manager Gleason has no opinion as to who should be the third man in the ring.

Ketchel and Papke, when settled down to the real work, are going to attract a great deal of attention, and this can especially be said of Papke, for he is the new man and the fans are more than anxious to see him at his work.

Ketchel has proven a sensational performer in every start he has made in San Francisco, and Papke is just as sensational and has never been known to shirk his work with any fighter he has ever met.

SCHOOL GAMES END THIS WEEK

East Side High Meets Cadets While the West Side Plays Academy.

There is but one week more of inter-scholastic football left, Hill and East Side High meeting in the game which will decide the championship on Wednesday, and West Side High and Portland Academy meeting in their annual contest on Friday. After that all interest in football locally will center in the teams at Multnomah club.

Hill is likely to run up against a hard proposition in Wednesday's game with East Side. The East Siders are again playing the snappy ball which characterized their playing early in the season, but which was beaten out of them in the two games with West Side High school and Broadway High school of Seattle. During the past week Coach Rader has been working the team at top speed and an entirely new system of play will probably be shown the Hill team. Dr. Rader realizes that he cannot expect to gain through the Hill line on straight football, at least, and has set out to find a new way to gain through the team at Multnomah club.

For gaining by straight football, Donson, Hill and Meier, the Cadets' back field, will be approached by the boys' team in the league, while S. Graham, the tackle, is also good for a substantial gain at most times. This attack will be a line that has not been ridden all season gives them a fine team. Not a team in the league has been able to gain through the line consistently.

The teams will probably line up much the same as they did in the last games.

ALASKAN DOG TEAM OUTRUNS RACEHORSE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Nome, Alaska, Nov. 16.—One of the most interesting races ever witnessed on Seward Peninsula was a race between a racehorse and dog team here, the dog team winning by 50 seconds in a 1000 yard race.

Since that awful afternoon at the polo grounds I have been unable to sleep for more than an hour or so at a time. Merkle's actions, friends, for the question of a horse race compared with a dog team race brought out the partisans of both sides and a contest for $1000 a side was quickly arranged.

PIGEON FANCIERS WILL SHOW IN CALIFORNIA

The California Pigeon club will hold its third annual exhibition of fancy.

KETCHEL DEVELOPING NEW PUNCH FOR PAPKE

San Francisco, Nov. 16.—Stanley Ketchel is being coached by his trainers and manager to devote most of his attention to perfecting a body punch for his coming fight with Papke, as it is said that the Illinois Thunderbolt doesn't like to receive wallops in the stomach. The latter was told that Owen Moran, also, but the little Briton took them just the same.

However, it will do no harm for Ketchel to master a few punches of this kind and as he is a terrific walloper, it doesn't matter where one of his blows this sport merely to quench their greedy thirst for gold.

McHenry believes that the present day condition of the racing sport and the cause of its gradual deterioration is due almost entirely to the system of speculation in betting and ninety per cent of the scandal at present rampant will disappear. RED HOT GOSSIP FOR BABID FANS

Spokane Gets Catcher Ostiek—Hans Lobert One of Fastest Sprinters.

If the American association and Eastern league persist in staying without the pale of the national agreement, the Pacific Coast league may expect to see even classier ball than last season. The fast youngsters who revert to the class A leagues, will be divided among the Southern, Western and Coast circuits.

There is considerable speculation among the baseball fraternity as to whether or not Hans Lobert isn't the fastest footster in the world. Three watches caught Lobert reeling off the century in 4.6 seconds in the Cincinnati baseball field. The Cincinnati third baseman wore his heavily padded baseball suit and stiff spiked shoes, going over an uneven, turf-covered field. What might be had done in the suits and shoes used by spinters.

According to Spokane reports Manager Bob Brown has created a master stroke by purchasing Catcher Ostiek from Boston for $1,000. Ostiek is the backstop McGredie came near getting last year but secured Tom Madden instead, when Boston traded Ostiek to Toronto in an exchange of securing a honey. Ostiek ought to make a good man for Spokane, and Brown should be complimented on getting him.

Local fans are expecting to hear some good reports from Walter McCredie with regard to new players. Mac is now in the east doing a little scouting on his own hook and according to advices received here has some that will interest the Portland fans, safely concealed up his sleeve.

The Pirates again are threatened with the loss of their great batsman, Hans Wagner. The "Flying Dutchman" and his brothers, Al and Luke, have entered into a contract to promote a stock company to run a circus, which will be put on the road next spring. Hans has declared that he might quit baseball and give his personal attention to "the show." The circus will be capitalized at $15,000.

Manager McGraw of the Giants has killed whatever chance there was of Roger Erenahan becoming manager of the St. Louis Cardinals. McGraw says that under no circumstances will he grant the great catcher his release and the New York club would be weakened into a second division club without his services.

Kid Elberfeld is negotiating for the purchase of the Portsmouth team of the Virginia state league. Al Orth, the ex-Yankee pitcher, secured a controlling interest in the Lynchburg club last year and met with such success that Elberfeld is desiring of securing a minor league club. Elberfeld is living at Lynchburg, and it is believed that Orth has used his influence in getting him interested in the Portsmouth club.

According to a decision in the criminal court of Memphis, Tenn., a baseball player cannot about fear of imprisonment or fine defend himself against sarcastic remarks from the fans when the player is in uniform. The clash in the court originated last summer when Catcher Huriburt of the pennant-winning Nashville team landed on the jaw of A. C. Stratton, a local merchant, who was denied recourse by a jury today. Stratton had called Huriburt a "ham fat."

BONEHEAD MERKLE NEAR TO COLLAPSE

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Fred Merkle, whose careless base-running lost the National league championship for the New York Giants, and who has been torn to pieces by baseball writers, paragraphers and cartoonists all over the country, is on the verge of a nervous collapse, the result of his unfortunate lapse of memory.

"Since that awful afternoon at the polo grounds I have been unable to sleep for more than an hour or so at a time. Merkle's actions, friends, for the question of a horse race compared with a dog team race brought out the partisans of both sides and a contest for $1000 a side was quickly arranged."

New York, Nov. 15.—Many celebrated racing and show horses were on the list to be sold at the annual "Old Glory" sale which was opened in Madison Square this morning and will continue through the greater part of the week. The prominence of the horses to be disposed of led to marked interest in the occasion and a number of well-known horsemen from various parts of the United States and Canada were present. Prominent among the consignments is the entire Dreamworld racing stable of Arnold Lawson, formerly property of Thomas W. Lawson of Boston.

LOST VITALITY

"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine, but a broken spirit drieth the bones."—Proverbs 17-22.
The above quotation from the Old Testament is not a mere proverb. It is a fact. If you are older physically than you are in years, "spirit broken," despondent, run down and discouraged, take a hint from the above text and act accordingly. Don't make up your mind to look after your health by hand-by-hand. Let it lead to never-action corrects mistakes, despair and neglect increases them. There is one little epigram that if adhered to will make a man all that he can ever hope to be in this world in health and wealth—it is to "not put off until tomorrow what should be done today."

I take broken-down wrecks of humanity, whether from past indiscretions or whatever cause, and build them up as strong as their fellows.

I Make Men Strong

Enough to succeed in the battles of life, because skill and experience have taught me how. Don't fool your time or money away on body batteries or electric belts. Men have written me that their testimonial were used without their consent and were not true. I keep them on file to protect this statement. You can get more electricity for a penny for penny amusement, than is contained in the biggest body battery fake on the market. There are failures in all walks of life. When a preacher goes wrong he says the church is composed of hypocrites; when a lawyer is a failure he attributes it to anything but the lack of brains. When some doctors are no good electricity streams from every finger tip and every pore from the effects of a 750 tin button (in pictures only) at so much per. Gentlemen, be sensible and serious. If you get cured of an ailment you want it to be a real cure and a lasting cure. If a doctor is able to do this he is willing to wait for his pay until you are cured. That is our plan, but it is not the plan of any electric belt agency in this country and the reason is plain.

Our entire time and practice are devoted to the cure of BLOOD POISON, VARICOCELE, STRICTURE, LOST VITALITY, ERECTILE DYSFUNCTION, FISTULA, DISEASES OF THE KIDNEY, BLADDER, PROSTATE GLAND, CONTRACTED DISORDERS, WEAKNESS AND ALL DISEASES COMMON TO MEN, and the fee for any uncomplicated ailment is $10.00

A patient desiring treatment can pay cash and get discount, or in payments to suit circumstances, and the benefit is plainly apparent or, if desired, CAN PAY WHEN CURED.

If you have made mistakes in the past correct the mistakes. Consultation and advice free. If you cannot call at office, write for self-examination blank—many cases cured at home. Medicines $1.50 to $4.50 per course.

HOURS—9 A. M. to 5 P. M. Sundays, 10 A. M. to 12.
