

PRINCE CHING HAS BECOME PROMINENT

Situation Made More Complicated by Sudden Rise of Father of Aspirant to Throne of China—Finances Totter.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Pekin, Nov. 17.—Prince Ching, president of the board of foreign affairs and head of the army, has risen suddenly to be the most prominent figure in China. Even Prince Chun, the regent, has asked the support of Prince Ching, who is now guarding the imperial palace with several hundred selected men. The situation is particularly tense since Prince Ching is the father of Prince Tsai Fu, who is one of the claimants to the throne and who is on his way to the United States as envoy extraordinary to express thanks for the remission of the opium indemnity.

Among the many eventualities which are conjectured is that Ching might gain control of the government and put Tsai Fu upon the throne yet. The financial situation is extremely grave. Over 20 exchanges in Peking have been suspended by the double death in the royal family. Native banks are having great difficulties and many are in danger of suspension.

SCANDAL ABOARD REVENUE CUTTER

Captain of Thetis Disciplines Lieutenant and Chief Engineer.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Wash., Nov. 17.—Reports which have preceded the coming of the revenue cutter Thetis, now in northern waters, where she is delayed by stormy weather, state that several of the members of the official staff of the vessel have been placed under arrest and that an official investigation will be demanded from Washington, which will evolve a big scandal among officers of the Thetis.

From reports received, the cruise of the Thetis in northern waters has been marked by friction among the officers and several of them have been disciplined by Captain Henderson. It is stated that Lieutenant Miller was placed in irons and that trouble between the commander of the vessel and Chief Engineer Albert C. Norman resulted also in that officer's being disciplined. Lieutenant Hay, according to Washington advices, was arrested for drunkenness, but because his services were needed aboard the vessel he was released to duty. Lieutenant Hay was appointed to the service from Pennsylvania. Engineer Norman was appointed from Kentucky.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Captain Worth G. Ross, chief of the revenue cutter Thetis, is absent from Washington and no authoritative statement could be obtained in regard to the report that Chief Engineer Norman and Lieutenant Hay of the cutter Thetis are now on the way to Seattle from Unalaska in irons. It was learned that Lieutenant Hay was arrested six or eight weeks ago charged with drunkenness while his ship was off Nome. He was under arrest for a month or so, but as no trial could be had until the vessel returned south, and as his services were needed, Lieutenant Hay was restored to duty. Nothing is known here of the report that Chief Engineer Norman is in trouble.

BRING BAPTISTS HERE NEXT JUNE

Sixteen hundred people, representing the 18 Baptist churches of the city, attended the fourth annual rally of the Baptist churches of Portland at the White Temple last night. An effort was made to work up enthusiasm for the northern Baptist convention, which is to be held here next June. The Baptists hope to be able to induce 1,000 laymen to attend the convention, in addition to the large number of clergymen who will be present.

Dr. Broucher, speaking on this subject, advanced the idea that perhaps the White Temple would not be large enough to hold them all, and declared that in the near future he intended to try to induce the commercial bodies of the city to take up the work of securing the erection of a large convention hall capable of seating 5,000 or 6,000 persons.

At last night's meeting the following men were chosen members of the board of city mission union: E. W. Stone, Will S. Hale, W. L. Morgan, O. P. Ransom, F. B. Rutherford, James F. Falling, B. Young, Alex. Scott, E. M. Runyan, W. B. Hall, E. Sweet.

League at San Francisco Receives Hearty Moral and Much Financial Aid—Call for Honest Men to Stand Firm.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 17.—Hundreds of replies to the call issued by the Citizens League of Justice to rally in support of law and order were received today at the headquarters of the executive committee. The response contained offers of financial and moral support and in some instances physical aid was promised.

The call issued yesterday afternoon under the heading, "Time for Citizens to Stand Together," reads: "The Citizens League of Justice issues a call to all honest citizens to enroll in the cause of justice and public decency, to aid in the establishment of a clean and honest press, and a clean and honest city. Under no circumstances must we allow our citizenship to relapse into that state of apathy which preceded and made possible the shooting of Francis J. Heney.

"The shot that felled Heney has aroused the spirit of manhood in this city. The great mass meetings of determined and law-abiding citizens of Saturday have confirmed in us that spirit and that awakened manhood. That spirit must live. That manhood of San Francisco must never fall again. That shot is our call to enlist in the cause of justice—in the cause of a brave and honest city.

"Citizens, let us stand shoulder to shoulder against every dishonest power and every depraved purpose. The Citizens League of Justice calls upon every brave man and good woman to join in this cause, to enroll in its ranks. "It calls upon you who hear this call to serve the city, to preserve its laws, to lift up its fair name. "To this end, join the ranks of the Citizens League of Justice. Send in your name and address to the Citizens League of Justice, 241 Pacific building. "If, in addition to joining the ranks, you wish to contribute to the fund for the campaign for justice, sign the campaign pledge of $1 a month, or whatever you wish to contribute, and send the pledge with your name to the Citizens League of Justice. "An honest dollar for an honest city will offset a thousand for its corruption. We must all stand together. Signed, "THE CITIZENS LEAGUE OF JUSTICE, by the executive committee. Assistant Treasurer, Washington. (United Press Leased Wire.) Aberdeen, Wash., Nov. 17.—John G. Lewis, state treasurer-elect, has announced the appointment of W. W. # CANALS ALONG ATLANTIC COAST

Deep Waterways Men Meet at Baltimore on Important Project.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Baltimore, Md., Nov. 17.—The Atlantic Deep Waterways association, which was formed for the purpose of arousing public interest in the plan of constructing deep inland waterways all the way from Boston to Key West, opened a three days' session here today. The attendance is unusually large and every state along the Atlantic coast is represented, as well as the gulf states and several other states not contiguous to the sea or any part of it.

The principal matter before the meeting is the discussion of the plan suggested in a resolution adopted by the meeting of the delegates from the Atlantic seaboard states, held in Philadelphia some time ago. The plan recommended by the Philadelphia conference contemplates the opening of ship canals and deepening of intervening rivers and approaches from Norfolk, Va., southward to Key West, Fla., from Chesapeake bay to Delaware bay, and from the Delaware river to the Raritan river, and across Cape Cod, along the lines approved by congress as the most practical. It is proposed that the work shall be undertaken by the federal government and that all the canals and waterways shall be free. Many prominent men are among the delegates and the list of speakers includes Congressman J. Hampton Moore, president of the association; Governor Crothers of Maryland, Mayor Mahool of Baltimore and many others.

SECURE CHANGE IN ACT HIS AIM

Senator Charles W. Fulton has promised members of the Oregon & Washington Lumber Manufacturers' association that he will take his proposed amendment to the interstate commerce act before the coming session of congress with hopes of having it adopted. The amendment was introduced at the last session of congress and referred to the committee on interstate commerce and there it rests.

The proposed amendment is to the effect that in future if a railroad desires to alter its tariffs on a commodity it must before making the change submit the matter to the interstate commerce commission for approval. As the matter now stands the railroads make the desired change and leave it to the public to come before the interstate commerce commission with their complaints after the new rates have already been established. In other words, it is contended, that the remedy is not available until after the injury has been inflicted.

Senator Fulton started for Washington Sunday and he promised then that he would leave no stone unturned again to bring the matter before congress.
