

WHITMAN TO GET HALF MILLION

Reported That Dr. Pearsons Will Make Generous Donation — Educational Congress Closes With Elaborate Banquet.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Walla Walla, Wash., Nov. 19.—The educational congress closed last night with a monster banquet, tendered Dr. D. K. Pearsons, in the gymnasium of Whitman college, which was transformed into a huge dining hall. Tables were prepared for 500 guests and all were filled. Letters were read from Albert E. Shaw, editor of the Review of Reviews, and Gifford Pinchot, chief forester, expressing their regrets that could not attend. Howard Elliot, president of the Northern Pacific, sent a telegram expressing his regret.

A. L. Miller of Portland was the first speaker. He was introduced by George Turner of Spokane, who was toastmaster. In his official capacity as president of the board of overseers, Mr. Miller represented Harvard. He spoke with regret of the fact that President Elliot was not able to be present. He said that Oregon offered Whitman the right hand of fellowship. H. Livingstone of Portland followed him. He spoke briefly as he had to leave on an early train.

FOOTPADS BUSY DESPITE POLICE

Keep Away From Guarded Carline Terminals but Work Elsewhere.

In the hopes of apprehending the polka dot thugs last night, Chief Gettmacher ordered Captain Moore to instruct the men on his relief to watch the terminus of the different streetcar lines, but the diligent efforts of the bluecoats failed to bring forth any new clues as to the whereabouts or identity of the robbers who held up the Brooklyn car Monday night and an "S" car Tuesday night.

Whether the thugs became aware of the presence of the police at the ends of the streetcar lines or were simply resting on the fruits of their crimes of the previous nights is a matter that remains to be solved, but it is expected that the stick-up men will soon show their heads again.

The police believe that, encouraged by the success of their two previous jobs, the men are certain to make further attempts either on the streetcars or on pedestrians. No one answering the description of either of the thugs has been apprehended and unless the robbers are caught while at work there seems little prospect of causing their arrest or of learning their hiding place.

The detectives have been instructed to visit all the pawnshops in search of the watches stolen from the car crews, but it is evident that the thugs are disposing of their loot to confederates in other cities or are waiting until the police have given up the hope of apprehending them.

Two highwaymen held up Henry Scharren, who lives at 365 Twenty-first street last night, but owing to their appearance and the fact that they were wearing good clothes the police hesitate to say that they believe them to be the same men who held up the streetcars. It would be possible, however, for the thugs to have supplied themselves with new outfits from the haul of the first two nights of the week. Scharren had only a little small change with him of which the robbers relieved him.

A laborer named John Norenska was strong-armed at the union depot and forced to hand over what little money he had. His description of the highwaymen, who did not wear masks, resembles that given by Scharren.

PLEASANT THIEF STEALS SHIRTS

Another case of burglary has been added to the police record, which is already swollen out of shape with the number of crimes that have been reported lately. Although a police record of crimes for the entire country states that Portland has fewer for a city of her size than any other city in the United States, it is evident from the present flood of Portland is getting hers in a bunch.

John Mahoney, who rooms in the Pleasant hotel, Third and Taylor streets, found that things were not so pleasant in those apartments after all, on returning to his abode a few nights ago. Someone had entered his room and stolen five shirts and $11. The man who stole his effects, he believes, is a man whom he had befriended and whose name is Ed Wacoda. Mahoney has furnished the police with a full description of the alleged robber.

Within six months we have been twice threatened with suits if we don't crawlfish, and these fellows have sent us intelligence about what they were going to do to our countenance when they saw us. We haven't back peddled yet, and are proceeding on the theory that the other fellows went blind.

LAWYER FINDS ECZEMA CURE

Attorney at Moline, Ill., Writes How He Was Induced to Try Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

There is nothing that will convince a lawyer except evidence.
Now, here is some rather startling evidence of a simple home cure for eczema which convinced one lawyer, P. C. Entriken, attorney at Moline, Ill. He tells how oil of wintergreen compound mixed with thymol and glycerine, as in D. D. D. Prescription, cured him 20 days after 32 years of suffering.

"For 32 years," writes Attorney Entriken, "I was troubled with eczema, scabs all over my face, body and head. I could run a hair brush over my body and the floor would be covered with scales enough to fill a basket. I tried everything, salves, internal medicine, X-Ray—all without result. Last winter the college at Iowa City wanted me to come there and show my case to the students. I said, 'Cure me and I will come.' They said, 'no cure, so I did not go.'

"Just a month ago I was induced to try D. D. D. Prescription. The itch was relieved instantly, so while I had little hope of a cure, I continued to use the remedy. It is just a month now and I am completely cured. I have not a particle of itch and the scales have dropped off.

"I can only say again CURE DISCOVERED. I am now starting all eczema sufferers on the right track."
The explanation of Mr. Entriken's cure in the D. D. D. Prescription, unlike any other remedy, is a penetrating liquid; it gets into the skin, not over the skin. Its mild, soothing ingredients build up the tissue, and at the same time numbing, then killing, then removing the eczema germs. Cure after cure has been brought to our attention and always that instant relief from the awful itch.

The New Style Coats Out

But Will Not Be Ready for Unlimited Delivery Till Friday or Monday

Cuts displayed in this ad are not the new-style Coats, but are cuts of the Coats we are selling at HALF PRICE, the same style Coats as are being sold around town at full price. Got all dealers in the entire Northwest skinned a mile of city blocks. None of them have the coat—can't get it; don't know where to get it if they could; couldn't get it made if they had one, and they would hate to anyway—for it's J. M. Acheson's, and three big Eastern garment-making establishments' coat. J. M. Acheson just returned from New York, where he went to make arrangements for the bringing out of this style of garment. He went East late on purpose, so the wealthy dealers could not steal the garment. The style of this Coat already foreshadows Spring styles in Suits and Jackets, so you may know it is an innovation in garment styles. It is from the present Fall styles as great and as beautiful a change as happened five years ago when the Monte Carlo Coat came out, and you will remember the Monte Carlo came out late, nearly November 1, by prominent New York designers.

THIS NEW STYLE COAT

has been pronounced the most beautiful, practical and sensible Coat that has appeared for years, even rivaling the famous Monte Carlo. For, mark you, anyone can wear it, and it looks splendid on anyone—stout ladies, slim ladies, short ladies, tall ladies—it suits them all. You may well know that we would not dare do this (tell you not to buy a coat) if we didn't have the Coat; for we now have hundreds of this Fall's style Coats (elegant Coats of their style, such as are being shown in all Portland stores and the entire United States). But we don't want you to get bit on an old-style Coat at a big price, so we advertise some days ahead of the time we can deliver new Coats for you not to buy a Coat till the new-style Coat get here. We have shouted this advice just as soon as we received the first advance samples (which we did yesterday; six of them). These samples have been at once distributed to different places in the Northwest. The Coat will also this week appear in the East—in Chicago, Detroit, St. Louis, New York—and Acheson & Co. is in on the sale of the Coat back there, and don't you forget that. Kind of funny, ain't it, for us to go to all the trouble and expense of writing all this when we only have two samples of the New-Style Coat in our house. It must be an elegant garment to merit such confidence; but it's a fact, just the same. And these two are spoken for, sold; but we won't let them go until we get in others. However, Ladies, we will show you our confidence. All present-style Coats, to clean them out, go AT HALF PRICE

All who want these present-style Coats—Empire, Directoire, Full Nippon, Princess, Empire, half-fitting, tight-fitting, etc., in all the different kinds of cloth (Broadcloth, Black, Blue, Brown, Green, Kerseys, Tweeds, Elegant Grays, Stripes, Tans), all kinds at HALF PRICE on Ladies', Misses' and Girls' Coats. Just the regular selling price this means: $10 Coats for $5; $11 Coats for $5.50; $12 Coats for $6; $15 Coats for $7.50; $18 Coats for $9; $20 Coats for $10; $25 Coats for $12.50; $30 Coats for $15; $35 Coats for $17.50; $38 Coats for $19; $40 Coats for $20; $45 Coats for $22.50; $50 Coats for $25, etc. Now, if you want snap and bargain, come and get them. Mr. Acheson while in New York secured a big bunch of extra good Suit Bargains for you—took all the cloth a big factory had, and this manufacturer is considered at the top of the bunch there. Well, Acheson took all the fine Suitings he had left, had it made up into certain styles, both new and practical, just what you want, the finest goods they had, regular from $40.00 to $50.00 stuff. He got it all made up into snappy bright style suits so that we are enabled to give $25.00 A BARGAIN WE ARE SURE

NOTICE!—Cuts displayed in this ad are not the new-style Coats, but are cuts of the Coats we are selling at HALF PRICE, the same style Coats as are being sold around town at full price.
