At the Church of Good Things, East Couch and East Eighth streets, the Carnival of Books opened last night with a musical and literary program. The sale of home-made articles and dainty cooked food will continue each afternoon and a program will be furnished each evening until the close of the carnival Friday night. Each booth represents a book. Vanity Fair is the fancy work booth. "Over the Top" is the refreshment booth where lunch is served by a corps of ladies. "The Substitute" is the booth devoted to aprons and household articles. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is the grocery and tinware department. A booth in yellow and white at the entrance has many pretty souvenirs for sale, and a candy booth is well patronized.

All members of Scout Young camp No. 2, United Spanish War Veterans, are requested to be present at the rehearsal for the veterans' minstrel show to be held this evening at Auditorium hall, Third and Taylor streets. The boys taking part in the show will get down to work in earnest tonight, as all the parts have been assigned. Every veteran in the city should be on hand to encourage the movement, which is for the benefit of the sick and relief fund. Any members of the organization who intend participating in the big show should report to the office tonight. Refreshments will be served.

The Portland Association of Credit Men met in the convention hall of the Commercial club last night. The feature of the evening's program was a talk by S. C. Pier, sales manager of the Marshall-Wells Hardware company on "The Relations Between Sales Managers and Credit Men." Mr. Pier spoke for more cooperation between sales managers and credit men as a means of increasing the house for which a man is working. It was decided to make the December meeting of the association a special one and to provide for several special features.

Physicians' prescriptions entrusted to our care are always compounded with the greatest care and accuracy, by reliable pharmacists, and only the purest and best quality of drugs are used. The doctors' instructions are implicitly followed, with the result that when your prescription is filled at Bern's drug store it will be depended on. Albert Bern, the druggist, 233 Washington street.

AT THE THEATRES

"Little Johnny Jones." The crowds are flocking to the Baker this week as unto a circus and the answer is "Little Johnny Jones," the greatest George M. Cohan show of them all, which Manager Baker was fortunate enough to secure for the benefit of his patrons this week. Do not wait till the last moment.

"The Man on the Box." This has been one of the biggest weeks of the season at the Bungalow, which attests the immense popularity of the well-known comedy "The Man on the Box," which Baker Stock company is presenting in so elegant a manner.

Figman's Sale Tomorrow. The advance seat sale will open tomorrow (Friday) morning at 10 o'clock at the boxoffice of the Heilig theatre, for the favorite comedian Max Figman, who will present his latest comedy "The Substitute" at the above theatre for three nights, beginning next Sunday.

"A Montana Girl" Tonight. The ever-popular Blunkall stock company will present again tonight its greatest hit, "A Montana Girl," one of the best western comedy-dramas ever written. It abounds with thrilling situations, delicious comedy, beautiful sentiment and picturesque scenes.

Sensational Act. Mile. Fregolia, the Parisian lightning

DIAMONDS FOR THE WIFE

What will make a nicer Christmas present to your wife than a beautiful diamond ring, sunburst, brooch, watch studded with diamonds, earrings or La Vallier? The value will always be there and the chances are that in a few years the article will be worth twice what you paid for it.

DIAMONDS ARE SURE TO ADVANCE

Our stock of unmounted diamonds is one of the largest in the city. We can match any stone you bring in, from the small one, weighing 1/4 karat, to the larger ones, weighing 2 and 3 karats. Our $25 and $35 diamond rings are the talk of the town. Compare them with others.

Our Diamond Brooches Set in clusters or single stones, range in price from $10 up.

change artist, is creating a big sensation each performance at the Pantages theatre this week. This interesting young lady makes 45 changes of costume in 15 minutes. She changes her wardrobe quicker than an ordinary woman can change her mind.

An Act for Children. Madam Kessely's marionettes at the Grand is a vaudeville specialty which is of especial interest to children. The little figures are manipulated in a lifelike manner and every action is natural. Every child in town should see this act before it leaves. The Romanoffs have a startling king throwing act.

"Too Proud to Beg" at the Star. "Too Proud to Beg," Lincoln J. Carter's stirring and interesting drama of police life in a large city, is the attraction at the Star this week. Police stories are always popular and appeal to the people because the police department is established for the prosecution of criminals.
