DEAD MAN'S SON CONTESTS WILL

Claims Oscar Peterson, Supposed to Have Been Unmarried Was His Father.

A youth of 17 years, who calls himself Carl Oscar Peterson and who claims to be the son of Charles Peterson, has appeared to contest the will of the latter, who died in Portland about 10 months ago, supposedly unmarried. He left a will disposing of property worth $10,000, which he gave to a nephew and several nieces, the latter living in Norway.

STOP DRINKING!

It was formerly customary for the habitual drinker to take the pledge regularly, sometimes once a year, and sometimes in every fit of remorse that followed his debauches, and then break it. But now it is gradually dawning on the world that pledges do not stop drunkenness. When a man takes a pledge voluntarily, he expects to keep it. Every man expects to keep his word and every broken pledge costs the drunkard many a headache. But he cannot help it. He fights as long as he can, then succumbs to the craving. The nervous system of the habitual drinker is diseased and he must have treatment that will cure this condition. Orrine is sold under a positive guarantee to cure the drink habit or the money will be refunded. No other treatment for the liquor habit is sold under such a liberal guarantee. Orrine is prepared in two forms: No. 1, a powder, perfectly tasteless and odorless, which can be given secretly in any food or drink. Orrine No. 2 is in pill form, for those who wish to be cured of the habit, and it should be taken by every one who swears off. No matter which form of Orrine is used, the guarantee is the same. The price of Orrine is $1.00 per box, mailed in plain sealed wrapper upon receipt of price. Write for free booklet on "How to Cure Drunkenness," (mailed in plain sealed envelope), by The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C. Orrine is sold by Woodward, Clark & Co., distributors.

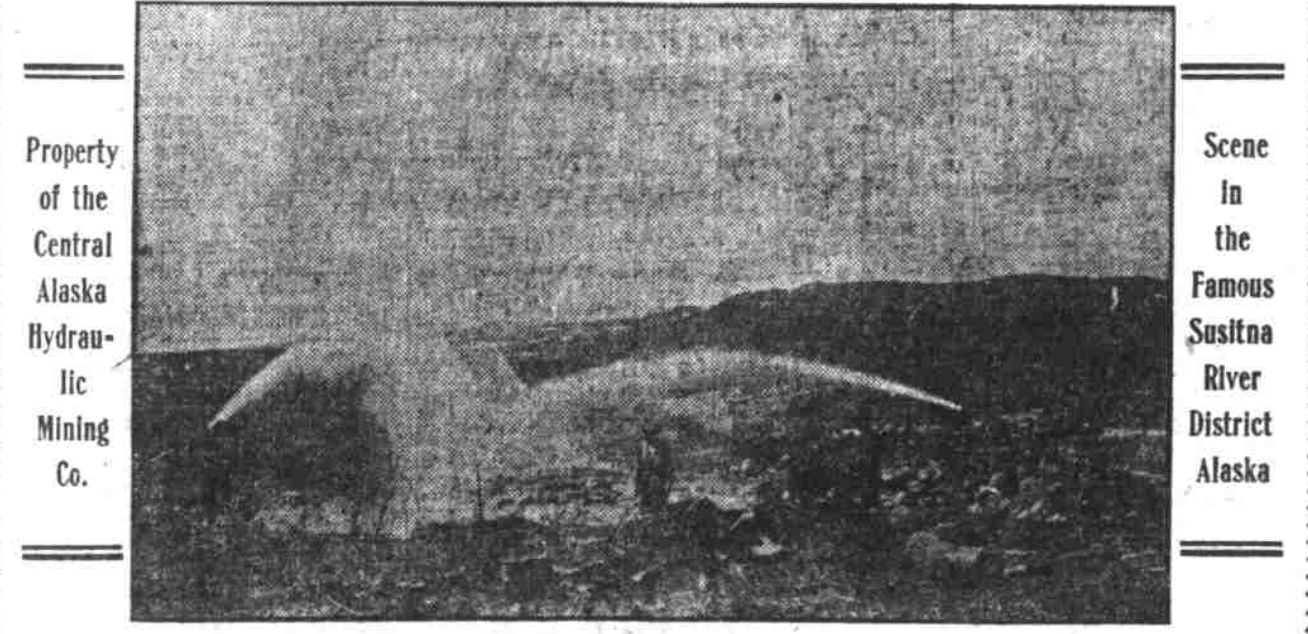

married. To dispute this the contestant yesterday placed on the stand a Mrs. Egan, who claims to be the divorced wife of Charles Peterson, and who says that Carl Oscar Peterson was born to them in March, 1892. Mrs. Egan says she has recently discovered that Peterson married her under the name of Anderson. It was announced that a witness to the marriage will testify, but the contestant is unable to produce the record of a marriage license. Mrs. Egan says Peterson tore up the license. She gives December 23, 1891, as the date of her marriage to Peterson, and she alleges that Peterson deserted her in April of the following year. They were then living in Tacoma, Wash., where Peterson was engaged in the saloon business.

Mrs. Frank O. Anderson, an old friend of Mrs. Egan, testified that she had heard of the marriage of Peterson and the boy's mother, then Miss Christina Geore. She also heard of Peterson's desertion and the birth of a babe, John H. Geore, brother of Mrs. Egan, testified that he had been to see his sister and Peterson several times while they were living together, though he did not attend the wedding. He said he had known ever since the boy was born to them, and he identified the youth in the courtroom as the one that occupied the cradle in the Peterson home in Tacoma.

TASTEFUL OLD ENGLISH LETTERS IN JOURNAL

Old English lettering is the most tasteful and appropriate for marking household linens, doilies, towels and all such articles. The Journal pattern supplement of next Sunday's issue will contain a full sheet of these letters, both in large and in small size, for embroidery. The letters should be readed in the filling, with long loose stitches lengthwise of the letter, and thicker in the middle, sloping gradually toward the sides. In working the letters use round, firm thread and work crosswise of the letter, placing the stitches closely and evenly across the letter. Single lines should be worked in stem stitches or over and over.
