RECORD CROWD AT GREAT RING MILL

Fapke and Ketchel Slow Down Their Work for Thanksgiving Mill.

By Willie Jacobs.
San Francisco, Nov. 21.—After resting for the day, Ketchel and Fapke are back at the grinders again, making things hum and buzz around their respective gyms. Ketchel spent yesterday auting in and about town, while Fapke had the time of his life playing with a new brood of little chicks just incubator-hatched at Farmer Morris Levy's ranch. Both huskies feel full of life and ginger after their short vacation.

WEST SIDERS BEAT PORTLAND ACADEMY

High Wins in First Half but Plays Poor Ball in Second.

The interscholastic football season closed yesterday with a victory for West Side high school over the Portland academy, 14 to 0. This was the first victory of the high school over the Portland academy since 1899. High school scored all of her 14 points during the first half in the second half, when she should have scored at least three touchdowns more, she played poor ball, fumbling considerably and lacking both dash and strength in her attacks.

AGRIC'S GREAT BACKFIELD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Nov. 21.—The O. A. C. backfield is faster this year than usual. Wolfe can run with the best in the northwest, besides being a phenomenal kicker. He has a close second in Keck of last year's scrubs. Cooper is faster and stronger than ever while Gagnon and Hastings, though not a marvel of speed, is one of the best football tacticians in the northwest and is a signal artist of unusual ability. Hastings, the ex-Portland high school captain, has won the admiration and respect of the entire student body by his unassuming manners and star work on the gridiron. He weighs only 135 pounds but it is all in a lump. These men will be an important factor in the remaining games of the Agric's schedule.

OREGON ALUMNI HERE CHRISTMAS

Manager Pratt Will Schedule Old Stars For His Holiday Attraction.

Manager Martin Pratt of the Multnomah club football team this morning announced that in lieu of the Notre Dame university team, or the Olympic club of San Francisco as the Christmas attraction for the football fans, the University of Oregon Alumni would be played this date. The Alumni games was a feature in former years, a good drawing card and provided the hottest games seen on the "Winged M" field. The Oregon Alumni players have signified their willingness to play against Multnomah Christmas and when the game is finally arranged, will commence practice.

In the betting on the mill, Fapke is still a 10 to 7 favorite. Betting Commission Tom Corbett declares that both ends are plentiful at these quotations. Corbett has $2,000 to bet that Fapke doesn't get a knockout in the rounds waiting to be covered. Betting on the general result grows brisker every minute.

CHEMAWA INDIANS ARE VICTORS OVER AGGIES

Chemawa, Or., Nov. 21.—The Chemawa Indians defeated the Oregon Agricultural college second team in a fast game yesterday afternoon at Chemawa. The first half closed without a score with the honors equally divided. In the second half after five minutes of play Dillstrom got away in a very pretty play from the center of the field and by dodging and driving the college boys with him, "Big Joe" landed the ball over the line. The goal was not kicked. The rest of the half was played in O. A. C. territory, but the Indians were unable to score. Dillstrom, Sorter, Wilson and Souvignier played a star game for Chemawa, while Hawley and Knapp were in every play for O. A. C.

The touchdowns and a place kick by Yeoper made up high school's score. The first touchdown came after seven minutes of play and the next one shortly after. The place kick was executed shortly before the whistle blew. The second half should have been productive of about three touchdowns for high school and they played something like the ball they played during first half, but costly fumbling in the backfield, misunderstanding of signals and poor work in handling punts proved very costly. The play was almost entirely in F. A. territory during the half.

WELSH AND ATTELL BREAK IN BETTING

By Ed Moriarity.
Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—Abe Attell and Freddie Welsh today stand even in the betting on their fifteen-round go "Thanksgiving eve as the result of caution on the part of Attell's supporters. Welsh opened favorite at 8 to 10. Naturally the Attell people gobbled this up in the time of the betting.

FOUR SCHOOL TEAMS PLAY GAMES OUTSIDE

Three, and possibly four, local interscholastic football teams will play out of town games Thanksgiving day. West Side High school will meet Tacoma High, East Side High will play Eugene High at Eugene, Columbia university will play Pendleton at the inland city, while Willamette may go to Seattle to play either Lincoln or Broadway High schools.

GREAT CROWD LEAVES FOR SAVANNAH RACES

New York, Nov. 21.—If any person were inclined to doubt the hold that the automobile has on a large section of the American public, he would be convinced by the fact that a large number of the city today to witness the departure of big steamship filled with enthusiastic followers of the sport bound for the races at Savannah next week. For the accommodation of New York and others desirous of seeing the grand prize race the Automobile Club of America chartered two of the largest ships of the Ocean Steamship company. The ships, while in Savannah, will be occupied by the tourists exclusively as a hotel after the races, they will leave Savannah next Saturday for the return trip to this city. Included in the two parties are many of the most prominent automobile racers, manufacturers and agents in this country.

ALBANY COLLEGE IS WINNER OVER EUGENE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Albany, Or., Nov. 21.—In a down-pour of rain Albany college yesterday defeated Eugene high school by a score of 12 to 0. Owing to the slippery condition of the field, fumbles were quite frequent and consequently kept the score down. In the first half Albany kicked to Eugene but the boys from the university city were unable to advance the ball any distance. Taking the ball Albany marched down the field for a touchdown, but failed at the try for goal. During the balance of the half the ball remained in the center of the field.

SPORT OF ALL SORTS

President Ebbe of Brooklyn has handed Patsy Donovan his. Another good "shooter" pitched over the radiator. Ex-manager of the Cincinnati Reds and back to the "Microbes" for Jonathan General. Several heavy warriors of New Haven and Princeton will enter the debating squad and leave football alone hereafter. Some is enough. Dr. Roller of Seattle says he has quit the wreathling game for the future will devote himself to pugilism. All right, Doc, cut loose.

LEAKING GAS IGNITED; BELLBOY WILL DIE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Reading, Cal., Nov. 21.—Four persons received severe burns last night in an explosion of gas in a room on the third floor of the Lorenz hotel and John Rule, a bell boy, was fatally burned. He had lit a match to show guests a room, and ignited the gas, which had flowed for several hours from a leaky pipe. In the explosion which followed Mrs. H. A. Jones, a chambermaid, and Walter Crankin, a porter, were seriously burned and D. A. Lancaster of San Francisco, was hurled to the floor and badly injured. The explosion wrecked the room, breaking the windows and blowing the plaster from the walls. No guests were injured and there was no panic.

IRVINGTON'S ELEVEN WINS CLOSE BATTLE

The Irvington school eleven of the Grammar league defeated Hawthorne school yesterday, 6 to 2, the game being one of the most evenly contested and hardest fought of the league's schedule. By a series of desperate assaults on the Hawthorne defense, the Irvington lads succeeded in making a touchdown in 10 minutes of play in the opening half.

FRISCO GRADS GET REPORTS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Nov. 21.—The graduates of Yale and Harvard are arranging today to receive earliest returns from the annual game between their respective alma maters that will take place today at New Haven. The plans were made last night at a banquet attended by 132 sons of Eli and Old Harvard at the Fairmont hotel.

THE DEVENS.
John J. Fulton Co., a druggist here, reports a splendid cure of a Mr. Richardson, a City Assessor here, who was given up by physicians and friends, and who was cured by your compound, and who is now attending to his duties. Yours truly, L. R. TELLER.

ATTLE MADE FAVORITE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—Shifting now one way, and then another, odds on the Attell-Welch battle have stopped for a moment today with Attell at 8-10 favorite. In all probability the feather-weight champion will enter the ring a point to the good if not better.
