McKenna Junction Is one mile, walking distance, southwest from the new packing-house site of Swift & Co., and is the closest platted property above high water to that great future hive of industry and lies in a direction toward which the wind never blows.

McKenna Junction Joins the land purchased by the Oregon & Washington Railroad for terminal purposes at the entrance to the tunnel on the north side of the Peninsula, around which a large city is sure to spring up soon.

McKenna Junction

Is inside the city boundaries of Portland and has Mount Hood water, Portland public schools, electric lights, graded streets and sidewalks.

The voting precinct in which McKenna Junction is situated has 3000 population. Therefore you can see that it is no wildcat outside venture.

The money you pay for lots at McKenna Junction is not only safe, but sure to double in the near future.

Portland is on the verge of a big boom and now is your time to get a start.

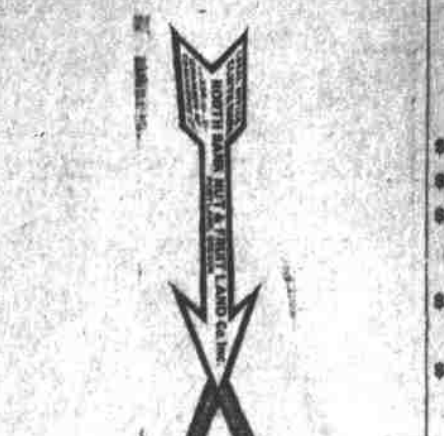

PRICES AND TERMS We will let a few more lots go at the low price of $12 per front foot.

Terms, one-tenth down, balance $5.00 monthly without interest if each installment be paid when of before due.

These prices are likely to be doubled within a year.
