

SOCIETY

Mrs. J. B. Montgomery and her daughter, Miss Margaret Montgomery, will sail for America November 28, and expect to be in Portland before the holidays. They have spent a delightful year in Europe. On the return voyage they will be accompanied by the Baroness von Wittelsheim, by whom they have been entertained and who is coming out to Colorado to visit her relatives. Mrs. Montgomery and her daughter will be gladly welcomed, as they are prominent in social affairs, and their absence this year has been much noticed.

The marriage of Miss Grace C. Reed, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Knox Polk Reed of Boston, to Morris Homans Whitehouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Whitehouse of Portland, was celebrated Tuesday in Salt Lake City. Rev. C. E. Perkins of St. Paul's Episcopal church read the service. There were no cards. Mr. and Mrs. Whitehouse will return here to spend Thanksgiving and will visit with the former's sister, Mrs. Edward Cookingham for two weeks till their home is in readiness for them.

The engagement of Miss Ann Katherine Shea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Francis Shea, to Irving Roger Stearns was announced at a bridge party Wednesday afternoon given in her honor by Miss Nina Guthrie. Miss Shea is very popular among the young set and is a member of the Dix society. Several parties are already being planned in her honor. The wedding will take place some time in January.

Mrs. Edna Robinson entertained Friday evening at Elton Court in honor of Miss Alice Mulford's birthday. The guests were invited to dinner and covers were laid for twelve. The table was pretty in white and green with a birthday cake in the center surrounded by slender vases of white carnations and Boston fern. Luffery's ornate played cards in Miss Mulford's suite.

Miss Hess of San Francisco is the guest of Mrs. Sam Rothchild and there has been a good deal of informal entertaining for her. Miss Hess has attracted a great deal of attention as she is an unusually handsome girl with charming manners. She leaves the first of the week for a visit in Boise and later will return to Portland for another visit.

Mrs. William A. MacRae entertained Wednesday afternoon with the largest bridge party of the week. She had fifteen tables and Miss Ella Stephens assisted her in entertaining the guests. The first prize was won by Mrs. Roger Sinnott, the second by Mrs. J. P. Finley and the consolation by Mrs. Robert Davis.

The Elks Social club will give a dance next Friday evening at the Masonic temple which will be an affair of interest. The patronesses are the wives of the officers, Mrs. G. C. Moser, Mrs. H. Apperson, Mrs. J. B. Coffey, Mrs. W. H. Adams, Mrs. C. M. Billie, Mrs. J. P. Finley and Mrs. W. W. Bretherton.

Miss Hazel Dolph has returned after a delightful three weeks' visit with Mrs. Eleanor Martin of San Francisco. Mrs. C. P. Mills, the distinguished pianist, will be in town for a few days and will visit for two or three weeks with Mrs. C. A. Dolph.

Mrs. Frank Whelan and daughter Florence of San Anselmo, Cal., are visiting Mrs. David M. Dunne, who is a sister of Mrs. Whelan. They intend to remain a month. Mrs. David M. Dunne entertained several friends at a card party last week in their honor.

Mrs. Edmond C. Giltner entertained at bridge whist Wednesday afternoon at her home, 771 Everett street. About forty guests attended. Mrs. John W. Minto and Mrs. Joseph Whitney won the prizes.

The marriage of Miss Inez Cummins, daughter of Dr. W. A. Cumming of Portland, to Harold Perpell of New York, was celebrated yesterday in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ransom, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Coman, Mr. and Mrs. M. Adams, Miss Mabel Ransom and G. Beach left Friday for a week-end visit at Hood River.

Mrs. George W. Hoquiam returned early in the week from Hoquiam and Aberdeen and other Washington cities, where she had been visiting friends several weeks.

Mrs. Walter V. Smith entertained Thursday with a luncheon of six covers at the Norton, and followed it with a theatre party.

Mrs. Emanuel Siebel is planning to give an afternoon this week for the girls in honor of Miss Hess of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Teal are planning to leave about the first of the month for New York to spend several weeks.

Miss Henryette Lauer is planning to leave next week for Boise to visit her sister, Mrs. Charles Kahn.

Miss Florence Kohn entertained Tuesday evening with two tables of the new game auction bridge.

Mrs. Hedner of Boise, Idaho, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Newton Bissinger.

Clare Meadows is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leo Selling at 270 Morrison street.

Mrs. E. B. Piper and her family have gone to Seaside to spend Thanksgiving.

Miss Lela Shelby left yesterday for eastern Oregon for a few weeks' rest.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

An interesting social affair was given by the Taylor Street Epworth league at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday evening. This is the first of a series of socials to be given by the various churches of the city in connection with the Y. M. C. A. work. The program was unique. Songs were given by C. H. Parish and Mrs. F. W. Jones and readings by Mr. Jones. Miss M. Margaret Smith played a piano solo, "Pala-de-la-Rine" by the Ross. The leading feature of the occasion was a fake manufactured musical instrument consisting of a large box with a graphophone horn attached inside of which a singer was concealed. This idea of entertainment was arranged and carried out by the Misses Powell of Taylor Street church and William Larimore of the Y. M. C. A. The speech by M. C. Reed introducing it was clever and entertaining.

The J. F. Half Thousand club enjoyed a delightful evening with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Westermire at their beautiful home Friday, November 18. Mrs. Kendall was again the winner of the prize, a beautiful Dresden china plate. The home was prettily decorated and supper was served after cards. The members of the club are, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Menefee; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Menefee; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Willett; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wright; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boone; and Mrs. H. A. Frederich; Mr. and Mrs. George Kendall; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Westermire; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. H. Miller. Mrs. Lantz substituted for Mrs. Miller. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Boone.

At the home of Mrs. C. C. Hansen, 125 Lawrence street, Monday, a pleasant surprise party was given in honor of Mr. Hansen's thirty-second birthday. The friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. Wiley. The following musical program was given: Vocal solo, Marguerite Dunlap; violin solo, J. T. Wiley; vocal solo, Mrs. W. P. Hansen; piano duet, Mrs. Rose Hansen and Ella Jones. Dainty refreshments were served after which C. C. Hansen cut the birthday cake and each one of the guests was presented with a lighted candle and a piece of cake.

On the evening of November 14 a delightful surprise party was given to Miss Nettie Habekost, in honor of her birthday, at the home of her parents, 731 Overton street. The evening was spent in playing games and amusement, after which a dainty supper was served. Those present were: The Misses Hazel O'Brien, Laura and Winnie Burg, Marie and Sadie Durkin, Nettie and Clara Habekost and Jack Healy, John Schade, Frank Viles, Steve Bonner, Fred Denenberg, Charles Strode and John O'Brien.

A play called "Wanted, a Wife," was successfully given by some Albina boys and girls, under the management of Eddie Taylor at his home, 528 Williams avenue, Thursday evening. Cast of characters: East Hoop, Joe Williams; T. Nero, Victor Torg; Eddie Taylor, Buddy Trux; Berthy Hennings, Ella Henry; Ella Hennings, Specialties, Babe Mitchell, two songs; Miss Hazel Peters, recitation; La Vern Brooks, four years old, sang "Just for the sake of Boid," and she was loudly applauded.

The Swastika Five Hundred club, one of the popular clubs of Portland, met at the home of Mr. Kenefuk. Mrs. McNamer, having the highest score of the day, won the prize, a beautiful hand painted plate. Delicious refreshments were served by Miss Edith Dufurus and Miss June Kenefuk. They also gave several piano selections. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Reising.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. P. A. Binford assisted by Miss Hazel Lee gave a hosiery shower at her home, in honor of Miss Bess Munro. The rooms were decorated with small red stockings hung from ropes of ivy. Those present were: Miss Edna Munro, Mrs. C. B. Russell, Mrs. George Weiss and Mrs. M. M. Binford.

Emil Enna entertained the Enna amateurs at supper at the Portland grill Thursday evening after the concert given by them. Mrs. H. W. Coe was the chaperone.

WEDDINGS

One of the pretty weddings of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins, Wednesday evening when their daughter Yvonne V. and Vivian Lionel Robinson were married by Rev. Nelson E. Allen. Only relatives and a few immediate friends were in attendance at the ceremony. Promptly at 8 o'clock Miss Helen White sang, "When Song is Sweet," immediately after Miss Ethel Church played the wedding march from Lohengrin and the bridal party entered the parlor and advanced under a large wedding veil made of white chrysanthemums. The house was beautifully decorated with palms and chrysanthemums, and intermingled with incense. After the ceremony a large reception was given and Mr. and Mrs. Collins and Miss Esther Collins received with the bridal party. Those assisting Mrs. C. Prescott and Mrs. E. L. Patton in serving were Miss Mae Siegler, Miss Duella Segur, Miss Bess Dupee and Miss Helen White and Miss Bernice Church. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson left on a short trip and will be at home at 15 Prescott street after December 14.

Thursday evening at the residence of the groom's sister, Mrs. M. J. Creighton, 471 Jefferson street, Frank D. McCully of Joseph, Or., and Martha E. Dunbar of Portland, were married by Rev. W. L. Ham Heppie, pastor of the Grace M. E. church. Only immediate relatives were present. After congratulations, refreshments were served and the groom and bride left for California. Mr. McCully shipped his motor to San Francisco and they will spend the month motoring through California and Mexico. The bride is popular and well known, she has resided for a number of years, and she is a sister of mar. The bridegroom is the youngest son of the well known pioneers, the late Mr. and Mrs. David McCully.

A pretty home wedding took place November 8 at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. White, near Damascus, Or., when their daughter, Lura, was united in marriage to August Rodun of Portland. Rev. J. H. Wood officiating. Miss Olive Rodun, sister of the groom, and Miss Winnifred Osburn accompanied the bride. The groom was attended by M. Roy White and Lewis Rodun, brothers of the bride and groom. Ethel Farrer, six-year-old niece of the bride, was flower girl. The bride was becomingly attired in a dainty gown of silk crepe-de-sume, trimmed with lace, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The young couple left at once for Portland where they will make their home home at 940 East Salmon street.

Warren Painter and Miss Eleanor Helm, both of Marshfield, Or., were married at North Bend last week. There were no invitations to the affair, but the announcement of the wedding was not a surprise. Both are quite prominent socially in Marshfield. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. M. A. Breetman. The groom is assistant agent at the Steamship Alliance office at North Bend.

At the residence of the officiating clergyman, 271 College street in the evening, November 17, Miss Anna O. Olsen and John Wickberg were married by Rev. Henry A. Barden. They were attended by Albert Agin of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Wickberg will reside at Raymond, Wash.

T. E. Zeek and Miss Willa Edna White, both of this city, were married in the reception room of the White Temple Saturday, November 14, by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brounger.

Joyous Thanksgiving Day

Thanksgiving Day is solely an American holiday, of course. Did you ever stop to think that this is the only country in the world celebrating this day? In most homes it is celebrated with a feast. It's the day of days for the gathering together of families and friends. We want to help—help the housekeepers to make their unusually heavy work on that day as light as possible—by giving them the right things to work with. We've a hundred and one things in this big store that we have no room to mention, but if it is anything in the housefurnishing line we have it. That is all.

How About a New Range?

The Stewart Range will make your Thanksgiving dinner a pleasure. Stewart Ranges are fully guaranteed, fitted with oven thermometer and gas plates if desired.

The Dining-Room
IS EASILY THE PRETTIEST ROOM IN THE HOUSE.

There are so comparatively few pieces that are needed in a dining-room that a pretty dining-room may be fitted up at a less figure than any room in the house. And it is so easily the prettiest room in the house, too.
