The famous Maud Powell trio will be heard in a grand concert recital at the Heilig theatre next Wednesday night, November 25 (Thanksgiving eve). This brilliant combination of women artists has never been surpassed in the history of music in America. The trio is composed of the following stars: Maud Powell, the world's greatest woman pianist; Max Minkie, the world's greatest violinist; and the world's greatest female vocalist, Mrs. Maud Powell. This will prove the most delightful treat that Portland music lovers have ever had from an instrumental standpoint and one that will be "town talk" after they have departed. Seats are now selling at the theatre box office.

The New York Dominican Fathers, who are making a missionary tour of the coast, ended their mission in Holy Rosary church yesterday with the church filled to overflowing. Besides the early morning devotionals, services were held at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The Rev. H. J. Shaw, O. P., and Rev. C. V. Lamb, O. P. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. B. Moran, O. P. The music, both morning and evening, was very well rendered. Among the soloists were: Tenor, C. E. Couture; soprano, Mrs. Millie Perkins; violin, Miss C. Barker.

Every member of the Spanish War Veterans minstrel show should attend an important rehearsal tonight at T. M. A. hall, Yamhill and Third streets. Some new features will be introduced into the performance in which all those taking part in the show will participate. The tickets are being placed on sale about the city and the executive committee claim that the indications point to overflowing audiences on the nights of December 18 and 19 at the Heilig theatre.

Nominations for mayor, recorder, marshal, treasurer and two councilmen will be made at a mass meeting of the citizens of Milwaukie tomorrow night. Councilman Phillip Strieb will be one of the candidates for mayor, and it is improbable that Mayor Schneider will run for office again. Added importance is given to the election by the fact that the new officials will conduct negotiations with the Southern Pacific company for that company's new franchise through the city.

The United Brethren churches in the city are holding an election this week for delegates to the national convention at Canton, Ohio, next May. Two delegates, a minister and a layman are to be sent and there are three candidates for each place. Dr. F. W. Jones, Rev. H. Neff and Dr. J. H. Parker are the ministers running for the place, while among the laymen Mrs. J. R. Parker, F. G. Zeigler and J. M. Kitson are the candidates.

The International Geneva association of hotel and restaurant employees has organized a local branch. This association has branches all over the world and was first organized in Geneva in 1877. Baron Schlenk, one of the promoters of the Quella restaurant, is one of the original organizers. It is planned to make the organization a help to all restaurant owners and managers to secure skilled help on the shortest notice.

A feature of the services at St. James Evangelical Lutheran church last evening was the singing of Otto Herse, well known on this coast as a tenor and band singer. He gave two sacred solos in finished and pleasing style. Mr.

Only rich people can afford to use poor soap. For this reason: Poor soap contains an excess of alkali which weakens the fabric and shortens the life of everything it touches.

Rich people can stand that sort of thing. People who are not rich should use Ivory Soap for everything but the coarsest, commonest things that need to be washed.

GIVE DANCE TO ITS EMPLOYEES

Portland Railway, Light & Power to Show Appreciation of Men's Work.

The percentage of streetcar accidents in Portland is lower than any city for its size on the coast. In appreciation of the efforts of its employes to prevent wrecks and the injury of persons, B. F. Boynton of the claim department of the street railway company, has arranged for a series of dances during the winter which will be held at different times in the neighborhoods of the coast town.

The first dance will take place tomorrow evening at Strahman's hall, in Sellwood, for the catmen and their families of the O. W. P. division. The committee having the entertainment in charge is made up of C. C. Loucks, of the freight department; Marley Ennis, of the passenger department; and William Smith, representing the shop department.

CONTRACT FOR SWIFT BUILDINGS

Big Packing Firm Will Sign for Plant's Construction This Week.

Contracts for the work of erecting the buildings for the Swift & Co. packing plant on the peninsula are to be awarded this week. H. C. Gardner of Chicago, chief of construction for the Swift interests, arrived in Portland this morning, accompanied by F. J. Leonard, an assistant. Mr. Gardner will remain here until the contracts have been let and many other details for urging the work onward have been completed.

AT THE THEATRES

Max Figman at Heilig Tonight.
 The attraction at the Heilig theatre tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock, will be the favorite comedian, Max Figman, and his excellent support company in his latest comedy drama success, "The Substitute." Seats are now selling at theatre for both nights.

Thanksgiving Night at Heilig.
 The Thanksgiving night attraction at the Heilig theatre will be the interesting western drama, "Texas," which will continue Friday and Saturday nights, with a special price matinee Saturday. The advance seats will open tomorrow (Tuesday) morning at theatre.

Strongheart an Immense Hit.
 One of the greatest offerings of this season at the Bungalow is Robert Edwards' famous comedy play, "Strongheart," which Baker Stock company is presenting all this week. The football scene arouses wildest enthusiasm.

Two Favorite Comedians.
 Rice & Cady at the Baker this week, are well known and popular here, and have had a long run at the Weber & Fields style of comedy. They are appearing in one of the latest travesties, "Hip, Hip Hooray," which is a scream of fun.

Splendid New Bill at the Orpheum.
 The Orpheum, appreciating the splendid patronage accorded the bill last week, has put on an extraordinary classy bill for the patrons during Thanksgiving week, which opened with today's matinee, "The Village Queen." "The Blonde Typewriters," which are proving a big hit on the circuit.

Grand's Modern Miracles.
 Modern miracles with electricity will be worked at the Grand this week by Carl Herman, who is the headliner. This will be one of the most interesting and scientific ever sent to Portland. It is amusing as well as instructive. Palfrey and Hoefler come from Europe with original and sensational cycle tricks.

"We Are King" at the Star.
 Edmund Carroll, who is appearing at the Star this week in Walker Walside's great success, "We Are King," is an actor of great dramatic ability and a finished artist. Manager Harry Crook has surrounded Mr. Carroll with an excellent cast, and has spared no expense.

GOVERNMENT HAS ODD JOBS OPEN

A. M. Shannon Says Millions of Tons Are Available Along Columbia.

"As soon as transportation down the Columbia has been assured by the removal of obstructions near The Dalles there will be no monopoly of the stone block trade. St. Helen's quarry will be only one of a dozen as large or larger on the banks of the big river. There are millions and millions of tons of rock out of which Belgian blocks can be made within a hundred miles of Portland," said A. M. Shannon, of the Warren Construction company, this morning.

LAUGHTER SHOW AT THE BAKER

"Hip, Hip, Hooray" at the Baker this week is a show that every theatregoer who likes to laugh should see. There is something funny all the time and while the music is not new, the chorus, which is by far the prettiest that has visited the Baker this year, renders it in a way that lends a charm to the very atmosphere.

THREE THOUSAND FOR STATE MISSIONS

The November number of the Portland Churchman, the publication of the Episcopal church for the diocese of Oregon, has just been issued. The leading article is a call for $3,000 for missions in Oregon before September 1, 1909, and states that the bishop and the board of missions hope to raise this amount by the date mentioned. All that is needed, the article says, is less parochialism and more missionary enthusiasm on the part of clergymen and women, inspiring leadership on the part of the clergy and an awakening of warden and vestrymen to a sense of diocesan responsibilities and opportunities.
